Both rabbits and partridge appear to be plentiful this fall. Two boys of the town secured thirteen of the former on Saturday and hunters have brought in large numbers of the latter since the season opened.

The night train on Saturday was three hours late owing to a run off below Shelburne. Five cars of a stone train left the rails and blocked the track for a quarter of a mile. The mails and passengers had to be transferred. No express matter came through.

The new fall timetable on the C. P.R. came into effect on Monday last. The morning train south leaves here at 7.43 as heretofore, but the afternoon train leaves 11 minutes earlier—4.17 p m. Going north the noon train arrives at 11.41 and the night train at 7 12 p. m.

The Owen Sound Times says that down around Flesherton and Dundalk three or four inches of snow fell on Tuesday of last week. We cannot speak for Dundalk, but a quarter of an inch would be the limit here, and it was so mixed with rain that it didnot lie any length of time.

Chalmers Church congregation at the close of the service on Sunday elected Rev. A. McVicar and Messrs. J. F. Chard, J. L. McMullen and Frank Cairns delegates to the Laymen's Missionary Congress at Orangeville next week.

Peter McMurdo near Hopeville, lost several pigs lately from a peculiar cause. McMurdo had threshed a lot of flax and the pigs had access to the straw pile, with the result that their stomachs became clogged with the flax and indigestion caused their death. Five or six of the animals have died.

Somethiug like twenty-five hunters are leaving this section to day for the north woods. One party goes to Dean Lake, Algoma, another to Spanish, Algoma, and three parties to Parry Sound District—two from Flesherton and Kimberley and one party from Rock Mills. There will be a howling time in the bush this fall.

The Ontario Sunday School Association will hold a dual convention this week. One section is being held at Knox church, Ottawa, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week, and another will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week in Owen Sound. Mr. Marion Lawrence, general Secretary of the International Sunday School Association and many other noted workers will be in attendance. Prof. E. O. Excell, music leader, Chicago, and Prof. Alvin Roper of Winona Lake, Indiana, a wizard at the piano, will be amongst the entertainers.

Accidents at Meaford

Mr. John Veitch, a single man working for the Seaman, Kent Co., met with a serious accident at the factory on Friday last. While operating his machine Mr. Veitch's hand in some way came in contact with the roller with the result that the hand was badly lacerated from the thumb across the palm below the fingers and also from the thumb to the wrist at the back of the hand. It was thought at first that Mr. Veitch would lose the use of the hand, but fortunately no unfavorable symptoms developed and Dr. Bennett, the attending physician, reports that though 15 stitches were necessary to close the wounds, he has good hopes of saving the injured member.

Another accident of asomewhat similiar nature took place on Monday, the victim being Mr. Charles Vail, residing on 15 and 16 sideroad. Mr. Vail was working at a cutting box when his left hand was forced against the knife, severely injuring the fleshy part of the thumb. Dr. Bennett, who was immediately summoned, dressed the wound, putting in five stitches.—Express.

This Applies Everywhere

Our merchants are alive to the fact that advertising in a paper with the circulation of The Advocate is money well spent. A few weeks ago Mr. H. C Smith, jeweller, doubled his advertising space in this journal with the result that his business has increased beyond expectations, and he says: "If I had advertised for the past three years as I am doing to-day I would be $3,000 better off. I know my ad is bringing me new business every day." It is the same story with all who use The Advocate to make known what they have to sell or buy.—Mitchell Advocate.

Why the Youth's Companion Should be in Every Family.

Because it is unusual, and no other source can supply the same kind of reading. The fact and fiction are novel, and every line is fit to read aloud. A year of The Youth's Companion as it is to-day is of inexhaustible entertainment and benefit to the family. In quantity, it provides more than any other American monthly periodical—and is the more appreciated because it comes fifty-two times a year instead of twelve.

The Companion as it is to-day, enlarged, and broadened in scope, including the Family Page, the Boy's Page, and the Girl's Page as departments, with eight splendid serials and 250 shorter stories, its accurate and impartial editorials, Science and Current Events, makes a volume of matter that touches every genuine interest of the family.

So carefully is it edited, so varied is its contents, that a family would be well supplied with entertaining fiction, up-to-date information and wholesome fun, if no other periodical entered the home.

If you are not familiar with The Companion as it is to-day, let us send you sample copies containing chapters from Frank Lillie Pollock's great Canadian serial, "The Timber Treasure," and the Announcement for 1914.

New subscibers who send $2.25 for the fifty-two issue of 1914 will recieve free the remaining issues of 1913, and a copy of The Companion Practical Home Calendar in addition.

It was in the back room of the ——hotel, and the talk had turned to hens. "Talking of hens" said the chairman, "reminds me of an old hen dad had on the farm out in Huron. She would hatch anything from a baseball to a lemon. Why, one day she sat on a chunk of ice and hatched out two quarts of hot water." "That's nothing to a club-footed hen my old mother once had," remarked the Doc. "They had been feeding her by mistake on sawdust instead of chop stuff. Well, gents, she laid twelve eggs and sat them, and when they hatched eleven of the chickens had wooden legs and the twelfth was a woodpecker." And the bell rang.

Thursday afternoon a painful accident befell Edwin Hall, of Conn, while engaged in feeding a threshing machine on a farm half a mile from the village. His left hand came in contact with the cylinder when he reached over to remove some wheat which overlapped the cylinder capp, and his hand had to be amputated at the wrist joint.

Harry Flesher, an Orangeville carpenter, while working at some repairs at Ritchie Bros. store, ran a splinter into his thumb nail. Blood poisoning and erysipelas developed and resulted fatally.

Music is fashionable in Hamilton now and all the giddy young things like their friends to think they are taking lessons. That is why that young lady mounted the street car the other afternoon with the violin case in her hand. But what her embarrassment when the case fell apart and sausages and butter were distributed over the seats of the car.

By the end of this month there will be 60,000 subscribers in Canada to the rural mail delivery system. You better be careful in the selection of your twine this year. Be sure you get the best. Beware of mixed twines, which are really composed of low grade manila. They are unsatisfactory at the best, and they will annoy you to death straightening out tangles and picking up loose bundles. Buy good sisal, standard sisal, or high-grade manila binder twine and save yourself annoyance.

When you consider the satisfaction that sisal, standard sisal and high-grade manila binder twine will give and the amount of extra labor good twine will save, you will more fully understand the value of McCormick twines. McCormick binder twine is made in four brands—sisal, standard, manila, pure manila. Every brand is up to the McCormick quality. You will get perfect satisfaction if you use McCormick twine.

Don't be misled, come direct to us and we will explain the twine proposition.
