Cocks Crowed At Kimberley

Kimberley poultry fanciers held their second annual poultry show on Thursday and Friday of last week. Some excellent stock was shown, a distinct improvement over last year being seen in both quantity and quality. There were some two hundred entries all told. About thirty of these were shown by Flesherton fanciers, who were very successful in their winnings, as the prize list will show. A Flesherton bird won the sweepstakes special for best bird in the show, and two other specials came to the Flesherton exhibitors. Mr. Harry Wright of Owen Sound placed the awards and gave universal satisfaction. During the day a regular poultry association was formed for East Grey, with a good membership, and henceforth the exhibition will no doubt be a growing one, as it will receive government aid. The show was visited by a large number, who took a keen interest in the affair. Poultry raising is developing in this district and a great improvement is being made in the quality of the stock raised. Following is the list of prizewinners:

Victoria Corners

A number of the neighbors spent a very pleasant evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Patton, Dreamland, Monday, January 5, on the occasion of Mr. Patton's crystal wedding. The evening was spent in games and dancing, the music being furnished by Swinton Park and Proton Station orchestras and was of a first class nature. Mr. and Mrs. Patton make most splendid host and hostess. They received very many beautiful and expensive presents from their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Weatheral are visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. Corbett.

Mrs. Heard, and daughter, Mina, and son, Willie, visited with friends in Markdale during Christmas week.

The annual school meeting was held at Victoria school on Dec. 31, 1913, when Mr. Herb Nichol was appointed the new trustee.

Dundak

Miss Lillian Armstrong, of Flesherton, was a visitor at Mr. Geo. Nixon's a few days.

Rev. Geo. Kendall, of Dromore, has signified his intention to accept the unanimous call extended to him by the Presbyterian congregations of Dundalk and Ventry. The Presbyteries of Orangeville and Saugeen will meet within a few days and the call will go through the regular channels. We understand Mr. Mossop's residence on Yonge St. has been leased for manse purposes. The transfer will likely be made in two or three weeks.

At the request of Dundalk Board of Trade the Railway Commission of Canada sent a man here a couple of weeks ago to inspect and report on dangerous railway crossings in the village. His report and recommendations now come from the Secretary of the Commission to Village Clerk Ridley, showing that the C. P. R will be asked to install an illuminated electric bell at the Main Street crossing and also one at the Victoria Ave crossing. It is also recommended that Holland Street, leading to the grain elevators from Proton Street, be closed.—Herald.

After Six Years

In the Owen Sound police court George Harris appeared before the magistrate, charged with highway robbery alleged to have been committed about six years ago. Harris pleaded guilty and elected to be tried by the magistrate. [illegible] Mr. Wright, stated that, for the last five years, Harris had been living a steady, industrious life and has a good position as foreman in a factory in Toronto. He read some testimonials from the firm with which Harris has been employed, all stating that he is a steady, trustworthy workman. Mr. Wright also stated that full restitution has been made and asked that, in view of these facts, the magistrate deal leniently with the case. Mr. Spereman, acting Crown Attorney, in view of the circumstances, did not wish to press the charge and the magistrate took a similar view and allowed Harris to go on suspended sentence.—Sun.

Hawke-McMullen

Maple Creek, Sask., News:

Married, at the Methodist church, Maple Creek, on the morning of New Years day, Ina Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. McMullen, Markdale, Ont., to Dr. W. R. Hawke of Medicine Hat, the Rev. J. D. Wildfong officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Sarah Murphy and the groom by his brother, Mr. Walter Hawke. Little Miss Innis Kells was flower girl. Dr. and Mrs. Hawke left on the Soo train for St. Paul, Chicago and other eastern points. On their return they will make their home in Medicine Hat. Both the young people are widely known in Maple Creek, the groom being veterinary surgeon in charge of the Dominion Government's work in this district, and the bride has been one of the accounting staff at E. Small's store for several years.

Kimberley Budget

Talk about a real western blizzard? We certainly had a touch of one Sunday night last.

Thomas Neely of Beaverdale visited with his cousin, Mr. Stanley Reid, recently.

The poultry show which was held in the town hall here on Thursday and Friday last was a hummer. About 200 birds were on exhibition and Judge Wright of Owen Sound had quite a difficult task in placing the awards. Competition was very keen in the Barred Rock, Buff Orpington and Rhode Island classes. G. H. Walter of Flesherton landed the prize for the best bird in the show with a nice Buff Orpington cockerel.

Mr. Bert Graham of Eugenia, accompanied by Miss Virgie McMullen, visited friends in this vicinity one day last week.

Mr. Wilfred Hall of Fairmount was a caller in town one day this week.

Messrs. Richard Allen and A. Harrison of Flesherton made a business trip to Kimberley.

The pastor, Rev. Mr. Colley, occupied the pulpit in the Methodist church on Sunday morning last.

Messrs. Geo. Burritt, James R. Fawcett, Donald Wallace and Geo. Hutchinson made a business trip to Markdale on Friday last.

