Will Take Power From Eugenia Falls.

A special despatch from Owen Sound to the Globe on Monday says:

That Owen Sound is destined to take its electric energy for power and lighting purposes from Eugenia Falls, on the Beaver River, there seems to be little doubt, in view of the results of the tests for power available there at low water mark this summer, a season that has been the driest for several years. It had been established on the investigation of a practical hydraulic engineer, Mr. T. Hogg, that there is head enough of water at the lowest water mark to generate at least 1,600 horsepower. And this is only at the lowest ebb. Normally there will be a generative potentially of about 2,500 horsepower, and in the spring, fall, and winter there will be over 4,000 horsepower to be drawn upon, and the latter amount would be constant for twelve months of the year.

On Friday a number of the members of the Council and others interested in hydro development made the trip to Eugenia for the purpose of looking over the situation and seeing at first hand what was the prospect in the midst of the dry season of getting power enough to satisfy the requirements of the town of Owen Sound. Among those who went were Mayor Lemon, Ald. Legate (Chairman of the Electric Light Committee), Mr. S. J. Parker, a prominent citizen who was interested in the local steam power plant before it was taken over by the municipality, Town Clerk Chas. Gordon, and a number of others.

Last spring the Ontario Hydro-electric Commission offered the town Hydro power at a rate of $31 per horsepower for 800 horsepower. The scheme was that they should develope Eugenia Falls in Artemesia township. The town had first asked for a quotation on 1,500 horsepower, and this was given at $29. Then they asked for the quotation on the smaller amount of energy, and got the favorable price quoted. But though there was no doubt in the mind of the Council as to the advantage of the offer in terms of dollars and cents, there was still an apprehension that there would not be sufficient power available at Eugenia to meet the demands of the town all the year through. Consequently the acceptance of the Commission's offer was deferred until the Council could see for themselves the amount of water available during the dry season. All summer the falls have been weired weekly and sometimes daily, and the result when the deputation went to Eugenia was such as to leave little choice for the town but to accept the terms and have the development work begun at as early a date as possible.

The line from Owen Sound to the falls will be about thirty miles in length, and from it the village of Chatsworth can be served, and in all likelihood the village of of Markdale. There are also other smaller villages and other towns which may come in later, thus tending to materially lessen the cost to Owen Sound. With the growing use to which electricity is being put the rich farming country through which the line wil. pass will be greatly benefited.

It is expected that the Council will take action at an early date and close the question with the Hydro-electric Commission.

A red game rooster beat his way over the G. T. R. from West Toronto Junction to Guelph on Wednesday, but was arrested as soon as he arrived in the G. T. R. yards. The rooster started his adventurous journey at Toronto. Flying up on the pilot of the engine as it stood at the water tank, taking water, it ensconsed itself above the cowcatcher, and as the train drew out of the yard crowed lustily. It stuck to its post until the train got to Guelph, where one of the train crew found it. It presented a most bedraggled appearance and was almost all in, it feathers being filled with cinders and sand. One of the station hands took charge of it and to-day it is as lively as ever.

David Pilon, of Tiny, was committed to Barrie jail by Elmvale magistrates. Pilon is suffering from epileptic insanity and created a disturbance at the home of Wm. Greenlaw, where he had just started to work. Pilon took a fit at night, which very much alarmed the household, as he hurled the bedding around the room and wrecked the furniture.

Eugenia Paragraphs

On Wednesday, Sept. 3, the Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church, with their friends, assembled in the body of the church to show respect to Mrs. Woodburn before her departure to the city for the winter, as she was one of the first members of the society at the time of organization in 1891 by Rev. John Wells, pastor at that time. The President addressed the meeting and called upon the Vice President, Mrs. Thomas McKee, to read the following address, and Mrs. Francis Genoe, Secretary, presented the beautiful leather bound Presbyterian hymn book and Bible:

DEAR MRS. WOODBURN,—Your stay among us has been pleasurable and helpful. We cannot but recall and cherish your helpfulness to the Master's cause in our midst. Your efforts have been unceasing and your influence for good unwearying. Such an exemplary life will follow you, rest assured, that both the Ladies' Aid and your immediaie friends in connection with the Eugenia Presbyterian church will follow your course in life with prayers and keen interest, and even cherish the hope of your being one of our number, even if only for a few months, every summer, to recall past success and brighten future hopes for the Master's cause in Eugenia. Our good wishes accompany you wherever you go. As a slight token of our love, gratitude and deep respect kindly accept these little gifts as mementoes of your stay with us. They will recall our fellowship and common interest in the Saviour's cause, and in some measure help to preserve memories in relation to Eugenia that will still be verdant when the sojourn is well nigh closed and opportunities blend with the music of other shores. Signed on behalf of the Ladies Aid—Rev. A. McVicar, Pastor.

Modelites At Hanover

DEAR MR. ADVANCE: Here we are at Hanover with the rest of the Modelites. The time goes very slow, but once we get acquainted with the people we hope it may go faster. We have now spent three weeks here.

The Young People's Society of the Presbyterian church gave the Modelites a reception on Friday evening of last week, when a very enjoyable time was spent. The program was excellent. One of the most pleasing features of the evening was music by the humanophone, which was invented by our teacher's wife. Have you ever heard one? If not I guess you'll have to come to Hanover.

On Saturday the Modelites, about 40, picnicked at the Sulphur Springs, about two miles distant from the town. We spent a very pleasant afternoon in games, etc.

To-morrow evening (Tuesday) we are again invited out. This time the League of the Methodist church are giving a reception, so we are looking forward for another good time. In this way we are becoming more and more acquainted and finding out that Hanover is a pretty place with many fine people.

While about the engine of the mill at Holstein they got him to look with one eye at a steam tap, then one of them turned the tap. The boiling hot steam came out with full force on his face and scallded one side of it from the breast to the forehead most severely. It is believed that the sight of the eyes may be saved, but the injury is of a very painful and serious nature.—Confederate.
