SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON 18

Sin and Its Consequences—Gen. 3:1-24; Ps. 14:1-3; Jer. 17: 9-10; Mark 7:20-23; Rom. 1:18-32; 6:23; Gal. 6:7, 8; James 1:13-15; I John 1:5-2:: 6; Rev. 22:10-12.

PRINTED TEXT—Gal. 6:7, 8; I John 1:5—2:6.

GOLDEN TEXT—If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. I John 1:9.

THE LESSON IN ITS SETTING

Tme—The event recorded in the book of Genesis took place at the very beginning of human history, the time of which we do not know. The 14th Psalm was written by David and thus was penned sometme between 1045 and 1015 B.C. The passage taken from Jeremiah may be placed about 601 B.C. The words of our Lord were uttered in April, A.D. 29. The Epistle to the Romans was written in A.D. 60. The Epistle to the Galatians was written probably A.D. 58. The Epistle of James may have been written about the same time. The First Epistle of John, and the Book of Revelation were written about A.D. 95.

Place—The fall of our first parents took place in Paradise, though we do not know where this may have been located. The 14th Psalm may have been written near Jerusalem. The passage from Jeremiah is to be related to the City of Jerusalem. The words of our Lord were spoken in Capernaum. The Epistle to the Romans was written from the City of Corinth, as well as the Epistle of the Galatians. The Epistle of JaJmes was written in Jerusalem. John probably penned his First Epistle in the City of Ephesus. The visions of the Book of Revelations were given to John on the Island of Patmos.

Law of the Harvest

7. "Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap. 8. For he that soweth unto his own flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth unto the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap eternal life." The law of the harvest is true in the material world, and equally so in the moral and spiritual world. Such as the seed sown, such will be the harvest garnered. By the flesh here one should probably understand fleshly indulgence, and the gratification of fleshly desires. That which man has saved, and that which he has gained, will turn to decay. A course of self-indulgence corrupts the moral nature and needs in destruction. By sowing to the Spirit, the Apostle simply means living according to the laws of the Spirit. A man who lives spiritually knows a termination for this life is everlasting life.

Men Deceive Themselves

5. "And this is the message which we have heard from Him and announce unto you, that God is light, and in Him is no darkness at all. 6. If we say that we have fellowship with Him and walk in the darkness, we lie, and do not tell the truth. 7. But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanseth as from sin. 8. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us." One can hardly conceive of any man saying he has no sin, and yet there are men that talk just like that, Christian men, so-called. The Apostle says these men have deceived themselves, if they really believe what they say, and the truth is not in them. Men who say they have no sin do not know what sin is.

Confession and Denial

9. "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." When we confess sin, we acknowledge that we are guilty of some particular sin. God has told us that we have forgiveness of sins through the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ, and, promising this, He is ever faithful to what He has said, when we confess sin, by forgiving and cleansing us.

10. "If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us." This is a repetition of verse 8, making a denial of the fact of sin to be doubly heinous, in that we thus make out God to be a liar, and we reveal that His word is not in us.

Only One Life Satisfies

1. "My little children, these things write I unto you that ye may not sin. And if any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous." The word Advocate means one called to another's side, to help in time of need. In an hour of sin, the Lord Jesus immediately comes to our aid.

2. "And he is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the whole world. 3. And hereby we know that we know Him, if we keep His commandments. He that saith, "I know him" and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him; 5. but whoso keepeth His word, in Him verily hath the love of God been perfected. Hereby we know that we are in Him: 6. He that saith he abideth in Him ought himself also to walk even as He walketh." If we say that we abide in Christ, and derive our life from Him, that we know Him, and love Him, then it ought certainly to follow that we should walk as He walketh and should live according to the commandments of the Lord. The Christian religion, making a perfect provision for sin, is at the same time that which insists upon a life separated from sinful practices. After all, that is the only kind of life that really satisfies.

AIR CADETS OF CANADA

Members of the newly-formed Air Cadets of Canada take the same elementary flying course as their big brothers in the RCAF. Above, Cadets Pierre Lebeau and Andre Jobin, of No. 2 Jean de Brebeuf Squadron, Montreal, study a scale model of the solar system.

Youth wants wings. And Canada's 'teen-age boys are going to get them in the newly-organized Air Cadet League, which will train them in the preliminary program of the RCAF.

The dream of a pilot's life won't come true—immediately. But the elementary training these boys will undergo will prepare them to be Canada's future pilots, navigators, observers, gunners, ground crews. For the league's set-up follows closely the senior air force pattern of ranks, training and uniform. It is, actually, a "junior air force."

Started under the auspices of the Department of National Defence in Ottawa, the new organization is similar in scope to the British Air Cadet Defense Corps, which has a membership of 190,0 0. The Canadian Air Cadets expect to have 25,000 boys enrolled for the new school year.

