One could not cross without stepping into mud three or four inches in depth. The visiting oddiellows here last week said that for disgraceful crossings and muddy, sloppy, water covered roads, Lindsay could not be beaten by any town in the province. Such a state of affairs is not very creditable to this town. In 1863 she married Mr William McGahey, who with a family of eight, six sons and two daughters, are left to mourn the loss of an affectionate wife and loving mother.
