I.O.G.T. Notes.—The entertainment
on Friday, June 2nd, turned out to be a grand success notwithstanding the busy season in which it was given and reflects grand success notwithstanding the busy season in which it was given and reflects much eredit on the lodge. The people in the vicinity turned out in such large numbers as to completely fill the hall, no doubt to hear the debate "Resolved that the oppressive Government of England has made it necessary to grant Ireland Home Rule." The affirmative was ably upheld by Bro. John Gow, assisted very creditably by Bro. John Hay. The very creditably by Bro. John Hay. The negative was maintained equally as well by Bro. Ed. Wollard, followed by Bro. D. McFadyen. The decision was declared in favor of the affirmative. The Glee club furnished the musical part in a satisfactory manner, while excellent recitations were rendered by Sis. Annie White, Bro. Wm. Hay and a reading by Bro. John Gow. The leading element however for amusement was a dialogue enever for amusement was a dialogue entitled "The pantaloon fight" acted so well as to keep the house in an unceasing uproar of laughter. The entertainment was closed by singing the "National Anthem," every person feeling satisfied that they had spent an evening both interesting and instructive.

Metherell being to conference and no supply having been provided.

IMPROVEMENT.—The untidy lawns and | Special to The Warder gardens of our village have become smaller and beautifully less. A street campaign would now be in order to recampaign would now be in order to remove the cast-cff hoofs, boots, hoops, vehicles, etc., thereby giving the Cambray herd of cows, sheep and pigs a fair chance to use their lawn mowers and ploughs to keep the thoroughfares in an uncouth condition. Should the present throng of quadupeds fall, after receiving a just trial, to perform the quantity of work required, the number will at once be augumented by only those which excell in opening gates, picking locks, destroying lawns and gardens, and being a nuisance in general to the public.

was a grand success and was well attended, nearly all the members of "Lovely Vine" lodge, Islay, turned out. The members of the two societies met in the town hall, Hartley, where they formed a procession and marched to the church. Arrived there they occupied the centre row of seats which had been reserved for them. These they filled to overflowing The church was crowded to the doors many not being able to get in. The sermon was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Marvin in his usual fluent style, and was full of practical thought bearing on the nuisance in general to the public.

FARMING.—The farmers of this locality have done a deal of work preparing the soil for seed and should the season be favorable a full harvest will be the result.
