Dundalk hockey team will play the local team on the rink here Friday night of this week. Game called at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Sullivan left last week to spend a month with her daughters, Misses Carrie and Mamie, in Montreal.

The ice harvest is now in full swing. While the ice is scarcely so thick as usual, the quality is good.

The time for receiving tenders for the erection of a school in S. S. No. 5, Osprey has been extended until Marh 20, 1914—Geo, Lawlor, Sec., Eugenia P.O.

On Tuesday evening of last week, Miss Lillian Armstrong gave an "After Rink" party to about thirty of her friends. A jollo time was spent.

Mrs. W. A. Armstrong, Rev. Mr. Dudgeon and Dr. E. C. Murray are in Toronto this week attending the Toronto Conference Epworth League Convention.

Last Friday an after-skating-party of about 25 young people was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Goldhawk, where a most enjoyable evening was spent.

Dr. Cleaver and Jean Val Jean in the Methodist church Tuesday, Feb. 24 A rare treat awaits everybody in this rendering of what is considered one of the stongest studies in human emotions ever written.

Miss Plewes occupied her new position as organist in the Methodist church on Sunday last and gave very general satisfaction. The new choir leader is also a vocalist of considerable merit and a solo rendered by her Sunday evening was much appreciated by the large congregation present.

Eugenia Methodists will give a shredded wheat banquet and entertainment on Thursday Feb. 26. Miss Clara Hulse, violinist; Mr. R. Dean, soloist; and Flesherton male quartet will assist. This will be the biggest 25 cents worth ever given in Eugenia. No one can afford to miss this feast of good things. See bills for particulars.

Miss M. V. Plewes, of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, is opening a class in Voice Culture, Theory, Pipe Organ (and Piano), pupil of A. S. Vogt, Mus. Doc.; Edward Broome, Mus. Doc.; J. Perry, F. T. C. M., organist for Mendellsohn choir, and Jessie Allen, A. T. C. M. Pupils prepared for all the Conservatory examinations.

As a story Jean Val Jean is well worth reading; as a study in the working out of a convict's sentence of nineteen years, and afterwards the struggle and acquirement of respectability, followed by forced flight and again the building up of a noble character such as the world has seldom seen, form a story that as told by Dr. Cleaver is thrilling in the extreme. In one of the Toronto churches it has been given five times, and in the city over fifty times. Methodist church, Flesherton, Tuesday, Feb. 24. This will be worth driving twenty-miles to hear.

The Walkerton public school board recently advertised for a principal, stating in the advertisement that the principal must be a Protestant. A man named Coleman applied and was accepted. On the first day of school Mr. Coleman refused to open school with the orthodox prayer or read the Scripture, and after half a day's teaching he was summarily dismissed. We cannot see how any exception can be taken to the course of the school board. Any man who would deceive in this manner in order to secure a situation is not a fit subject to rule over the destiny of the rising generation, and that regardless of his religious learnings altogether.

The Paisley public and continuation school was burned to the ground on Saturday morning. The cause of the fire is not known.

Mrs. Welton, Sr., and Miss Dorothy Taylor, of Mt. Forest, accompanied by Mr. George Taylor of British Columbia, drove over on Saturday. The former and the latter returned to Mt. Forest Monday. Miss Taylor will remain here until spring with Mr. and Mrs. B. Welton. Mr. Taylor went west thirty years ago and this is his first return trip to the East.

Mayor D. Barr and Captain Scott of Collingwood, accompanied by Reeve Thompson of Osprey, spent Monday night in town. The Collingwood gentlemen drove over with Mr. Buck of the hydro-electric, through the Pretty River Valley, over the route they would like to see the proposed electric railway take. Singhampton would also like to have the line run their way. Since another item was penned the surveyors have reached town with their work and are locating the line in the immediate vicinity.

Eight hydro-electric engineers have been located at the Munshaw House here since Friday last. They are working now near Saugeen Junction and will be here a week or ten days. The line as run strikes three miles east of Arthur village and two miles east of Hopeville, crossing the C.P.R. at Saugeen Junction and on north to Flesherton. From this point a trial line will be run north to Bognor and another to Collingwood by way of the Beaver Valley. Mr. Buck, the locating engineer, drove over to Clarksburg by way of Eugenia and Kimberley on Saturday, and from Clarksburg he went to Collingwood. He will also examine the Osprey and Pretty River valley route. Mr. Buck is making a thorough examination of the ground to find the most feasible and best paying route to the Georgian Bay.

The annual meeting of Flesherton public library showed a fairly good patronage for 1913. It is hoped the record for 1914 will be even better. An endeavor will be made to secure a travelling library and new up-to-date books to fill some of our gaping shelves. The latter will only be successful as we receive new members, subscriptions and donations. A canvas for members will be made shortly and it is desirable that adult names, wherever possible, be placed on the list as the government requires fifty adult members before allowing any grant. Kindly hand in a list of the books you would like to see on the shelves. Books on Agriculture are there and more ought to be. Will farmers mention such books as are considered good authority. Two books on one subscription may be taken out at a time and kept for two weeks by subscribers outside the village. A good library is a great asset. To-day, in a greater measure than ever before, demands that people be readers. A few good donations of fives or tens would enable us to have a reading room, a splendid resort for village citizens, and also farmers when in town.

A sad incident occurred at Eugenia last week. Alfred Holmes, an improvident Englishman, married one Sarah Leppard there two or three years ago. They lived in a hovel at the outskirts of Eugenia town plot, and it is said the conditions were filthy in the extreme. Holmes and his wife and two children, the mother-in-law, Mrs. Leppard, two children belonging to a dead relative and a couple of other men all lived under the one shanty roof, with a cow and pig housed in a lean-to. The county Children's Aid Society was notified and Mr. Trout came down Thursday last to take the children in charge and to convey the mother to the hospital. Driving out to Eugenia Friday morning he found that so far as the Holmes woman was concerned his services were not required, she having died shortly before his arrival. He took the children away. Dr. Roszell of Maxwell gave a certificate of death from neglect and want of attention which practically means that the woman was starved to death. It seems to us that a certificate of this kind should have carried with it a coroner's inquest, so that the party or parties responsible for this neglect could have had the crime brought home to them, if criminal neglect there was.

His Honor Judge Sutherland presided over a county court case on Wednesday of last week at Owen Sound. The case being an action for damages brought by Roy Kelly of St. Vincent against the township of St. Vincent. It appears that George Cose had left a load of logs on the side of the road and as Kelly was driving home about ten o'clock at night, his horse became frightened and bolted, upsetting the rig and throwing Kelly out. Kelly was injured and the horse also sustained injuries, so that action was brought against the township for $500 damages for allowing Cose to leave his logs on the road, contrary to law. The township held that Cose was liable for a breach of the township by-law. Judgment in the case was reserved.
