International Stock Food

DON'T let your horses run down during the winter and get so soft that they will lose flesh badly when you start your spring plowing. If horses are not worked regularly during the winter, they need the splendid tonic effects of INTERNATIONAL STOCK FOOD, to tone up the digestive organs, enable them to get all the good out of their feed, prevent the blood from becoming overheated, and thus ward off disease.
LANGHAM, SASK., Jan. 26th, 1912.
"I have fed INTERNATIONAL STOCK FOOD for many years. I always have a 25 pound pail standing in my barn. I bought a pair of three year old colts and they were so worked down that my neighbors said I had been beat. When I bought the colts, they weighed 2400 lbs. I ploughed 25 acres and they weighed 2650—then I harvested 163 acres and threshed and hauled one carload to town, 6 miles, I weighed them again and they weighed 2850, and I said "They shall weigh 3000 before spring". Now, the Neighbors want to buy them but there's no chance". J. G. REMPEL.

Will Pay For Fun

Editor Advance;—Magistrate McMullen had the names handed to him of a number of boys charged with disorderly conduct, using bad language, throwing stones and lighted matches at and onto buildings. It was found there was no bylaw yet passed by the town council since the incorporation of the town, bearing on these matters. However, the council has got busy and it is not likely the next who is called on to appear on the carpet will fare so well. Take good advice, boys. Stay at home a little more. It will pay both financialy and morally.

Drowned at Meaford

Meaford, May 15.—The body of Charles Jordan, a young man who left his boarding house here one Sunday evening about six weeks ago and never returned, was recovered from the harbor late yesterday, thus solving a problem which has considerably agitated the people of Meaford.

There was a gale of wind blowing the night Jordan disappeared, and it is believed that he wandered over the edge of the breakwater while strolling about the harbor front. According to his landlady it was 8.10 p. m. when he left the boarding house, and the watch which was recovered with the body had stopped at th hour of 8.30.

The search for the missing man had been long abandoned, but not until the whole area of the harbor had been dragged and dynamited and the surrounding country exhaustively explored without avail. The body was first seen floating at the west side of the harbor yesterday by William Pilgrim, Sr., who, with two companions, was at work on a boat. Dr. Bennett, the coroner, conducted an investigation and an uncle of the dead man was notified.

R. W. Brett is scheduled for a race with a Curtis aeroplane at Beeton on the King's birthday, June 3rd.

1,200 MILES FOR MATCHES.

Explorer Stefansson's Story of Awkward Mishap In the Arctic.

With a rifle and a sufficient supply of ammunition, said Mr. Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the Canadian explorer, lecturing before the Royal Geographical Society in London, it is possible to go over the discovered lands of the Arctic. In the course of an interesting lecture Mr. Stefansson told a remarkable story of a five years' sojourn in Arctic regions in search of a race of Eskimos who had never before seen a white man. They left New York in April of 1908, and the small item that may upset the best-laid plans was illustrated by the fact that they were relying upon a supply of matches at Herschell Island on the north Alaskan coast, and as these were not forthcoming Dr. Anderson had to retrace his steps a distance of 1,200 miles to Barrent Point for them. "The whole expedition cost only $10,000," said Mr. Stefansson, and quite half that sum was spent in securing matches. From Herschell Island the party pushed steadily eastward and reached Cape Parry in the winter, and here they found a whale, which eked out their provisions fortuitously. "That whale," recalled the explorer with a dry smile, "had been dead four years." The Eskimos said so. It had frozen in the winter, and had thawed in the summer. It was after he had been two years in the Arctic that Stefansson set out upon his specific quest for the Eskimos who, to use his own words, "had not been contaminated by missionaries or traders—(laughter)—of course, I mean from the scientific point of view." After a long pursuit Stefansson, standing on a hut, saw the party he was searching for seal hunting about seven miles away, and went after them. The Eskimos thought they were spirits, and prepared to defend themselves, but his (Stefansson's) Eskimos discovered that they spoke a similar dialect, and peace was secured and introductions to all the tribe—men, women and children—ensued. Intellectually these Eskimos were on a level with the inhabitants of Great Britain 10,000 years ago. It was on Victoria Island that he came across the blonde Eskimos, whom he preferred to call bronze or copper. They eyes were blue, their eyebrows and whiskers fair, and the formation of the head and face akin to Europeans. Sir John Franklin had recorded that he saw one such Eskimo in 1824 in the Coppermine district, and Stefansson said he had come to the conclusion that they were descendants of an ancient race of settlers who, originating in Scandinavia, had traveled to Mackenzie by way of Iceland.

Ribs Broken at Hanover

Hanover, Ont., May 14.—Mr. Moses Wall, blacksmith for the Hanover Portland Cement Company, is in a somewhat serious condition at his home here as a result of an accident that occured this morning. He was helping to poke a ring in a kiln and was taking the hose off when his smock caught in the shaft, and he made one revolution. Mr. Arthur Clarke, the foreman of the company, who was present at the time, had the machinery stopped immediately, and after they had cut Mr. Woll's clothing to free him, he did not appear to be seriously hurt at all, but after he had been examined by a physician it was found that he had three ribs broken besides sustaining internal injuries. He will probably recover, providing inflammation does not set in.

