FURTHER REMINISCENCES. To the Editor of The Warder.

SIR .- As a native of Omemee I was pleased in reading your sketch of Omemee to find so great prominence given to the loyal pioneers of that place. The early history of that and other places in Canada is being lost by the death of the pioneers without leaving any record of their harlships, privations, perseverance and successes. Could not The verance and successes. Could not THE WARDER, by its powerful activity, bring about the formation of a pioneer association to preserve and rescue from oblivion what yet patriotic and industrious sires.

The village school did not aspire to the name "Grammar" till about 1860. But it had some good teachers neverthe'sss. One had some good teachers neverthe'ess. One of my preceptors there was Mr. Samuel Corneil of Lindsay. Mr. John Hanna is a surviving early pioneer, and I am not sure whether his rister, Miss Mary Ann Hanna is yet slive. If so, both could relate much worth recording. By the way, the latter was a witness for the crown at an assize court once and the lawyer mercilessly insisted that the thes crier—Capt.
