The Methodist church was filled with an attentive audience on Sunday evening when the pastor, Rev. H. E. Wellwood, preached his farwell sermon. The lesson was from the 121 st Psalm: "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help." The sermon was prefaced by some good healthy advice as to the attitude of the church towards their new pastor, Rev. James Dudgeon, who will arrive on Friday of this week from Englehart. Bannon--Robinson

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Robinson of Proton was the scene of a quiet wedding on Wednesday, June 25, at high noon, when their eldest daughter, Miss Maud, was united in marriage to Mr. Milton A. Bannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Bannon of Artemesia. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Leece of Dundalk. Miss Lillian Armstrong of Flesherton, cousin of the groom, played the wedding march. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked lovely in her wedding gown of cream satin. She carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations and was unattended. The ceremony took place under an arch of evergreen and white roses on the lawn. The bridal party left on the afternoon train for Toronto, Niagara and other points. The bride travelled in a navy blue suit with tuscan hat. The presents were numerous and useful. The father and mother gave a cheque. The young couple will take up their residence on the Toronto gravel road and will be at home to their friends after July 15.

The little 18 months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dale, of Midland, was choked to death with a peanut. The child was in the yard playing with other children who gave it some peanuts. One of the kernels stuck in its throat, and despite desperate efforts by the physician to remove the nut the child succumbed.

Shelburne has had some excitement this week even though the 36th Regiment Band and No. 7 Company are at camp. On Sunday night about 11 o'clock Wilfred Gillespie, when near the Methodist church was ordered to hold up his hands —instead, he shouted for help and the would be foot-pad ran away. On Monday a lively runaway took place down Main street east and on Tuesday another horse and rig made a lively trip down the lane north of Main street.—Free Fress.

Among his calves Mr. Wm. Gagon, of Tossoronto, has the novel and interesting addition of a deer. The animal is evidently a year old and is making itself very much at home, staying closely with its newly found friend. Mr. Gagon is careful not to frighten the visitor and in the week that it has been with the calves it has become quite tame and quite accustomed to his appearance so that it now shows no signs of fright than the calves do.

The greatest weighing machine in the United States is at Washington. Even the great scales upon which freight cars with their load of many tons are weighed are insignificant when compared with this government scale by forty tons, and its work must be accurate even to a pound's weight, while the railroad scale is considered good if it weighs within fifty pounds of exact weight. This government scale is used for weighing the great guns used on war vessels. To demonstrate the accuracy of the balance, an officer threw a half brick on the platform and, by consulting the record, found that the brick bat weighed just one pound.

The Barrie Advance says:—A team of horses belonging to W. H. Drysdale becoming badly frightened at an automobile, ran away near Elmvale, last Friday, instantly killing Robt. Shepcott, the driver of another team, also one of the horses the latter was driving. The fatality occured on the 2nd of Flos, where the men were engaged in hauling gravel. An auto, driven by Dr. Brown, who was accompanying his mother, Mrs. Brown, of Bayfield St., Barrie, to Wasaga Beach, came along, and Drysdale's team, which was at the top of the hill, became frightened. Before the man in charge could get hold of the reins they dashed down the hill, crashing into Shepcott, who was standing beside his own team, killing him almost instantly, also one of his team. Shepcott is a young unmarried man, about 27 years of age. He was doing statute road labor. He was taken to Elmvale immediately after the accident, but died shortly after being placed in the auto.
