The Durham Chronicle says : We attended the Methodist Sunday school entertainment in Flesherton on New Year's night, and felt perfectly delighted at the magnificent elocutionary and musical talent displayed by the children. It was on New Year's night, 1886, that we first listened to an entertainment in that village and in the same church. For the next eleven years, we believe, we were present on every occasion, and, after an absence of sixteen years, it is only natural to think we would like to drop around and see a few of our former acquaintances and many others whose faces were not at all familiar. The church was packed with an audience of interested listeners who must have been delighted with the program. Few places, if any, can excel Flesherton in getting up a good, clean, catchy entertainment. We wish them continued prosperity, and we have no doubt they will continue to merit the popularity they have so long maintained.

Rockvale Baptist church held their anniversary services on Sunday, Jan. 5. Rev. L. F. Kipp of Montreal conducted the services morning and evening. Large congregations were present. Addresses were given by the Revs. McLaren, Wellwood and Kipp. Special collections were taken at each meeting, the proceeds amounting to $50, for which the officers are grateful.

Croft--Howard

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Howard, Lady Bank, on Monday, Jan. 6th, when their second daughter, Margaret, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Robt. Croft of Maxwell. While the wedding march was being played by Miss Flossie Simmons, cousin of the groom, the bride, who was charmingly dressed in white silk, trimmed with satin and over-lace, entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her brother, and took her place beside the groom, under an arch of evergreens, prettily decorated with festooning and flowers. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jas. Phimister of Maxwell, in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends. After the usual congratulations, a dainty wedding repast was partaken of. The bride's travelling dress was of navy blue empress cloth, with coat and hat to match. The young couple received many useful and pretty presents, among which was an organ, the gift of the bride's parents. One of the pleasing features of the evening was the christening of the bride's nephew, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ferris, Feversham. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Croft wish them a happy and prosperous journey through lite. The bride who has been organist in Providence church and Sunday school, will be greatly missed.

Wonderfully Improved

True to promise, the publishers of The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal have vastly improved that already great paper during the past few months. It is said several new editors have been added to the staff, and still greater improvements are contemplated. The beautiful picture, "Mother's Treasures," is in great demand. Every one who sees it wonders how such a picture can be given with such a great paper at one dollar a year. It is the best dollar's worth to be had, and those who miss it will regret it. Old subscribers should see that their renewal subscription is sent at once to guarantee the picture.
