as to be most he pful to Christian living," was read by the Rev A Blair, B A, of Nassagaweya. Mr. Blair's paper was most comprehensive, and he thoroughly handled his subject, showing that care and profound thought had been expended on it.

The Rev. H Gracey, M A, of Gananoque, followed with an excellently written paper on "The church is relation to temperance reform." Mr. Gracey handled this subject in a masterly manner, presenting his opinions clearly and logically. A very vigorous discussion was carried on by the gentlemen after Mr Gracey finished, in which the church came in for some mild censure for not taking more forward.

Rev. J. F. McLaren, of Rockland, the retiring moderator of the synod, preached, taking his text from the 14th verse of the 7th chapter of Revelations. The reverend gentleman's discourse produced something of a mild sensation amongst the members of the synod, some of whom did not altogether quite agree with the sentiments advanced.

After passing various presbytery reports. as read by the synod clerk, Dr Gray, the nominations for moderator were read. There were two nominations, the Rev. J M Cameron, of Wyork of the presbytery of Lindsay and of Wyck, of the presbytery of Lindsay, and the Rev Mr Gracey, of the presbytery of Kingston. In view of the fact that Lindsay presbytery has never had any of its members a moderator, the representatives from the Kingston synod withdrew the nomination of
