Flesherton Advance.

"TRUTH BEFORE FAVOR."—"PRINCIPLES NOT MEN."

VOL 32, N 0 Flesherton, Ont., Thursday, April 10, 1913 W. H. THURSTON EDITOR and PROP

Kimberley Budget

Everybody is busy making maple syrup, but thus far the flow of sap has not been very good.

Mr. John Taylor of Rocklyn visited at Mr. James Lawrence's on Sunday.

Mr. Ashley Fawcett of Callander visited at his parental home on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week.

Mr. W. S. Bishop visited Markdale friends one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fawcett, of the Traveller's Home, visited friends in Clarksburg a few days last week.

A number of our local nimrods had quite an exciting chase after a fine specimen of the mink family one day last week. It seems that after running it around for a while it ran under an old stump and they thought the game was up, but alas! the elusive creature ran out and disappeared into the water. One young fellow declares he shot it, as there was blood on the ground. However, we were not there, so can neither corroborate or refute his statement.

Mr. Ashley McCallum of Duncan visited at Mr. Donald Wallace's on Sunday.

Mr. Silas Shunk, insurance agent of Flesherton, was a caller in our burg one day last week.

Mr, Harry Baker of Vandeleur visited Kimberley friends a few days last week prior to his departure for Saskatoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McKnight of Duncan visited at Mr. James Fawcett's on Sunday last.

Mr. W. T. Ellis, who was visiting friends in the Parry Sound district for a few weeks, returned home on Monday.

Vandeleur

Mr. Cochrane of Brockville is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davis.

Mr. Sam Buchanan, who has been attending business college at Owen Sound for the past six months, has returned home.

Mr. Harry Baker left on Tuesday for Saskatoon to try his fortune. Hearing of his intended departure, the young people of the neighborhood met at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Baker, one evening last week, and presented him with a gentleman's dressing case as a token of their esteem.

We are pleased to report Mr. Sam Gilbert able to be about again after being laid up with a severe attack of rheumatism.

Ceylon

Miss Coleman spent over Sunday with her parents in Owen Sound.

Misses Jean and Sybil Collinson left on Monday morning for Saskatoon and their brother, Alex., left Tuesday.

Mrs. McMillan and babe, who have been visiting her sister in Owen Sound for the past month, returned home Saturday.

Mr. Frank Collinson left Tuesday with a car of horses and effects for Unity, Sask.

Mr. Geo. Snell moved his family to town on Monday, occupying the residence lately vacated by Mr. Cairns.

Mr. Bates moves this week to Dundalk, where he has charge of the section for the summer.

Mr. Forbes Rutledge visited his aunt, Mrs. S. Thompson, Meaford Road, the past week.

South Line, Artemesia

We are having changeable weather at present.

Mr. Jim Oliver had a successful woodbee on Friday of last week.

Mr. Jos. Ferris has sold his farm to Mr. Will McMillan and is having a large sale on April 14th. Mr. Ferris thinks he will try town life for a while.

Mr. Wm. Williamson has returned to his farm, after spending the past few years in Cobalt, bringing with him this time, a help mate. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Williamson to our midst.

Miss L. Dingwall returned home from Owen Sound, after a few weeks' visit with her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen McKinnon have become residents of our line. Mr. McKinnon has rented his brother Donald's farm for this year.

Mr. Frank Moore is busily engaged fixing the roof of his barn, which was damaged by the severe wind storm of Good Friday.

Eugenia Paragraphs

We are pleased to see W. G. Graham able to be around again.

Miss Clara Latimer of Flesherton, spent Sunday with her parents.

The Artemesia Council met in the hall here on Saturday last.

Mrs. Wilmer Turner spent the past couple of weeks with her sister, Mrs. McKee, of Portlaw.

Master Edgar Linton had the misfortune to cut his foot badly, one day this week.

Mr. Robt. Williams has returned from his visit to the city.

Messrs. White and Brown of Flesherton, took charge of the service in the Methodist church on Sunday evening.

Rev. Mr. Campbell is not yet able to take up the work on account of ill health.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cairns of Ceylon visited friends here the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jamieson have returned from their wedding trip and are living in their home in Eugenia.

Mr. Laughlin of North Bay was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. McMaster the past week.

Miss Halstead of Toronto is visiting at the Eugenia House.

Dundalk

An honor has come to Dundalk in the election of Rev. James Buchanan, of this place, as President of Ontario Educational Association. The annual convention of the Association was held in Toronto last week. Rev. Mr. Buchanan, we feel assured, will creditably fill the office.

George Dale keeps a number of fowl which have been keping him plentifully supplied all winter with good fresh eggs. In addition to the fowl he suspected that he was feeding a number of rats from his grain bin. He set a cage trap the other night and was delighted in the morning to find the accommodation of the trap almost fully taken. He got no less than ten rats in one haul.

Police Magistrate McGregor has instructed Magistrate Traynor, on advice of the Department, to confiscate the cases of liquor addressed to Wm. Gott and Bert Hagen, which were seized a couple of months ago, by High Contable Cook. The case addressed to Thomas Scott is to be released.—Herald.

