R. Fawcett, J. M. Davis, Mr. Leslie, principal of our public school; Wm. Sloan, Taylor, Abercrombie, Worthy Master; and others. The musical part of the programme was furnished by local talent, including the following: Mr. Jas. Walker, Edward Sloan and Howard Smith, also Miss Myrtle Camack, Nellie Burritt and Miss A. Williams of Eugenia. Rev. Mr. Colley acted as chairman and gave a fine address on Orangeism. The rev. gentleman is so remarkably witty that we almost thought he was from the "ould sod". Our burg had an exciting time on Saturday about noon, when smoke was seen to gush out from underneath the roof of Mr. James Radley's hotel. Men working in the yard gave the alarm. The fire was discovered to be in the attic. Just how it started no one knows. Had it not been for the quick response of neighbors the building would no doubt have been doomed.

Miss Lilly Muir returned Saturday from a three months' visit with Hanover friends.

Mrs. Johnston visited her cousin, Mr. S. Hemphill, the past week.

Miss Maggie Ferguson returned to Toronto Wednesday after spending a month at the parental home.

Miss Bella McKenzie, who has for several months been visiting her sister, near Eugenia, returned home last week.

Faces Bigamy Charge

Owen Sound, Jan. 25.—Findlay McNish, who is wanted in Toronto on a charge of bigamy, was arrested here yesterday by Provincial Inspector Reyburn, and will be taken to the city to-morrow. The first marriage was solemnized here eight years ago, and shortly afterwards McNish and his wife moved to Toronto, where Mrs. McNish and one child still reside.

According to the police McNish deserted his wife about a year ago, going to Fort William, where he is alleged to have gone through a second marriage with a young woman named Sarah Thompson of that place. Following this marriage McNish and his wife came here and he obtained a position with a local manufacturing concern.

Hydro Engineers Are En Route

The Globe of Thursday last says:—Hydro-electric engineers are making a preliminary survey for a radial line from Guelph to Owen Sound. This is the third railway enterprise that the Hydro officials have investigated. The report on the Toronto to Port Perry line has already been completed and sent to the municipalities. The estimates are practically ready for a line in Huron county, and the Guelph-Owen Sound line will be pushed on a stage where those interested will know the inherent merits of the propasal.

Walkerton

The Walkerton-Formosa-Teeswater stage, which has been a moving picture on the landscape here for the past thirty years, will vanish from the scenery after March 1st, and will be succeeded by the less showy, but more modern vehicle, the rural mail cart.

Mr. John P. Klempp for over thirty years proprietor of the Royal Hotel, died here about four o'clock on Thursday afternoon, after a few days' illness of Bright's disease. The late Mr. Klempp was the pioneer hotel-keeper of Walkerton, and at his death was probably the longest in continuous service of any hotelman in Bruce.

Elijah Wabigona of the Saugeen Reserve was brought to the Walkerton jail on Friday last to serve ten days for retaining his son, who was an inmate of the Indurstrial School at Munsey, where he had been committed for stealing. The youth, it seems, came home to spend the Christmas holidays, and the father failed to send him back again to the institution. —Walkerton Telescope.

A Bruce township farmer was complaining a few weeks ago about how much it cost him to pay his taxes in 1913. "Why it does not cost as much as it did ten years ago," said a neighbor. "This year I can pay my taxes with one steer. Ten years ago it would have taken three steers."

Killed In Bush By Falling Tree

Mr. Robert Brown, a young man living a mile and a quarter north of Flesherton, brother of Councillor Fred Brown, was so seriously injured by a falling tree on Thursday last that he died the following afternoon after remaining unconscious from the time of the accident. The young man was working in the bush with Mr. Bert Douglas of the west back line. They were felling a tree which had its top broken and resting against another tree. When the tree began to fall Mr. Brown ran, but with a tree situated as this one it was impossible to tell what it would do and the young man ran directly in line of the falling tree, which struck him and crushed him to the ground. He was taken to Mr. Douglas' home and doctors summoned, but they decided that nothing could be done. The injury to the skull appeared to be slight, but the doctors thought the base of the brain was affected. The young man remained delirious until Friday afternoon, when he passed away.

The deceased was a very quiet, retiring young man of good character, and was about 34 years of age. He lived with his brother and sister, Mr. Fred and Mis Bella Brown, a mile and a quarter north of Flesherton. Their parents died some years ago. Much sympathy is expressed for the sorrowing brother and sister. A sad feature of the case was that the young man was shortly to be married.

The funeral took place Monday afternoon to Orange Valley cemetery under the auspices of the Orange order, of which deceased was a member. Many floral tributes attested to the sympathy of friends and the popularity of the young man who was so early and so suddenly called away.

The funeral on Monday was probably one of the largest ever held in the district.

The floral offerings were very beautiful, being composed of a wreath from L. O. L. No. 883, a sickle from the Presbyterian church, an anchor and other flowers from neighbors.

L. O. L. No. 883, of which deceased was a member, has forwarded the following letter of condolence:

Ceylon, Jan. 26, 1914

To Mr. Fred Brown and sister:

We, the officers and members of L.O.L. No. 883, do hereby convey to you our heartfelt sympathy in the loss of your brother, Robert Brown, who has been so suddenly called away. We as officers and members will miss his genial quality very much, and we pray that God who is a tower of strength, may guide and strengthen you and your sister, Belle, in this your hour of trial and sorrow. Signed on behalf of the Lodge—Fred Wright, W. M.; Geo. Cairns, R. S.

Duntroon Child Scalded

Sarah, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. William Chestnut, of the tenth line, Nottawasaga, was badly scalded at her home on Wednesday last. The little girl was standing on the oven door and in some way slipped off. In falling she grasped the tea kettle which was filled with boiling water, spilling its contents over her body and scalding herself badly on the face and over the body. Medical assistance was hastily summoned and everything possible done to relieve her sufferings. Hopes are now entertained of her recovery, but it will be some time before she will again be well.

Shot Black Fox

Wyoming, Ont., Jan. 19.—A valuable female black fox, the property of T. L Barrowman and son, of this village, was shot near Alviston by a couple of boys, who had no idea of the value of the animal. The fox was said to be worth $5,000, and a reward of $200 had been offered by the owners for its recovery. It had been missing since last fall.

Killed at Collingwood

Collingwood, Jan. 26.—This morning Arch. Kennedy, an elderly resident, was run over by a runaway team of horses while crossing a lane and suffered such injuries as to cause his death half an hour later. One leg was broken and his skull was crushed in. The deceased was 63 years of age and had lived in Collingwood for many years. He is survived by two sons and two daughters.
