Saranac (Mich.) Sun.—He told his 12-year old son to milk the cow, feed the horse, feed the pigs, catch the colt and put it in the stable, hunt the eggs, feed the calves, cut some wood, split some kindling, stir the cream, pump some fresh water in the creamery after supper, and be sure to study his lessons before he went to bed. Then he went to the Farmers' Club to discuss the question " How to keep the boys on the farm.'

The province of Prince Edward Island has no liquor licenses. In Nova Scotia there is no lawful liquor selling outside the city of Halifax. There are only 137 licenses left in the whole of New Brunswick. Quebec has prohibition in 859 parishes. Half of Manitoba is dry. Sashatchewan has started a Banish-the-bar campaign. In Ontario 502 municipalities have already lined up on the side of prohibition.

Maxwell

KERTON—FISHER

An extremely pretty wedding took place on Wednesday evening, the 17 h inst., at 6 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fisher, Rock Mills, when their daughter, Gertude, was united in marriage to Mr. Marshall Kerton of Maxwell. The Rev. J. Phimister performed the ceremony, which took place under a floral arch. The bride was given away by her father, and wore an exquisite gown of pale blue silk, with pearl garniture and honiton lace, and bandeau of pearls. Miss Nellie Fisher attended her sister and wore blue velvet with touches of white and corsage bouquet. Mr. Louis Kerton, the groom's cousin, was best man. The groom's favor to the bride was a handsome engraved bracelet, to the bridesmaid a brooch, and a signet pin to the best man . Immediately after the ceremony Mrs. Fisher held a large reception to eighty guests. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents. The happy couple left by early train for Toronto and other points, the bride travelling in a brown suit with hat to match, and sable furs. Mr and Mrs. Kerton will reside in Maxwell.

Miss Jessie Morrison of Markham spent a few days with her aunt, Mrs. J. Kerton, and also attended her cousin's wedding on the 17th inst. She returned home on the 20th.

On Nov. 26 Robert Gordon was sentenced at Goderich to six years in Kingston penitentiary for the killing of his father. The best feeling prevailed between the father and son. They had been plowing on the day of the affair and on returning to the barn young Gordon struck one of the horses. The father became angered and attempted to chastise the young man who was 30 years of age The latter in defending himself seized an iron bar and dealt the blow. The charge was manslaughter. The family live in McKillop township.