A. G. McKay in the West

Special to The Advance

Edmonton, Alta., April 3—Hon A. G. McKay, K. C., member of the Ontario Legislature for North Grey, who was nominated on the evening of March 26 as one of the Liberal candidates to contest the Edmonton constituency in the provincial election called for April 17, has been a prominent figure in the public affairs of Alberta since coming to Edmonton last April. The other Liberal candidate in the constituency is Hon. Charles W. Cross, Attorney General. Hon. Arthur L. Sifton, premier of Alberta, is highly pleased with the reception accorded to Mr. McKay, saying he did excellent work here in drafting the farm machinery, the direct legislation and the elevator bills.

Mr. MacKay is a native of Ontario, born in Sydenham township, Grey Co., of Scottish parentage. He was graduated with honors at Toronto university. After acting for four years as high school principal in his native province he entered law, taking an honor and scholarship course. He was crown attorney of Grey county for eight years, resigning at the request of the Liberal party to contest the riding of North Grey, which, except for one term, had stood in the Conservative column from 1867 to 1902, when Mr. McKay carried it by a narrow majority.

He became Minister of Lands, Forests and Mines in the Liberal government in 1904. In five elections within ten years Mr. McKay carried North Grey with the following majorities: 5, 71, 269, 272, and 731. After the defeat of the government he was leader of the Opposition. In 1902 he was created Kings' Counsel for Ontario and in 1910 was elected highest man as a benchor of the Law Society for the Province of Ontario. He came to Edmonton a year ago and is now the head of the law firm of McKay, Stanley & Boyd.

Priceville Jottings

April showers are supposed to bring May flowers, but they have been very chilly so far.

A great deal of damage has been done to standing timber, by the wind storm on Friday, when valuable trees were broken and splintered ten or twelve feet from the ground. There is more loss in working it up than if the trees were turned up by the roots.

W. Aldcorn is putting a new roof on his barn, where it was blown off by the late windstorm.

Daniel Whyte and sons who bought the "Bob Reid" farm on the O.D.R., are preparing to put in a crop this spring.

Jos. Ferris, South line, has sold his farm to W. McMillan and will probably move to Toronto, after his sale on the 14th.

East Mountain

Too Lare for Last Week

Mr. Charles Martin had a wood bee last Thursday and gave an enjoyable party to a merry crowd in the evening.

Mr. Henry Goheen was a caller on friends here one day recently.

Miss Lever taught a couple of days in Easter week and spent the remainder of the week visiting friends in the neighborhood.

Mr. Fred Martin of Clarksburg visited at his parental home the latter part of the week.

Mrs. George Harbottle met with a painful accident last week, when she fell on the back of her head on the ice and was unconscious for some time. At time of writing she is some better.

Miss Alma Humberstone left for Traverston on Saturday to take charge of her school.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Martin and two children lett this week for Dundalk, where they will become residents. They have spent the past eight years in this vicinity.

Walkerton

Being subject to epileptic fits, Andrew McManus, an aged intimate of the House of Refuge here, was suddenly seized by one of these fits while going down stairs on Sunday night and falling forward tumbled down a big flight of stairs, badly injuring his head. The aged man remained in an unconscious condition until his death on Wednesday morning. The deceased, who was in his 87th, year, came to the House about 1½ years ago.

Hugh Campbell, a high school student here, is playing in hard luck these days. Last summer he broke his leg just before the exams, while playing football, and as a consequence was unable to write at the great annual mental test that was shortly afterwards pulled off. On recovering he changed his ways and started to play baseball, and with what success may be gathered from the fact that he is now confined to his bed suffering with a sprained ankle, the result of a mishap on the diamond on Monday.

Frank Ruming of the Township of Carrick, who was arraigned before Magistrate Tolton here on Friday morning last on the charge of seducing a girl under sixteen years of age, was sent up for trial. The accused was granted his liberty on producing bail for $1000.—Herald and Times.

Mr. William C. A. Moffatt, well knpwn newspaper man of Owen Sound has received the appointment of publicity and industrial commissioner of the thriving young city of Macleod, Alta. The appointment was made by the Board of Trade of that city on Tuesday evening and Mr. Moffatt was notified by wire on the following day. For nearly four years Mr. Moffatt has had charge of the editorial department of the Herald and in this capacity has shown exceptional ability. Mr. Moffatt, who is the second son of Mrs. Wm. Moffatt, 16 h St. E., has been a resident of Owen Sound for 17 years. He matriculated from the Collegiate Institute in 1904 and graduated from Sandwich College in 1909. Mr. Moffatt expects to leave for the West in about two weeks to take his new position which carries with it a salary of $2,000.

An Assyrian pedlar, Mike Garos, was fined $25 for kissing a little girl at Owen Sound.

Wodehouse

Owing to the high winds that have been prevailing the past week, together with so much rain, the repairs to damaged buildings, etc., are being but slowly made, and with mud galore, everything in general looks pretty dull.