Mr. John Cairns of Eugenia was a caller in our burg one day last week.

Mr. Geo Stuart and family of Flesherton are visiting friends in this vicinity at present.

Mr. Jno Buchanan of Flesherton is renewing old acquaintances in this vicinity.

Mr. Geo. Hutchinson occupied the pulpit in the New England Methodist church on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. S. S. Burritt took the topic in the Epworth League on Sunday evening last.

Ceylon

Mr. John Collinson of Hanover is visiting his brother here.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnsten Woods of West Toronto called on friends here Saturday.

Mrs. Wilson McMullen and sister, Mrs. Kendrick of Lyndhurst, are this week visiting Creemore friends.

Mr. Thos. Cook of Markdale paid his brother here a visit on Saturday.

Mrs. (Dr.) Holmes, Owen Sound, who has been visiting her parents here the past fortnight, returned home Saturday.

Mr. Sam. Chislett, Toronto, is spending a couple of weeks with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Adams and Miss Wilson, who have been visiting at Mr. J. Adams', returned to Oakville and Toronto.

According to the Meaford papers two surveyors of the Canadian Northern railway are in town looking over the route between Owen Sound and Hamilton via Meaford, with a view to the construction of a line of railway between these points. [illegible] lawyer's last [illegible] A number of Meaford men are [illegible] engaged on the preliminary survey which they are undertaking. It is evident that the Canadian Northern people are at least seriously considering the building of the Owen Sound-Meaford connection as part of one of their proposed lines, but nothing immediate may be expected in the way of construction, as the Canadian Northern have intimated on several occasions that they have their hands full for the present with work already undertaken.

Andrew Hulbert of Guelph was thrown off the seat of his cab while turning a corner and fatally injured.

Sawlogs were coming into the station yards quite freely last week. A great deal of timber was thrown down by the windstorm on Good Friday last year and now it is being hurried to market. Stove wood is more plentiful and somewhat cheaper this winter.

The collegiate pupils have returned to Owen Sound again for their next term, and the several teachers who were home for the holidays have returned to their work in various places.

J. L. McKinnon, theolog, has returned to Queens college, Kingston.

J. L. McDonald has secured a school at good salary in Acton.

Miss F. McMillan returned to her school in Toronto suburbs.

Miss Becky McMillan, who modelled last season, is teaching in a school at Atwood.

The chief topic of conversation this week is the shredded wheat banquet on Friday evening of this week. Supper from 6 to 8 p.m., program after.

Portlaw

Mr. R. Cornfield of Weyburn, Sask., is visiting at the parental home.

Mr. Fred Taylor of Galt spent the holiday season with his parents.

Mr. Edward Watson and wife from the West visited with relatives of this part.

Mr. Alliston, our popular teacher, is back to his duties at our school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wood of Toronto spent the holiday season with friends on the centre line.

—Mr. Abram Blakey is recovering from severe attack of pneumonia.

Miss Pearl Watson holidayed at the parental home.

Mr. W. H. McNally was the new trustee elected at the annual school meeting.

Mrs. J. H. Watson has been very ill of late. Hope to hear soon of her recovery.

Miss Viola Cornfield has returned to her studies at the Central Business college, Toronto.

Mr. Wesley Jamieson and Mr. Glenn of Toronto visited with Mr. W. G. Jamieson.

Roblin Says he Favors Prohibition

A deputation from the Social Service Council waited upon Premier Roblin in Winnipeg and urged upon the Manitoba Government the advisability of making some amendments to local option laws, asking at the same time that a provincial plebiscite on the question of the abolition of the bar be taken.

In reply, Premier Roblin said:

"Abolition of the bar would be in the worst possible interests of sobriety and good living. If you will come out frankly and say it is prohibition law you want, I am with you, for I am as anxious as any man living to promote the cause of temperance. But I [illegible] that [illegible] suffrage [illegible] or is in that [illegible] my judgement of how best to promote temperance and sobriety to anyone else. To close bars, opening up instead, numerous wholesale places, would, in my opinion, be a retrograde step. Close the bars and wholesale houses, too, that is the thing.

Schmietendorf-Whittaker

On Wednesday afternoon, December 24, at the home of the bride's parents, Flesherton, in the presence of only the immediate relatives, the wedding was solemnized of Mis Laura Ada Whittaker, to Kerbert F. Schmeitendorf of Paisley. The room was lighted by candles and decorated with an effective arrengement of evergreens, holly and roses. As the bride entered, leaning on the arm of her father, by whom she was given away, the wedding march was played by Miss Annie Harrow. The ceremony took place under a large floral arch, and was performed by the Rev. J. A. Leece, B. A., of Priceville. The bride looked beautiful in a gown of white ninon over silk, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses, lily of the valley and maidenhair fern. Her tulle veil was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms and she also wore the groom's gift, a diamond and peridot pendant. After the ceremony the bride and groom left on the afternoon train for a trip East. The bride's travelling dress was of Alice blue silk, with hat of white ermine. On their return they will reside in Paisley.
