Kimberley Budget

Quite a number from here attended the poultry lecture in the town hall, Flesherton, on Tuesday afternoon last. Mr. McCullough, lecturer of the poultry department of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, was the speaker and he delivered a good practical address on the different phases of the poultry business.

The regular monthly meeting of the Kimberley Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. Jas. Walker, on Thursday evening, March 27th.

Miss Manary of Beaverdale is visiting at Mr M. R. Hammond's, at present.

Mr. Ernest Proctor visited friends in Toronto a few days last week.

Mr. Jno. Speers of Feversham, was a caller in our burg one day last week.

Mr. John Plewes of Honeywood, visited with his father, Mr. John Plewes, for a few days the past week.

The auction sale held by Mr. John Fawcett on Monday, was a bumper, despite the extremely cold weather. Good prices were realized on the stock and implements.

Mr. Richard Howell of Toronto, accompanied by Mr. John Hurd, visited friends in this vicinity a few days the past week, returning home on Monday.

We are extremely surprised that the farmers along the Beaver river whose farms suffer from the spring freshets have not applied to the Ontario Government this spring for a grant to dredge or clean the river. They applied last year and were told that it was too late but that they could get a grant by applying the following year. Hundreds of acres of Euphrasia's best soil is lying dormant at present on account of it being inundated most of the year. We will have to form a boost club and get busy right away.

Mr. Oliver Irwin of the Park House, Flesherton, was a caller in our burg on Monday.

Mr. Albert Latter occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church on Sunday evening last.

Mr. Amos McClung of Cheeseville visited at his parental home for a few days during the past week.

East Mountain

Intended for Last Week

Miss Elsie Martin returned home, after a two week' visit with friends at Redwing.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Martin and two children visited with the latter's father in Beaverdale, last Sunday.

On Feb. 27th the grim reaper of death, called one home, in the person of Mr. Geo. Allen. Deceased had been a great sufferer for a number of years and death was a happy release to him. Rev. Mr. Wellwood of Flesherton conducted the funeral service at the house, which was a very impressive one. The funeral took place to Markdale cemetery, where the Rev. Mr. Dymond took charge of the burial service at the grave. The deceased leaves to mourn his loss a widow and three daughters, Hazel Annie and Perle. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

Mr. and Mrs. Howson of Redwing, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hall one day last week.

Victoria Corners

Mr. Wm. Heard is making maple syrup and reports a good time.

Mr. Max Bannon is at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Acheson gave a party on Thursday evening.

Mr. Metheral occupied the pulpit here last Sunday.

The bright faces and open purses of the Missionary collectors were to be seen in our burg last week.

Wm. Hewish, a well known farmer of the east side of Nottawasaga, met a very sudden call on Friday evening. With a sleigh load of neighbors he started to drive to T. Burkholder's, on the second line, where a farewell party was to be held. He got out of the sleigh to walk up a hill on the sideroad near his own farm, and after getting back into the sleigh again he expired in a few moments without speaking.—Creemore Star.

Mr. Farrel of Dundalk, called on friends here, recently.

Mr. Joe. Mudden is still very ill.

One of the saddest sights in rural Ontario, says the Ridgetown Dominion, is in the neglected cemeteries and private burying places to be found here and there along the roadways. It does sadden one to see, amid the rank weed growth, or unprotected in a open field the overturned tombstones which in many places mark the last resting place of those who assisted in settling and clearing the country and laying the foundations of a nation. A deplorable example of this sad neglect is to be seen by those traveling by G. T. R. to Toronto, on a farm on the right side about a mile below Noval, and similar neglected spots of "God's Acre," are to be seen on almost any leading highway.—Acton Free Press.

Riverdale

Intended for Last Week.

Spring is approaching—oh, let it be soon.

Misses Annie, Mary and Rena Best of Alberta, who have been visiting Ontario friends during the past few months, were the guests of Misses Louie and Olive Wiley last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee pleasantly entertained the society jewls of Riverdale, recently.

The telephoneitis epidemic which was prevalent in this vicinity a few months ago, has evidently been effectually eliminated by time.

Mr. F. Birch, the star checker player of Wodehouse, give us a delightful call on Friday, during which several hours were devoted to a practical study of the captivating art.

Mr. W. Conley had a very successful wood bee and quadrille on Tuesday.

Mr. W. Lee of Wadena, Sask., who has been visiting friends in and around this vicinity during the past three months, took his departure for Wareham, Ont., on Saturday, where he will make a brief visit, prior to leaving for his home in the west.

We regret to report that Mr. Chas. Conley, while working in the woods recently, had the misfortune to receive a painful injury which will incapacitate him for locomotion for several weeks.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Euphrasia Municipal Telephone System was held in our public school on Friday, and the following installation of officers took place: Commissioners—Charles Devitt, Rocklyn; Henry Erskine, Riverdale; Ran Brady, Cherry Grove. Sec'y-Treas., T. I. Fawcett, Wodehouse. Mr. Jacob Lougheed, Ex-Sec'y-Treas, having been obliged to resign. Auditors—W. Douglas, Cherry Grove, and N. L. Cherry, Rocklyn.

Durham

On Monday evening, Mr. George Wakefield, a resident of upper town, took a dose of iodine in mistake for cassagra, and the result was a hurry-up call for the doctor. From last reports we learn he is recovering, and not likely to suffer any serious consequences for his mistake.

We learn as we go to press that an agreement has been arrived at by which Messrs. Furber & Jacobs, formerly of Guelph, will start a factory here for the manufacture of weather strips, screen doors, and other articles for which there is a large demand. The old factory belonging to G. & J. McKechnie will be used, and about twelve or fifteen men will be engaged from the start. Operations, we understand, will begin at once.

We regret again to report an accident on Friday last to Mrs. C. Firth, who had the misfortune to have her arm broken at the wrist. For several weeks the aged lady has been unable to help herself because of a broken leg. On Friday she was sitting in a chair, and, becoming tired in that position, tried to raise herself by pressing both hands on the arm of the chair, when one hand slipped, and the weight pressing on it, suddenly caused a very serious fracture. She had just sufficiently recovered from her previous accident to help herself slightly with a crutch, but now she is unable to do even this.—Chronicle.

The Spring Assizes

The Spring Assizes opened in Owen Sound on Tuesday. H. D. Gamble of Toronto is the Crown Counsel. There are two criminal cases to be heard—that of Henry Love for the murder of his wife here, and one McDougall of Hanover, who is charged with arson. Two civil cases will be heard—McLean v. McLean, an alimony case, and Proud v. Spence, an action to annul a marriage. The woman, whose maiden name was Spence, is married to Proud and she once claimed alimony. It was then discovered that she had a husband living in England and such a complicated maze of circumstances has since cropped up that the case is sure to be plentifully spiced with interest.

Dr. Arthur Jukes Johnston of Toronto has been summoned to give expert evidence. A large number from this locality are attending the assizes, either in the capacity of witnesses in the Love case or as interested spectators.
