Rev. Mr. Humphrey of Blind River preached on the Baptist charge here on Sunday last and took charge of the funeral of the late Mr. Beard on Monday afternoon.

Messrs. W. W. Trimble and Walter Marr drove over to Chesley Saturday and attended the sports there. They say Chesley put up some good horse races and other sports.

On Friday evening Messrs. Alex. McLean and Hugh McKechnie of Priceville were up before Magistrates McMullen and McGill, charged with being drunk in a local option district. McLean was fined $20 and costs and McKechnie's case was adjourned until Thursday.

The remains of Wm. Beard of Orangeville were interred in Flesherton cemetery on Monday afternoon. The deceased gentleman was a brother of the late Mrs. Charles Stafford of Artemesia, and an uncle of Mrs. J. P. Ottowell of Flesherton. He was a native of Derbyshire, England, and came to Canada in 1863. Most of his later life was spent in Melancthon township. His wife died many years ago and he left no family.

A. E. L. Malone, for 22 years deputy postmaster of Owen Sound, died last week after a lingering illness. He was a member of the firm of Davis-Smith-Malone.

At a council session last week, the Owen Sound Council decided to use the Eugenia hydro Power to the extent of 1200 horsepower, providing the government will agree to supply that amount.

Owen Sound has a zoological garden. The latest acquisitions to the menagerie are a pair of pet rabbits and a pair of homer pigeons! Now if they only had a thoroughbred rooster and hen or two to add to the collection of rarities!

Mesdames Alex. Stewart of Teeswater, Amos Doupe of New Liskeard, D. Stewart of Depot Harbor, and W. Hacking of St. Johns, N.B., sisters of the late Mrs. Taylor, are visiting relatives here this week. They arrived too late to attend the funeral.

The 24th was duly observed in Flesherton. The day was delightful. There were no special attractions—except fishing. The man who set out his tomato plants that day is sorry for it now. A heavy frost Sunday night made it necessary to replant.

A Mission Band for the young people in the Presbyterian church was organized last week with the following officers: President, Mrs. (Rev) McVicar; Secretary, Miss Flo. Lever; Treasurer, Miss Mandy Stewart; Organist, Miss Allie Williams. The meeting will be held monthly.

The District L. O. L. of Artemesia will hold their Semi-Annual meeting at Port Law, 4th line, in L. O. L. No. 1132 on Tuesday, June 10th., 1913. The District master wishes a full attendance as important business is to be attended to. J. F. Mathewson, D. M.; Silas Shunk, Sec.

At a meeting held last week it was decided to go ahead with the First of July celebration and a strong committee was appointed. There will be a big list of aquatic sports in the forenoon and horse racing in the afternoon. As soon as the sub-committees have got things into shape full announcements will be made.

Among the Toronto visitors in town over the holiday we noticed the following: W. H. Fenwick, Mr. and Mrs. Will Bentham and babe, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Thurston and family, Mrs. Jos LeGard, J. Thistlethwaite, Ellwood Genoa, Laura Armstrong, Miss Wilda Crossley, Mr. Charley Jamieson, and Mrs. Fred Tucker.

Mr. Fred Karstedt, Jr., will sail from Montreal on Monday next per. S. S. Manitoba for Liverpool and London. Fred has been under the weather for some time and hopes to find renewed health in an ocean voyage and a visit to the old land. May his hopes be fulfilled. He also expects to visit the continent and will probably be absent most of the summer.

Mrs. Mary Jane Taylor, relict of the late Robert Taylor, died at her home, Saugeen Junction, on Tuesday last, at the age of 61 years. Mrs. Taylor suffered a stroke a week previous and gradually sank away until the end. The deceased lady was born at Streetsville, and married John Parks, living with her husband nine or ten years, near Proton Station, when her husband died. Later she married Robert Taylor, and lived at Smiths Falls. Her second husband died 23 years ago. She leaves behind two children by the first marriage— W. J. Parks, and Mrs. Farrell of Ottawa; by by the second marriage—one daughter, Mrs. W. J. Blackburn of Saugeen Junction. Mrs. Taylor was a sister of Messrs Robert, James and John Best of Artemesia. The funeral took place to Flesherton cemetery on Saturday afternoon, May 24.

The ratepayers of the village of Neustadt, six miles from Hanover, are shortly to vote on a by-law to grant aid by way of a loan in the establishment of a furniture factory there. The proposed name of the new firm is The Neustadt Furniture Company. Neustadt has a chair factory now, employing some sixty hands, and as it only has some 500 of a population, this proposition to start another factory shows a good deal of enterprise on the part of the villagers.

Mr. Bert McKee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McKee, Melancthon, was so unfortunate as to have his leg broken while on duty as brakesman on the C. P. R. out of Fort William. It appears he was running along the top of box cars while the train was in motion. As he was about to jump from one car to another the coupling separated at that place and he got a fall to the ground with the above result.

Mrs. Eliza White of Elizabeth street, Shelburne, is the owner of a curiosity in the shape of a four legged chicken. The four legs and feet are complete and when it walks it uses the front pair of legs. If it takes a notion to rest it reclines on the hind pair with all four resting on the ground.—Free Press.
