Card of Thanks

To the Electors of Artemesia,—I take this opportunity of thanking you for the support you gave me in the past election Hoping we will have a progressive and pleasant year,—Yours—

—WM. ALDCORN

Card of Thanks

Ladies and Gentlemen,—I beg to thank you most heartily for the very generous way you sustained me at the polls on Monday last. I assure you that this emphatic expression of your confidence in me will be an encouragement and incentive to greater study and efforts to give you efficient service. I trust that no neglect or action on my part will lead you to regret your choice.

Faithfully Yours,

—T. R. McKENZIE.

Begin the Year Well

The pleasure of every member of the family during 1914 can be considerably increased by reading each week that greatest of all weekly papers, The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal. It has pages for everyone, old and young. It is really surprising what wonderful value one gets each week in that paper. One dollar is a small sum indeed for such a vast amount of good clean wholesome reading during the year. No mistake can be made in sending one dollar to The Family Herald Office, Montreal, for a year's subscription. It will be the best New Year's Gift to the family.

To Whom It May Concern

It having come to my notice that certain stories are being circulated to the effect that I charged a young man board after visiting at our place last summer, I wish to deny these stories emphatically and will prosecute any person who repeats them. Proof of the falsity of these stories can be proven.

—ALEX. ENGLISH.

Stewart--Smith

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, Kimberley, Ont., was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday evening, Dec. 31st, at 6 o'clock, when their daughter Myrtle Estella was united in the holy bonds of matrimony with George Stewart of Weyburn, Sask. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jas. Dndgeon of Flesherton. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will leave in a few weeks for their home in Weyburn.

Ottewell--Kearns

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Kearns of Owen Sound North on Tuesday, Dec. 23rd, when their daughter, Ethel E., was united in marriage to Mr. W. John Ottewell of Feversham, Ont. The young bride in her smart navy blue wedding costume looked handsome and was attended by Mildred B. Kearns, while the groom was attended by Mr. J. H. Thompson. Many beautiful gifts were presented to the young couple, who left on the afternoon train for Ottawa for their wedding trip. Their many friends extend te them their congratulations and good wishes. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. McEachern of St. Paul's.

McFadden—Waller

On New Years eve the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waller was the scene of a very pretty event, when youngest daughter, Annie was married by the Rev. Jas. Dudgeon to Mr. Robert McFadden of Mono. The bride was attended by Miss Lillian Dudgeon, while Mr. George Waller was best man. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold locket and chain, to the bridesmaide a gold broach and to the best man a pair of cuff links. The happy couple left on Friday on a wedding trip to different points in Northern Ontario.

Methodist Anniversary

The Methodist Sunday school anniversary held on Thursday night last, was another pronounced success, the proceeds all told amounting to $67. The program was quite up to its usual merit, and in addition to the excellent work by the children there were short speeches by the pastors of the sister churches. The school is very prosperous, both financially and otherwise, as the following facts and figures, as submitted by the superintendent, Mr. W. H. Bunt, will go to prove. Officers 5, teachers 10, pupils 106, Bible class 20, visitors 65. Two pupils and one teacher died during the year. The school was open 48 Sundays during the year. At the end of the year there was a balance on hand of $61.68. There were receipts during the year, including balance over from last year of $215.46.

Died

Snodden—At Udney, Ont., on Jan. 3, 1814, Grace Bouser, wife of the late Thomas Snodden, and sister of Mrs. P. Holman, of Flesherton.

Married

Walker—Schild—Mr. A. E. Walker of Daysville, Sask, formerly of Eugenia, Ont., was united in marriage to Miss Emma Schild, Edam, Sask., at Meto, on Thursday, December 18th, 1913. The young couple will reside at Daysville.

Paul—Sharp—Married at the Methodist parsonage, Weyburn, Sask., by Rev. J. Holmes Toole, Samuel Paul of Lang, Sask., son of Elijah Paul, Eugenia, Miss Clara B. Sharp, late of England.
