The Presbyterian Sunday School Anniversary on Friday evening was a huge success. In the absence of a pastor, Mr. Alex. Cameron ably filled the chair and gave out the many numbers which pleased the audience. The children marched on the stage to the music played by Mrs. Williams, and sang the opening chorus, "Everyboy's Happy." The Carruthers band gave instrumental music. Several recitations were given by the smaller children and one special selection by Miss J. Roszell, niece of Mr. Walker, superintendent of the school. This young lady certainly has the qualifications for reciting. The Misses Henderson of Proton rendered some choice singing, which was loudly applauded and appreciated by all present. The Misses Pedlar of Rock Mills, swinging the clubs, accompanied by Mr. Jake Williams on the violin, was also highly appreciated. The drill by six girls and six boys gave great credit to their teacher, Mr. Ellis. Two tableaux were displayed, one by three little girls, entitled "Nearer the Cross," and another by six little girls, entitled "Nearer my God to Thee," these being very effective. A splendid duet was sung by little Hilda Williams and Master Fred Large, entitl d Jack and Jill. A motion song by four little junior scholars was well done. Tea was served in the basement and the body of the church was beautifully decorated with Christmas bells. The Christmas tree was filled and set on the stage. At the close of the program the children marched around singing "All Hail the Shining Christmas Tree." The presents were then distributed to the children and the program closed by singing God Save the King. Proceeds $34.00.

Maxwell

A very Pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. Edward Linley on Dec. 21, when the congregation of St. Mary's church met and presented Mrs. Robert Arnott (nee Miss Alice Field) with the following address:

To Mrs. Robert Arnott, organist of St. Mary's Church, Maxwell:

The members of the congregation, being desirous of showing you a small token of our appreciation of the musical service rendered as organist by you during the past year, present you with this gift, a china tea set and set of silver knives and forks, and pray that you accept it in the spirit in which it is given, of love, esteem and good will. The beauty of your style and elegance of playing have ever given the soft, tender influence helpful in divine service. Yours truly is a musical spirit.

To God, the Universal King,
Let all mankind their tribute bring,
All that have breath your voices raise
In songs of never-ceasing praise.

We want you to know that we fully understand how deeply we are indebted to you, not only owing to your efficiency as a musician, but your zeal in the work, which has helped to give to the services of the church their highly spiritual significance to which during your term of office they have attained. "Not all the nobles of the earth who boast the wonders of their birth, so high a destiny can claim, as those who bear the Christian name." Especially when the musical part of the Christian service is executed under the sweetest test of religious sincerity. We also wish to express our best and highest and sweetest wishes in your new environs. From maid to matron is a long step, which you have recently taken, and our hearts' best wishes are with you and your dear husband, and our prayer shall ever be that God in his goodness may shower his best blessings upon you; that his presence may ever go with you. So please accept this gift as coming from warm, loving and true hearts. Wishing you a happy Christmas and New Year and the star of hope forever. Signed on behalf of the church,—Edward Linley, John Hargrave.