Miss Kernahan returned te resume duties as teacher in our academy, after spending the holidays at her home near Feversham.

Messrs. George and Willard Wiley visited the first of the week with friends at Thornbury.

A few of the neighbor men gathered together on Thursday afternoon and aided in the renovating of Mr. John Ward's barn, which was deprived of its roof and received a general bad shaking up in the recent wind storm. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Ward, who is feeling the infirmities of his seventy-five years, together with being so deaf, makes his trouble a heavy one. He is at present under the doctor's care, though for some time previous he has been enjoying fairly good health. We hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morwood spent Sunday with the latter's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ward.

Messrs. Fred Cullis and Robt. Brown each had successful woodbees during the past week.

Mrs. Burr of Port Perry is visiting her mother, Mrs. Thompson, sr.

Miss Ella McArthur of Meaford High school, spent the holidays at her home here.

Messrs. Roy and Jim Kirkpatrick spent a few days recently, with friends at Goring.

Miss Annie Wiley of Vandeleur, spent Sunday at her home here.

Artemesia Gouncil

Artemesia Council met at Eugenia on Saturday, April 5, 1913. The members were all present, the Reeve in the chair. The minutes of last session were read and confirmed. The following communications, etc., were presented and read: W. J. Meads, protesting against placing his lands in another road division; Robert Gorley, complaining that Robt. Williams had not yet removed his fences from certain streets in Eugenia; John Parsons, claim for charge of $1. for a dog assessed in 1912; W. H. Wright, account for legal advice, re Melia claim and Nesbitt's taxes, $4.00; Robert Campbell personaly waited on the council, asking compensation for right-of-way through his lot 24, con. 12; Robt. Graham waited on the council, asking compensation for right of way through his lot, 23, con. 12.

Caswell—Brown—That bylaw 763, appointing municipal officers for 1913, be now read a third time, signed, sealed and entered in bylaw book.—Carried.

Brown—McLeod—That John Parslow be refunded $1.00, being dog tax charged in 1912; the assessor certifying that the charge was in error.—Carried.

Graham—Caswell—That a bylaw be introduced and passed to reduce the Treasurer's salary in proportion to the lessening of his work, caused by the incorporation of the Village of Flesherton.—Carried.

Brown—McLeod—That the account of W. H. Wright, $4.00 for legal advice in the Melia and Nesbitt cases, be paid. Carried.

McLeod—Brown—That lots 29 and 30, con. 1, N. D. R. be placed in road division No. 39.—Carried.

Caswell—Graham—That all parties are hereby warned that this council will hold them liable for any damages which may result through the placing of rural mail delivery posts or boxes on the highways of this municipality.—Carried.

Caswell—Graham—That the thanks of this council are hereby tendered to the Orange Lretheren for use of hall for this session of council.—Carried.

Brown—McLeod—That the next meeting of this council be held at the town hall, Flesherton.—Carried.

Eighth Line, Osprey

Mr. Geo. Madden is visiting in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenny of Dundalk, visited with friends here, recently.

Mr. John Madden of Orr Lake, spent a few days with his brother.

A number from here attended Mr. J. Barber's sale on the 28th.

Mr. L. McClean of Feversham spent Sunday with friends here.

Flesherton Planing And Chopping Mills

I am now prepared to do chopping every day in the week except Sundays and every week in the year. Bring along your grists.

Our sash and door factory is always at your disposal for anything you want in our line—planing, matching, etc. Flooring, sash and doors, and all house furnishings supplied promptly and at reasonable rates. Get estimates.

T. Blakeley, Prop.

Feb15 13-1y

Fifth Division Court
County of Grey

Following are dates for 1913:

Wednesday, Feb. 19.....Dundalk
Wednesday, April 16.....Flesherton
Wednesday, June 18.....Dundalk
Wednesday, Aug. 27.....Flesherton
Wednesday, Oct. 15.....Dundalk
Saturday, Dec. 6.....Flesherton

W. J. BELLAMY, Clerk,
Flesherton, Ont.

Jewelry

A Splendid Stock from which you may readily make A Satisfactory Selection. We carry Photo Supplies.

W. A. Armstrong,

Jeweler

FLESHERTON, - ONT.

CAR OF FLOUR COMING!

I will have a car of Five Roses Flour, Bran and Shorts about April 1st, Come and get your supply off the car. It will pay you.

Did you see our No. 1 Red Clover Seed. The Government Inspector stated I have the best display on his route this year

THE FLESHERTON GROCERY

W. BUSKIN

TRAVELLER,-NOTICE!!

For a nice assortment of Suit Cases, Telescopes, or a good neat, strong trunk, suitable for travelling

AGENT FOR EXPRESS MONEY ORDERS.

THOS. CLAYTON

Flesherton, - - Ont.

REPAIRING AS USUAL.

Our Spring Stock

Will arrive on March 1st, when we will have something worth showing you in Spring Goods : : :

Think over your wants in New Spring Suitings and come in and see the New Patterns : : : :

S. J. BOWLER

The Fashionable Tailor

BUSKIN BLOCK, FLESHERTON, ONT.