Mayor Walters' First Levee. THE SELECT SIX ASSEMBLE-NEW FACES-RUSH BUSINESS,

The first meeting of the towe council under the new regime took place lest Monday morn-ing, Jenuary 9 h. The hitherto large family circle had dwindled considerably, and several bright congenial sculs were "conspicuous by bright edigethal souls were conspicated by their absence. The new council, however, composed of Mayor Walters, and Aldermen Grandell, Scotheran, Ingle, Lennen and Jackson, (Alderman Horn being absent), lost no time in regrets and lementations, but rolled up their sleeves for business immediately. After having taken the declaration of office and ementations having taken the declaration of office and ementations having taken the declaration of office and ementations have the appointment. and amended the by-law for the appointment of committees, they adjourned till 7 o'clock in

In the evening Mayor Walters delivered his spening address to a full council, mentioning several masters which would be crought up for their consideration, among others, the sewerage question, granchible walks, Lindsay st, bridge, new fire hall, and the pack question. A'dermen Southeran congretulated his worship on his report, and moved that it be Victoria County students at the referred to the several committees affected.

Alderman Jackson seconded the motion, also approving of written reports.

The chalimen of the different commistees were then appointed as follows:—Finance from the fown and county have retuined committee, J. H. Sootheran; Board of Works, the holidays Among the number are: Geo. Ingle; town property, J. H. Lennon; police and lighting, Alex. Horn; Court of Revision, Geo. Crandeli.

Low rumblings and mutterings from the southern horfzon all evening indicated a storm which now developed with storm-centre over A P Scully, B Heritmen, J P Keith, Lindsay, Alderman Scotheran's desk, Capt. Crandell Dental—W Semera, J Devits, J Modillan, was weighed down by a same of grievous wrong; his feelings had been hurt. That the position of chairman which he had held so long should be usurped by a new man, called for reproach and reproof; and with a sad voice the captain made his plaint. But the shameless eniprits stared to slience and svinced no signs of contrition, and trembled not at the Lindsay; L A McInt wh Minden, dire and ominous forebodings of the ancient School of Science—EV Neclands

Several communications were then read : From Thos. Stewart, saking for certain small exemptions in regard to a new business which Kennedy Davis & Ca., are about to start. later.

Mr. Hugh O'Leary, Q.C.; was given permission to speak in relation to the extension of the Haliburton railway. He referred to the efforts being made by the citizens of Toronto to gain access to the trade of the north by getting a connection with the Oitawa railway. He outlined two railroad routes which would open up the north country. One of these routes passed through Lindsay, the other to the east of this town. He pointed out the advantages to the town of the former out the advantages to the town of the former route, and urged the council to make an effort to bring the road this way, and with this in view, to join with Toronto in memorialthe Government. It was decided that a dittee of the council should investigate
