Their highly esteemed pastor, Rev. Malcolm Mc-Kinnon, preaching his farewell sermon prior to his departure to his new field of labor at Febelon Falls. It is almost unnecessary to say that the rev. gentleman will be greatly missed by his strongly attached people in Eldon for it is chiefly owing to his unremitting exertions and zealous devotion, under providence, that there has been such a wonderful progress made in that congregation; and by which he is so greatly esteemed, not alone by Fenelon Falls is to be congratulated in obtaining such an able and efficient expounder of Christian doctrine. Satbath last being the day for the farewell address, his congregation assembled to hear him as their pastor for the last time. As he enters and views the crowded pews of the sacred new edifice, the many faces beaming forth deep affectionate regret at this being the final service of his pastorate. The thought of the pleasant and swiftly gone-by time, and the mutual, friendly and harmonious relations, that from first to last reigned between himse!f and them; of how those hands that had in co-opera tion with his own performed so much for the promotion of God's Kingdom, were now, perhaps, to be clasped in a final farewell, forces itself upon him, and for a

PRESENTATION AND ADDRESS .- An interesting part of the proceedings at the Sunday school entertainment was the presentation to Miss Moffatt of a beautifui seal skiu cap and storm collar. Miss Muffatt has left our school to take a similar position in the Little Britain school, and her many friends took this opportunity to show in a slight degree their effection for her. Rev. Mr. Fallis read the address and Miss Hannah made the presentation. Miss Moffatt was compietely taken by surprise. The following is the address :-

DEAR MISS MOFFATT, -Having learned with regret that you are about to leave us, your many friends in this vicinity desire to express in some way their esteem for you and their appreciation of ult., was a day that brought to the Eldon your labors. As a painstaking and efficient teacher you have done satisfactory work in our school, and shall not soon be forgotten in the affections of our pupils. In the church and league your labors have not been less zealous; and in all our social gatherings you have cheerfully and kindly helped. We sincerely regret that these relations are so soon to be of Mr. William James, which sad event severed. We beg you to accept this (seal) cap and coliar as a token of rememberance from your many friends in this place. We earnestly pray that the blessing of God may be with you in your next school and make your labors as successful as they have been here.

Special to The Warder: On Tuesday evening, December 23rd the people of Salem, enjoyed a great treat by way of a school entertainment, and the manner in which every thing was conducted and the success of the under taking reflected great credit on the teacher, pupils and the people of the com munity. The first thing that attracted the attention of visitors upon entering the building was the tasty manner in arrival of the contracting parties from the which it was decorated. Around the walls trained in reversed curves were long lines of evergreens overhanging and encircling many handsoms pictures and mottoes, while in front, just over the lous watch was appeared by the arrival of mottoes, while in front, just over the platform there was formed cut of the same material in large capital letters, the word "Welcome," the whole presenting a word "Welcome," the whole presenting a word "in the word of the word of the same material in large capital letters, the word "Welcome," the whole presenting a word of the same material in large capital letters, the word "Welcome," the whole presenting a very neat and handsome appearance. At 7 30 sharp, the curtain was withdrawn and there commenced a well arranged, amusing and instructive entertainment, consisting of dialogues, recitations, singing and music. The school children took their part well and by their acting and speaking showed careful adaptation to work on their own part, combined with careful training on the part of the teacher. Miss Annie Farrell showed herself to be perfectly at home on the platform by the able manner in which she acted the part of the girl from Pontypool, while Santa Claus was well represented by Mr. Wm. Farrell. Mr. James Farrely personated the landlord to perfection. Other actors worthy of mention were, Misses M. Hall, E. Farrelly, N. Farrell, L. Moore, L. Farrell, Meesre. A. Huggins, G. Hall, W. Moore, H. Gregory and W. Connors.

Mise Colla Dyer proved herself to be a splendid reciter and was ready to respond ably to the hearty encore she received. Mr. W. S. Blackwell gave a very comic recitation which drew forth a hearty encore to which he ably responded with another which was highly applauded by the audience. Mr. John White of Toronto then gave a reading in his usual strong, forcible and eloquent style. Mr. Bryson then delivered, in a very able manner, a 4th of July oration which rung hearty cheers from the audience. Mr. George Blackwell also gave a recitation in his usual comic and witty style calling fourth shouts of laughter and applause. Miss Gilpin of Lindsay gave a recitation on temperance in a tone | ted lest serious evil ensue.