Killed at Parkhead

Mr. Joseph Young of Parkhead was seriously injured in an accident at his sawmill at that place on Monday morning of last week and died on Tuesday evening as a result of the hurts he sustained. He had been around the sawmill which he owned and operated at Parkhead on Monday morning and in some manner got caught by some of the shafting or belting and before the employees of the mill could reach him had been terribly injured. He was removed to his home and medical aid was at once summoned On examination it was found that his spine was broken in two places and there were other severe injures. Mr. Young lingered until Tuesday when death came as a relief to his suffering.

On Monday a domestic employed by Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Galbraith, heard her mistress screaming in a bedroom upstairs, and running up found her clothing in a blaze, and her baby lying on the bed. The girl snatched up the baby and added her screams to those of Mrs. Galbraith. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wilson, who live next door, ran in and, as they could see no rug in which to wrap the sufferer picked her up, carried her down stairs, put her in a sink, turned on the water and rolled her in it until there was no sign of fire. Fire broke out in the bedroom and the alarm was given, but before the brigade reached the scene Alex Armstrong and Fred Maxted extinguished the flames with water from buckets. Mrs. Galbraith was rushed to the Guelph hospital by train. She is very badly burned from her waist down and is in a critical condition, though doing as well as can be expected. At the best, she is not likely to be well enough to be brought home for some months. The wood work in the bedroom was charred and the furniture and bedding were destroyed.
—Milton Champion.

On Saturday evening Mrs. Halsted, wife of Mr. A. Halsted, for many years a private banker at Mount Forest, died at her home, Admiral road, Toronto. Mrs. Halsted was in her seventy-third year and had been ill about ten days. She was a daughter of the late W. H. Hacking who was postmaster at Listowel for half a century and who was the oldest postmaster in Canada when he died about ten years ago. It is nearly fifty years since Mr. and Mrs. Halsted were married. They resided for a few years at Listowel and for thirty-five years at Mount Forest coming to Toronto in the fall of 1911. They had been looking forward to celebrating their golden wedding in July next.

With the object of preventing unscrupulous employment agents from imposing upon immigrants seeking work, the Government has made it necessry for every person, firm or company engaged in the business of an employment or labor agency to obtain a license for this purpose from the Superintendent of Immigration, at Ottawa, who will be supposed to see that no improper person shall be allowed to engage in the business.

While on her way home with a party of companions about eleven o'clock on Saturday evening, at Owen Sound, Margaret Delina Mole, a young girl in her seventeenth year, drank a part of the contents of a bottle containing carbolic acid and falling on the street on First Avenue West, just opposite the Grand Trunk station, expired inside of twenty minutes after taking the poison. Medical aid was summoned but before the doctors arrived, life was extinct. The body was removed to Breckenridge's undertaking rooms where it was viewed yesterday by the coroners jury and where a post mortem examination was made.

$25 and costs (which amounted in all to $29.16) was the fine imposed by Mark Armstrong, J. P., on Monday night, on William Fawcett, for supplying George Dundas, who is on the prohibitory list, with liquor. In the case of Frank Sullivan, of Glenelg, who appeared on the same charge, the Magistrate reserved his decision.—Standard.

Michael J. Matthews, one of Melancthon's enterprising farmers and stock-raisers, sold last week a three-year-old County Squire colt to W. Tipping of Shelburne for which he received the sum of $235.00

PROHIBITION KING

THE TROTTING COLT

Breed to trotters and get trotters, and to show horses to get show horses. Prohsbition King's enrolment No. 975 has been enrolled in accordance with Chapter 67 of the Statute of Ontario, 2 Geo V. Prohibition King in his two-year-old form is a nice clean, jet black colt, standing 15½ hands high. He is bred to go fast and is certainly gaited to go fast, being one of those high going, open gaited trotters and we may well expect this colt to step fast in another year, as he is bred and gaited for it. He has made his first appearance in the show ring, defeating such horses as Red Top, Ravonia, etc. What will this fellow do when he comes to his growth. Prohibition King has the fast connections and by reading over his pedigree you will find he is of the same family as Minoo Heir 1.59¼, the only horse, living or dead that ever beat Dan Patch, Lady of the Manor 2.04¼, Dare Devil 2.09, Heir at Law 2.00¾, Lord Derby 2.05¾, Nightingale 2.08, Mocking Boy 2.08⅛, King Charlie 2.08, The Abbott 2.03¼, Shadow Chimes 2.05, The Monk 2.05¾, and hundreds of others with very low records.

His sire, Lord Ross 35673, A. T. R was one of the best bred horses in Canada and was a winner wherever shown and also won sweepstake for best Standard Bred Stallion and three of his colts; and sired by a full brother to Dare Devil 1279, the handsomest horse in the world. His dam, Nettie, by Prohibition 2.21¼, 21812, by Petoskey 3933, he by Geo. Wilkes 519, was one of the few to have 158 first prizes and diplomas to her credit, and that she speaks for herself is the best evidence that can be given.

Monday morning—Will leave his stable, Meaford, to Clarksburg for noon and to Chas Hill's for night.

Tuesday—South to John Dobson's for noon, then by Maxwell sideroad and Guy Maxwell's for night.

Wednesday—By gravel road to Thos. McArthur's, Ceylon, for noon, and Markdale for night.

Thursday—Berkeley for noon and to Wm. Geo. Dixon's 10th line for night.

Friday—North to Bognor for noon.

DON CARLOS

The Sweepstake German Coach Stallion will have same route and stands. This horse has been enrolled No. 1047 under Chapter 67, of the Statutes of Ontario 2 Geo. V.

The above stallion was under said Act inspected by the officers of the Board and found to be free from the malformations and diseases named in the regulations of the said Act.
