Wodehouse Doings

Messrs. Joseph Ward and John Cherry made a business trip to Galt recently.

The debate, "Which is the most strenuous, pioneer life or the life of to-day?" given by the Epworth League on Thursday evening of week before last, was quite a success. Miss May Lanktree was captain of the former side, while Miss Nancy Wiley, President, had the latter, she gaining the victory. A lunch was served after the meeting.

Misses Eva and Ella Buskin, accompanied by their sister, Mrs. Will Wiley, attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Thomas Bentham, at Flesherton.

This circuit was left entirely without a preacher on Sunday week. Quite a congregation gathered at New England, but the preacher who was to arrive to take charge of the circuit in the absence of Rev. Mr. Sinclair failed to make his appearance. A short prayer and song service was held, after which the meeting was dismissed.

Miss Millie Abercrombie of Heathcote was the guest of her cousin, Miss Nettie McArthur.

Mr. Ephraim Doupe of Flesherton was a visitor with Mr. John Buskin recently.

Mr. Ernest Morwood made a business trip to Meaford and Thornbury recently.

Fowl thieves have been operating in our neighborhood.

What remarkably mild weather for this time of the year! Just a little over three weeks until Christmas.

There was no service in our church again on Sunday. Of course, with the state of the roads and weather very few were out.

Miss Elsie McNevin of Markdale spent Sunday with her sisters, the Misses Iva and Rena.

Mr. Gordon Wiley was engaged the past week with his uncle, Mr. John Ferris of Markdale, cutting logs on No. 10.

The Epworth Leagu purpose holding a necktie social on Wed., Dec. 10.

Mr. Thos. Ward was at Massie Tuesday last.

A number from here attended the auction sale at W. J. Brown's, 11th line, on Wednesday last.

Mr. Stanley Wiley has been engaged with J. M. Davis, Vandeleur, putting in the woodwork for his stables.

Durham

On Thursday morning last about six o'clock, a frame house belonging to Mr. John Bailey, near Vickers, caught fire and burned to the ground. As the house has been empty for some time the cause of the fire is a mystery. We understand there was small insurance.

Last week we referred to the horse of mail courier McFaydden having run away, and getting badly injured. The injuries were we believe, regarded as minor ones at the time, but were more serious than at first thought, as the animal has since died. With the present price of horse-flesh, Mr. McFayden's loss is no trifling one.

At the cement works on Tuesday a human skull in good state of preservation was found in a load of marl just delivered from the marl beds at Hanover. Judging from general appearance and the condition of the teeth, it seems to belong to a full-grown person, not far advanced in life. Everything including the upper jaw is intact, and the two molars on each side are sound and healthy in appearance. The discovery was not made until the marl was delivered here, and no other human bones have been noticed. The residents of Hanover and vicinity may now set themselves thinking to recall any mysterious disappearance from that locality.—Chronicle.

When in Toronto yesterday, says the Orilla News-Letter of last Thursday, Mayor Goffatt and Alderman Hately interviewed Sir Donald Man re the running of trains over the Canadian Northern Railway into Orillia. Sir Donald explained that they expected to connect their line at Atherley with a Georgian Bay port, through Orillia, during the next year or so, surveys for which had already been made. He expected the work of building this extension would be commenced next spring, and when completed Orillia, would, of course, be on one of the main lines and have a permanent service. In the meantime he promised to look into the matter of giving Orillia a local train service at once.

Victoria Corners

Intended for Last Week

Miss Millie Robinson, Bethel, visited her cousin Mrs. Milton Bannon.

Mr. N. Miners returned from the West, and looks as though the climate very much agreed with him.

Mrs. N. Miners attended the funeral of her mother at Tilsonburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Duncan visited a few days at Mr. Walter Acheson's.

This Week's Items

Mrs. Lawrence of Mulmer is visiting at Mr. Will Moore's.

Such fine weather, we can scarcely beleive it is the first of December, but are trying to fatten the turkey and goose, and Christmas will soon be along.

It is our private opinion publicly expressed, that the rural mail on this line instead of improving the regularity of our correspondent has completely spoiled him, but maybe he will do better next time, we will excuse him on the plea that not having to go for the mail he never gets away from home to hear the neighborhood gossip. We now have the telephone and Rural Mail, soon we will have no excuse to get away from home, then what use will be the automobiles?

Manager Sinclair Injured

While ploughing with a spirited young team on Monday evening Mr. Sinclair, manager of the House of Refuge, met met with a painful mishap. He was turning at the end of the furrow, the lines about his waist, when the team sprang forward pulling him over the plow, his head and face coming in contact with the coulter. He held onto the team, unhitched them and brought them to the barn, supposing he had only bled his nose in the scramble; but found he had received a cut to the bone down the forehead three and a half inches long and also a fracture in the bridge of the nose. It was certainly a narrow escape from more serious, or even fatal injuries, and we are glad to be able to report him doing well. Dr. Ego is attending him, and does not anticipate serious results.—Standard.

Feversham Items

Beautiful spring-like weather like weather is prevailing here.

Mr. Sid. Melen who has spent the past two years and a half in the West is spending a week with his brother Will of this place before leaving on a visit to his parents in Repton, England. Sid will return to Canada in the spring.

Mr. John Coulthard spent the week end in Collingwood.

Mr. I. Harvey Perigo of Port McNicholl is visiting his parents here.

A number of people from this village and surrounding country are going to Guelph next week to the Fat Stock Show.

Mr. Joseph Thomson of Rock Mills, who has been out West all summer, paid our village a flying visit on Monday last.

We are very sorry to report the very sudden death of Mr. John Madden of the eighth line. Mr. Madden was attending a sale in the afternoon on Friday last and no one heard him complain of not feeling well until he said to one of his neighbors to whom he was talking, "I feel like fainting," and sank to the ground and immediately expired. Mr. Madden was only a young man in the prime of life and was highly respected. The sympathy af all is extended to the bereaved mother, brother, and sisters.

Vandeleur Happenings