Course Covers 216 Hours

Canadian boys between 12 and 18 years of age are eligible for training. The basic course covers two years, a total of approximately 216 hours. Subjects covered include aircraft recognition, maps and map reading, a study of airplane engines and airplane construction, drill, airplane armament, model building theroy of flight, signaling, first aid, knotting, mathematics, physical training.

Advanced training, to include aerial navigation, aerial photography and radio, is planned for cadets who have passed this elementary training.

Boys join the air cadets on a voluntary basis, and parents must approve. Each boy is given a medical examination, and only those physically fit to stand the training program are accepted. The organization headquarters are at Ottawa, but local organizations will be in crarge of local school boards, service clubs and other responsible organizations which must provide adequate adult leaderhip and finance the local unit.

Minimum unit is a flight of 50 boy between 15 and 18 years of age, junior units being permitted for boys from 12 years up if a senior is in existence.

As in the RCAF, the boys dress in air force blue, and their badge is an albatross with maple leaf above and Air Cadets Canada below. Squadron markings are worn at the shoulder, and rank badges are similar to those of the air force, with cadets being able to climb to non-commissioned officer ranks. Cost of uniform is set at approximately $15 per cadet.

The Air Cadet League has come into existence as an answer to a request for training from air-minded Canadian boys too young to join the air force. Private air cadet corps had previously been started in several cities. The present organization is closely tied in with the air force, with a number of air force officers acting as liaison between the cadets and the air force, and inspections being made by air force officers.

Boys joining the air cadets do not automatically on attaining 18 years have to join the air force, but it is hoped that most will, and that the training they receive in the air cadets will save many months of air force training. The air cadets meet after school hours once or twice weekly. In some schools the air cadets have been formed as a part of the school cadet corps.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

By William Ferguson

THE actual pull of the moon on the surface of the earth depends on the varying distance at which the moon is to be found. But the results obtained depend on whether or not the moon is working in co-operation with the sun, or against it. A full moon and a new moon have the sun's help, but during the quarter phases the moon must counteract the pull of the sun.

APPLICANT FOR ENLISTMENT BADGE

Volunteers who have not been accepted for service in and beyond Canada in the Military Forces, will be issued, according to an announcement by Col. the Hon. J. L. Ralston, Minister of National Defence, with the "Application for Enlistment" badge, reproduced above.

The badge will be silver in appearance with the maple leaf in red enamel.

Wearers of this badge have offered their services to Navy, Army and Air Force and have expressed their willingness to serve if medical requirements are lowered.

R.C.A.F. Needs Radio Students

An appeal for a considerable number of men between the ages of 18 and 45 years, to be trained as radio mechanics for R.C.A.F. duty, has been issued by the Dominion-Provincial War Emergency Training Program. Applicants must be British subjects who have successfully completed their second year in high school or collegiate, and they must pass the R.C.A.F. medical examination before starting their 24-week course.

Training centres have been established at Central Technical School, Toronto; Westdale Technical School, Hamilton, and Technical High School, Ottawa. At present there are 260 students undergoing training for important duties overseas. The course is similar to that being conducted at a number of Canadian universities.

Principal James Gillespie of Central Technical School stated that at present there are about 130 students attending the course there.

Men who desire to enter this branch of the R.C.A.F. should apply immediately to the Dominion-Provincial War Emergency Training Program, East Block, Parliament Buildings, Toronto. Subsistence rates will be paid to students at the following rates: Students boarding away from home, $9 a week; students boarding at home, $7; and married men, $12.

Here are three girls who have made a name for themselves in Canadian radio over a period of years. They are the Campbell Sisters who have sung on many star-studded C.B.C. feature shows. Right now they supply vocal highlights on "Blended Rhythm", heard Tuesdays at 8.30 p.m. E.D.S.T. from CKSO, CBO, CBL, CKOC and the National C.B.C. network.

One of Canada's outstanding programs, dedicated to our war effort, and the men and women who do their vital share, is told every Wednesday night at 10.30 on the network of the C.B.C. It's the program "They Fly For Freedom," and each broadcast gives you actuality pictures of some phase of the great Commonwealth Air-Training plan, with dramatic pictures of Canada's part in the fight for Air-Supremacy.

Kathleen "Tiny" O'Neil of Toronto won two dollars and a half recently on a "Name the Dog" contest on CKOC's Daybreak Serenade show. "Tiny" immediately forwarded her check to the office of the Mayor, Hamilton, and asked that it be contributed to the Lord Mayor's Fund! We kinda hope that the two-fifty will go to some little fellow 'over there' who might have lost his Scamp in a bombing raid. Oh yes—SCAMP was the winning name! Thanks "Tiny."
