East Grey Fall Fair

East Grey Ag'l Society had a pleasant day for their fair on Wednesday of last week, and as a result the gate receipts were pretty good, although they did not reach the high water mark. The exhibition all round was a good one, too. Live stock was out in large quantities and there was keen competition among the various breeders. Roots and vegetables were much more plentiful, and a better sample, than was anticipated. Ladies work was quite up to former years. Fruit was short, owing to scarcity. The horse racing was considered to be very good, and everybody present considered that they got extra good value for their money this year. The band was assisted by a number of Dundalk players and the Flesherton boys returned the compliment at the Dundalk show on Friday. In the hall a piano supplied by Mr. Connell of Owen Sound made sweet music, assisted by a gramophone man. Gate receipts, $202.00. Concert $115.00. Following is the prize list:

Frenzied finance is a popular theme with some Owen Sounders. George McIntosh sold a couple of bottles of whiskey for about $1 25 each and was unable to pay the license fee fixed by the court viz: $200 and costs. Consequently George is doing a little real work for the next three months. A similar fate awaits Arthur Mernie when he gets tired keeping away from the Sound. He skipped out in advance of his trial.
