VICINITY CHIPS

Dr. Bell of Alberta was a caller on his sister, Miss H. Bell, on Monday.

The ice harvest is in full swing this week and the quality is good.

Miss Mary Bowers of Shelburne is visiting with her cousin, Ettie Thompson.

Born—At Ocean Park, California, on Feb 9, to Mr. and Mrs. Herb. Staples, a son (Herbert).

Miss Lillian Armstrong spent the fore part of the week with Miss Katie Walters in Kimberley.

Mrs. W. A. Armstrong spent a few days last week in Dundalk, the guest of Mrs. Geo. Nixon.

Mrs. and Miss Minnie Nixon of Lucknow attended the Nixon—Paul Nuptials on Tuesday of this week.

Colds have been epidemic the past week and The Advance staff has not escaped.

Mrs. VanDusen and Mrs. Habert left on Tuesday for Toronto, where they have taken a flat for the remainder of the winter.

Dundalk hockey team will play against Flesherton on the rink here on Friday night, Feb. 21st, weather permitting.

Mr. Wes. Pedlar of Loup City, Nebraska, and well know here, is in the Omaha hospital suffering with apendicitis.

Artemesia Council met at Ceylon on Saturday. The minutes appear elsewhere. According to resolution the next session of Council will be held at Priceville.

The managers of Feversham skating rink will hold their second and last carnival of the season on Friday evening, Feb. 21. Good prizes. See bills. I.S. Perigoe, manager.

The Flesherton Dramatic Club will present the Merchant of Venice before a Eugenia audience on Feb. 28. It is a good thing well done and we recommend it to our Eugenia friends.

Rev. Mr. McLeod of Manitowaning, who preached in the Presbyterian church on Sunday, gave an able and very earnestly delivered sermon, which made a favorable impression. Rev. Mr. Justice, who comes highly recommended, will preach next Sunday.

In conversation with a young man from the West last week he stated that there is far more poverty in the West than there is in Ontario. He also said that four out of five who go west fail to make good. He himself is one of the fifth men and is no kicker, but tells of conditions as he actually sees them. This young man had 100 acres of flax last year for which he received $4000. He owns a preemption and a homestead in the vicinity of Weyburn.

On Monday evening the Epworth League, mustering some thirty members strong, drove out to the hospitable home of Mrs. Parker, west back line. A most enjoyable time was spent in games, and a short impromptu program consisting of two-minute speeches on great themes, recitations, solos, instrumentals, etc., proved both amusing and very interesting. The E. L. greatly appreciated the kind hospitality of Mrs. Parker and Mr. John Parker, and also the goodness of Mr. Richard Wilcock, in his capacious sleigh, conveyed the greater part of the company to and fro over the beaufiful white.

Mr. Jas. Clark of Owen Sound will give a musical concert in Chalmers' church on Wednesday evening of next week, the proceeds to go towards completing his education for the ministry. This young man is totally blind, but has worked himself through Woodstock Baptist college, Toronto Bible Training school and wishes to complete his study in the Moody Institute, Chicago. His aims are laudable and we trust he will have a large audience. His selections will be taken from Il Trovatore, Tannhauser, Faust, etc. Admission 25c.

The Rev. H. E. Wellwood, pastor of the Methodist church, last Sabbath morning began a series of sermons on that wonderful book, Revelation. He spoke on "The vision of Christ and the church" and purposes spending several Sabbath mornings in the study of the "last things" in that last book of the Bible. And last Sabbath evening he started a series on "The conscience." Feb. 16—The Conscience, what is it? Is it infallible? Feb. 25—The conscience as related to oneself. March 2—The conscience as related to other people. March 9—The conscience as related to God. These subjects will be dealt with at the evening services. Come and hear these vital gospel themes. All are welcome.

Nixon--Paul

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. R. Bentham in the suburbs on Tuesday of this week, when Mrs. Bentham's sister, Miss Gertie Paul, was joined in holy wedlock with Mr. Will Nixon of Ogema, Sask. At 4.30, as Miss Minnie Nixon, sister of the groom, placed the wedding march, the party took their places beneath an evergreen arch, the bride being given away by her father, Mr. Elijah Paul of Eugenia. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. E. Wellwood, B.A., B.D. As the register was being signed "O Perfect Love" was sung by Miss Minnie Nixon. After the usual congratulations and good wishes, the guests repaired to the dining room, where the wedding supper was served. The tables looked very pretty in the soft candle light. The bride, who was unattended, was gowned in cream pailette silk, with cream allover lace and silver bead fringe trimming, and carried white roses. The happy couple left on the night train for the groom's parental home at Lucknow, the bride travelling in a brown suit and a white beaver hat trimmed with white ostrich bandeau and pink ribbon roses. They leave in the near future for their home at Ogema, Sask., and will carry with them the best wishes of ye editor and a host of friends.

C. N. R. For Owen Sound

That the Canadian Northern is looking towards Owen Sound is evident from the fact that the Company's officials have been in town at different times during the last few weeks, says the Sun. Mr. G. C. Collier, Locating Engineer for the Canadian Northern was here on Wednesday looking over the ground. The sun interviewed Mr. Collier but as is usual with railway men he was very non-committal and would say nothing regarding the plans of the company. Mayor Lemon, when interviewed by the Sun this morning was very optimistic over the outlook and thinks that it is only a matter of time until the Canadian Northern put their road into Owen Sound. He explained that Mr. Collier's visit was for the purpose of securing data and information in order to submit a report to Sir William McKenzie. He looked up the charter and found things in a very satisfactory shape. This visit from the Company's engineer is one of the preliminary steps that will lead to a branch of the road coming to Owen Sound. The Company's engineers have been visiting different points throughout the country along the proposed line in the last few weeks as well as in owen Sound. At present, appearances indicate that the Canadian Northern is getting busy and it is only a matter of time until Owen Sound is connected with Meaford and other points with a third line of railway.

An accident, which caused the death of Mr. Thomas Vanderbile, took place at Cape Rich, between four and five o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. It appears that Mr. Neil McGillivray, assisted by Mr. Vanderbile, were cutting wood in the former's bush near the Cape and on Tuesday afternoon the men were chopping down trees. It was in felling one of these trees that the fatal accident happened. In falling, the tree struck an old stump and glanced sideways, a limb striking Vanderbile in the abdomen, wounding him in the back and across the bowels. The unfortunate man suffered intensely and medical assistance was at once summoned, but the victim died at seven o'clock that evening, or some three hours after the accident.—Meaford Express.

A young man from West Luther, says the Arthur Enterprise, appeared before Police Magistrate Hudson, charged with having stolen a case of silver knives and forks from the store of Brocklebanks' Ltd. on Christmas eve. He pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs. It seems the young man had taken the silverware for the purpose of presenting it to a lady friend who resides in West Garafraxa. He managed to pull off the first act in the drama quite successfully and presented the Yuletide gift and no doubt thoroughly enjoyed the profuse appreciation of the young lady, to whom he must have appeared the personification of generosity. However, her good opinion of the young man in question must have been completely changed when Constable P. J. Farrel drove to her parents' home with a search warrant to locate the missing case of silver.

Three men lost their lives in a fire which destroyed the Matabanick Hotel at Elk Lake early Saturday morning.

Ex-Mayor John Chamberlain of Collingwood died at his home there after several weeks' illness.
