VICINITY CHIPS

Born—In Flesherton, Dec 25,1913, to Mr. and Mrs. James Patton, a son.

Mr. Harvey Perigoe of Port McNicoll was a caller on Tuesday.

Miss May Jamieson of Mont Clair, N. J., is holidaying with her mother here.

Mr. Joseph LeGard spent Christmas at his parental home in the suburbs.

Miss Annie Howard of Toront is visiting her mother, for several weeks.

Miss Belle Clinton has sold her handsome residence and property to Mr. Avery Hawken, photographer.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Chircott and three children of Kingsville are holiday guests of Mr.and Mrs. D. McKillop.

Mr. Arthur Fraser of Fort William spent Sunday with his uncle, Mr. John Bellamy.

Mr. John McFadden and Miss Dorothy McFadden and Miss Sadie Boyce of Markdale visited at R. Waller's over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Miller,(nee Myrtle Blakeley), of Toronto, and Miss Leta Blakeley of Corbetton, were guests for Christmas at Mr. T. Blakeley's.

Judge F. W. Breen and wife (nee Miss Ruby Trimble) of Cadilac, Mich., spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Trimble.

Christmas day gave us just enough snow to make fair slipping, and as snow has been a scarce commodity this winter, it was made good use of. The day was pleasant and enjoyable.

Mr. Price Teeter has been advertising a stray steer in The Advance for the past couple of weeks. The animal was found in the woods down in the valley and was as wild as a deer. It could not be approached and had to be shot the same as any other wild animal.

Among the happy Christmas gatherings here perhaps that at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilcock was the most extensive. There were twenty-two children, their wives and grandchildren, present at the festive board. They came all the way from Regina in order to complete the family.

Mr. Cliff Blakeley, who has been taking a course in cutting recently, will open up a tailoring establishment in the old premises, Richardson's block, on the first of the new year. He will have a nice line of goods to choose from, and fully expects to be able to give universal satisfaction from his latest improved system of cutting.

The members of the Women's Auxiliary of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. W. A. Armstrong on Saturday night and presented one of their young members, who is about to become a bride, Miss Annie Waller, with a miscellaneous shower. A large nnmber of useful articles were presented, and a very pleasant hour or so was spent.

John Symons of the third line, Euphrasia, is alleged to have a strong predilection for mutton, and just as strong a hatred of raising his own. Mr. Fred Stuart of Kimberley thinks John has been using his mutton chops, and on Saturday had him up before James McMullen, J. P., in the town hall. Mr. Stuart says he found trace of the sheep having been killed on his own property, taken over the fence onto Symons' farm, and carried off on a stoneboat, He also traced the hide to where it was sold and identified it. A few years ago when mutton was not worth so much as it is today, if found guilty Symons might have got off with a fine, but as it is, mutton is so valuable a product that it comes under the criminal head, and the guilty person is apt to find himself up against a jail term. In this case the magistrate sent Symons up for trial before a higher tribunal, and not being able to raise bail, Symons was sent to the county jail to await trial.

Mrs. S. Pedlar has gone to reside for the winter with her sister in Pickering,

The regular monthly meeting of the W. I. will be held in the High School on Wednesday Jan. 7, at 2.30 p. m. Mrs. R. Best and Mrs. R. H. Moore will give a paper on "Thoughts for the opening year," and Mrs. O. W. Phillips and Mrs. Goldhawk will give a talk on "A week's work for a busy housewife." All members wishing to subscribe for the Home Journal will please hand in their subscriptions (50 cts) at this meeting, as it has been decided to send only once for them. Mrs. E. Best, Sec.

Priceville Jottings

Fine cool weather of late, and about 3 inches of snow fell last week, and has made nice winter roads.

McLeod's new mill is all closed in and the roof on. The flume and machinery will be put in as soon as possible.

The Christmas tree and entertainment on evening of 24th in the Presbyterian Church was quite a success, the hundreds of presents that loaded the tree made young hearts happy, and older ones too. Among the presents that created the greatest interest was a medal to master E. Moore, son of I Moore, of the C. P. R. The boy risked his life in rescuing a son of H. R. McLean from drowning in the Saugeen last summer, and a number of the Priceville people presented a fine watch to Miss Myra McLean, who won her 2nd with honors last summer at Owen Sound Collegiate, and also won the gold medal for general proficiency in that form. Dr. Lane stated on the platform that this was the 4th gold medal won by scholars of our school,the 3 former winners being Henry Watson, Stanley Ferguson and N. E. McKinnon, and he did not think that any other rural school in the County of Grey had such a record.

Among the numerous home comers for the holiday we noticed Miss Aldcorn, Teacher, of Camilla, near Orangeville, who has been re-engaged for a 3rd term at increased salary.

Stanley Ferguson, teacher at Huron St. School, Toronto, is spending the holidays at home.

H. B. McKinnon of the Globe staff was home over Christmas.

Misses Becky McMillan and Ella McKinnon who modeled at Hanover, were successful in their exams, the latter has secured a school near Woodbridge.

Miss Harrow, who has been attending Stratford Normal school, was home for the holiday.

Miss McMillan, of the six corners, who attended Hanover Model, has secured a school in Osprey Township.

Misses Edna Ferguson, Myra McLean and Margaret Tryon of O. S. Collegiate, are home for the holidays.

Miss Edna Ferguson entertained eleven of her school chums on Monday evening last.

Miss Lou Watson, of the Faculty of Education, Toronto, is home for the holidays.

Great preparations are being made for the banquet in Watson's Hall on the 16th of January next. The Shredded Wheat Co. are sending a staff of chefs to Priceville on the above date to set up a first-class banquet in connection with the Methodist church, the supper will consist of 3 courses, and the program after supper is guaranteed to be a—1. See posters.

Sometime between Monday mid-night and very early Tuesday morning, some thief stole, horse, harness, buggy, robes, whip,in fact a complete outfit from Mr. J. H. Brown's barn in this village. On Tuesday before noon the different towns and villages were notified by phone of the theft, and about five o'clock word was received from Stayner that a young man with a like outfit was trying to sell it at that point. The horse, however, properly hitched, and all complete, returned to its stable driverless. Efforts are being made to ascertain who the nervy fellow is that used Mr. Brown's livery rig without permission,and success is apparent. If success is attained, the unfortunate misguided man will need influential friends to keep him out of jail. —Clarksburg Review.

Arthur Walters of Portage LaPrairie, Manitoba, is renewing old acquaintances in this vicinity at present.

Thos. Smart of East Mountain sold a grade Hereford calf six months old to Stuart Bros. recently that tipped the scales at 380 pounds dressed. We doubt if there is as good a calf for its age in Grey county.

Thos. Neely of Beaverdale visited with his cousin, Stanley Reid, recently.

A deputation of influential men attended the last Council meeting in Harriston and asked the town fathers to enforce more severely the regulations governing the sale of cigarettes. A noticeable feature of late has been the prevalent use of cigarettes by boys of tender years,and the delegation asked that a fee of $75 be imposed on all dealers handling these goods. After pointing out the danger of this mild form of tobacco,the Council decided that a step of this kind would be in the right direction and consented to fix the license fee at the above figures. At present there are a half dozen places in town where cigarettes may be purchased, but with the imposing of the fee it is doubtful if these seemingly harmless smokes can be purchased in this town.—Walkerton Telescope.
