Whew! It was hot last Saturday. It likely will be again next Saturday, so don't do any baking for Sunday, but come to the Cake, Pie and Candy Sale given by the Mission Band next Saturday afternoon in the Public Library. The girls and boys will be there at three to serve you. Everything will be Homemade.

Councillor J. I. Graham says the apple crop in this district will be about half a crop this year, but the quality is poor. The government reports a 40 per cent. crop for the Dominion. If these estimates are correct the county of Grey will be ten per cent. ahead of the rest of the county in this game.

Talk about the financial stringency and the difficulty in selling municipal debentures! The Clerk of Osprey township, Mr. Thomas Scott, does not put much faith in the argument. He had $3,600 worth of municipal telephone debentures to sell and they were not to be sacrificed. As a result of his negotiations the sale was made last week to an Artemesia gentleman of the full amount at par. The debentures, too, only draw 4 5-8 per cent. interest. A recent sale of five per cent. county debentures only brought 96, and this was considered extra good, about 94 being the average. With the sale in question the Clerk has saved the township of Osprey some $200, which is an item worth paying attention to.

Mr. Frank VanDusen of Dundalk was in town on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. McTavish had a narrow escape from a serious accident on Saturday evening while driving in from the station after arrival of the night train. In passing the 'bus at the Orange Hall hill the driver ran up on a bank at the side of the road. The buggy was overturned and occupants were thrown under the feet of the 'bus horses. Fortunately these were suddenly stopped by Mr. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. McTavish pulled from their precarious position. Though somewhat bruised, no serious damage was done.

Mr. Ted. VanDusen of Chicago is visiting his mother, Mrs. A. S. VanDusen here. "Ted" has been a member of the Chicago police force for the past twenty-four years, but severed active connection on the first of July and now enjoys his pension. Steele VanDusen, his son, who is well known here, took his examination in July for Detective Sergeant. He was one of 3000 who tried, only 200 of whom were successful, and Steele passed second highest.

A quiet wedding took place in Toronto on Wednesday of last week, when Miss Annie Rebecca Wilcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilcock of Flesherton, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles F. Ottewell, also of Flesherton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. C. Wilson. Mrs. Ottewell had been bookkeeper in Boyd's store for several years and was widely and favorably known. The groom recently accepted a remunerative position in the employ of the veterinary department of the city of Toronto. Both are estimable young people and their many friends join in hearty congratulations.

A number of members of the Owen Sound Council met Mr. Hogg, the hydro-electric engineer, at Eugenia on Friday last. It was said to be a visit of inspection. The party came down in two autos. Last January the people of Owen Sound voted in favor of taking the Eugenia power, but the Council has been shy and has been demanding all sorts of guarantees before committing themselves to the scheme. The commission agreed to sell them a certain amount of power at a certain price. The Council, as we understand it, asked the hydro commission for a guarantee that they would deliver the amount of power specified. The commission would scarcely agree to a sale of goods that it could not deliver. Still, that has been the sticker. Perhaps after this personal observation of the possibilities at Eugenia the Owen Sound Council will waive further objections and carry out the will of the electors. Mr. Hogg, at all events, thinks it will have that effect.

Two very interesting services were held in the Methodist church on Sunday, when three of the representatives of the Gideons were present—Messrs. Cole, Duffield and McKenzie—and took charge of the meetings. The Gideons is a society formed among the commercial travellers with the object of mutual improvement and the placing of a Bible in every hotel bedroom in Canada. It has existed in Canada only for the past four years, but already the work accomplished is great. There is no doubt that the work these earnest, consecrated men are doing will be a power for good. At the evening service, Miss Hulse, the lady high school teacher, rendered a violin solo that touched the hearts of the congregation very deeply. The selection chosen was "Cavalleria Rusticana" by Mascagni. Miss Hulse is certainly a master of the violin and everyone is delighted to know that we have a musician of her unusual qualifications dwelling with us.

Principal Campbell of Chesley high school has received the appointment of teacher of methods and school management in Stratford normal school, at the hands of the Education Department. This appointment was made a few days before the term began and it leaves the Chesley high school board in a nasty position. They are indignant.

Mr. Dan Luesing, the enterprising local greenhouse man, showed The Post a head of cabbage last Tuesday morning that weighed 10 lb. 6 oz. Pretty good for this time of year. Who can beat it? —Hanover Post.

Mr. Alexander McDonald, a son of Mr. Neil McDonald, of the Eighth Line Sydenham, was the victim of a nasty accident on Thursday which will cause him much discomfort for a time. Mr. McDonald was drawing gravel and was hitching the second of his two teams to the waggon when one of the horses kicked wickedly. The young man got the full force of the blow right in the face, with the result that three bones were badly splintered, and his upper jaw was dislocated. Mr. McDonald was brought to the General and Marine Hospital where Dr. Middlebro attended his injuries.—Sun.

Lassoing a train

A little ten-year-old boy, Willie McGaugh, tried to emulate the Western cowboy, in a rather unusual manner, at Fornfelt, Mo., not long since. In the morning Willie had donned a cowboy outfit his father had given him on the Fourth of July. He hitched his trousers, swung his trusty cap pistol loosely in his holster, pushed the brim of his miniature sombrero back from his forehead and started forth to rove the plains—to wit his father's backyard. There he shot down a score or more of imaginary Indians and equally as many bad men before he decided to turn cattle rustler. With his brand new lasso, made from a clothesline, he roped the pump in the yard, the family cat and every doornob in sight. Sighing for new worlds to conquer, he strayed down to the railroad tracks. There was a rumble in the distance. A fast freight train hove in sight. Here was something worth while. He swung his lasso over his head in frantic zeal. Just as the train whizzed by, Willie let go. The swirling rope hovered in the air for a second and then settled widely over the coupling rod. In an instant the rope straightened out and with it Willie, to whose waist one end of the rope was fastened. Willie shot through the air like a rocket. Sam Vancie, a merchant, who was standing on the platform, grabbed a flag and stopped the approaching train. "Some buffalo that," Willie grinned through his pain, a they carried him home.

Dairying for Profit

Everyone dairying for profit will find that a cream separator is indispensable. It is, therefore, simply a question of which separator will best meet his requirements. The Dairymaid cream harvester has been designed to meet all demands. It is built of the best material by experienced workmen.

The essential points of the Dairymaid cream harvester are:

Simple construction, Large capacity,
Durable construction, Easy cleaning,
Close skimming, Light running.

These, and many others, are valuable features which make a Dairymaid cream harvester best suited to those dairying for profit.

For every up-to-date, well regulated farm, a Dairymaid cream harvester is a necessity. It will save you the inconvenience of hauling your milk to the creamery, and bringing back cold and tainted or sour skim milk.

Use a Dairymaid cream harvester and separate your milk while it is still warm and secure all the butter fat.

Call and examine a Dairymaid cream harvester and secure one of the handsome little booklets telling you more about this separator.
