VICINITY CHIPS

Dr. Murray spent all of last week in Toronto.

Mr. Elwood Genoa of Toronto is holidaying at the parental home this week.

Miss Amanda McTavish is visiting friends at Corbetton.

Messrs. Frank Irwin and R. C. Walker of Durham called on friends here Sunday, returning the same day.

Mr. Geo. Walter and Miss Florence Thurston spent a few days last week with friends at Walter's Falls.

Died—On Saturday, February 21st, 1914, Susan Porteous, beloved wife of John Porteous, Sr., aged 83 years, 1 month.

The time for receiving tenders for the erection of a school in S. S. No. 5, Osprey has been extended until March 20, 1914 —Geo. Lawlor, Sec., Eugenia P. O.

Mrs. J. W. Armstrong left on Saturday for an extended visit with her daughters, Mrs. Aikenhead and Mrs. Clark, at Toronto and Ottawa.

Mr. Bowler has been licking a number of raw recruits into "tooting" shape for the past few weeks and will soon be in a position to appear in public with a brand new band numbering thirteen members. He claims to have found some good timber among the younger generation and hopes to have a band that will be an honor to himself and the town. It will be delightful to hear the sound of the horns once more.

Miss Rita Buskin and Miss Irene Orr, piano pupils of Mrs. Joseph Blackburn, were in Toronto last week taking exams. at the College of Music, and were very successful. On Senior Second Miss Buskin passed with honors, and on Senior First Miss Orr took first class honors. The young ladies, together with their teacher, are to be congratulated.

A lot of people appear to have gone wild on cows. Auctioneer McPhail tells The Advance that at one of his recent sales near Dundalk cows ranged from $75 to $85—just common, everyday hookers. Up in Sullivan they have it about as bad. At a sale there the prices ranged from $87 to $155, and a cow with calf at foot brought $158, but these were thoroughbreds.

Richard H. Hooper, who ran a furniture factory in Flesherton over thirty years ago, died of Bright's disease last week at Acheson, Kas, aged 50 years. While living here he married Margaret Myles, a sister of Mr. A. E. Myles of Kimberley, and who only lived a short time after the marriage. One son, Lorn Hooper, survives from this union. By the second marriage, contracted in the States, he leaves three sons.

About a year and a half ago Reginald Holmes of Owen Sound was sent down to Kingston for burglarizing County Constable Cook's store at Ceylon, taking a case of confiscated whiskey and a couple of pails of butter. He was recently released on parole after serving all but twenty months of his term. The young man has to report regularly at the Owen Sound police court and made his first report last week. It is thought the misdemeanor was more in the nature of a youthful prank than an intentionally criminal act, and the demands of justice have probably been met.

Last week our subscribers got their papers a day late and they were fortunate to get them even then. Friday morning of the previous week the cylinder of our gasoline engine burst with the frost and had to be sent to Toronto for renewal. It came back Wednesday night and after working on it until 3 a.m. and and 6.30 to 8 a.m. Thursday, we got it together and running. The delay was so unusual that our subscribers in the country kept the telephone hot with inquiries as to the cause of delay. We will try to avoid delay from a similar cause in future and have learned another costly lesson about the gasoline engine.

The W. I. will meet on Wednesday, March 4, at 2.30 p.m., in the high school when papers will be given on Cookies and doughnuts, by Mrs. J. McMillan and Mrs. Hawken; Literature in our Homes, by Mrs. R. H. Wright, and a solo by Miss Josie Richardson. Everybody welcome.

Mrs. George Thompson of Osprey met with a severe and painful accident recently, by which she is likely to lose the sight of her left eye. She was holding the lantern for her husband while he nailed a board on the pig pen, when the wire nail flew and penetrated the eyeball. Mrs. Thompson was taken to Owen Sound hospital and placed under the care of Dr. Burt, who is putting forth every effort to save the eye. He fears, however, that the sight is destroyed and is yet in doubt as to whether he will have to remove the eye. This will not be known for a week or ten days yet. Mr. Thompson called on The Advance Monday morning on his return from Owen Sound and said that the inflammation was much reduced and the danger that the brain would be affected has been obviated. Mrs. Thompson is a cousin of Dr. J. P. Ottewell of Flesherton. Much sympathy is expressed for Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and there is universal hope that the injury may not prove as serious as was feared.

HOCKEY

The high and public school hockey teams collided again on Saturday night with the same old result, only not quite so much of it, the high school showing distinct signs of improvement. The score stood 5 to 4 in favor of the public school.

Last week The Advance said the Flesherton hockey team paid its own expenses at Dundalk and came home without finishing the game. We should have completed the story by saying that the Dundalk team after sleeping over the matter decided to send along a cheque to cover the Flesherton expenses and this was accordingly done. A belated conversion is better than none and we are desirous of giving all the credit that is due, therefore this explanation.

The return game of hockey was played on Friday night between Dundalk and our home team. The boys faced one another a little after eight o'clock, but when Dundalk saw what they were up against, they withdrew, and would not play until the goal keeper for the town team was taken off, which was agreed to about 9.45.

The game started fast, and the referee began penalising the Flesherton boys without any reason. This soon caused disputes, which ended in a free-for-all. The referee was told that he was to blame for not acting justly. He took the advice and the game was good from that on. The Dundalk team played some very good combination, which was well met by the home defence. McTavish and Piper were well in the lime light by their hard work and personal rushes. The game at half time was 2 goals to 3 in favor of the home team. At full time each side had scored 11 goals a piece.

Auction Sales

A credit auction sale of farm stock, implements and household furniture will be held on lot 31, con. 8, Artemesia, on Thursday, March 5, the property of Mrs. W. C. Pedlar, who is removing from the farm. See large bills. Wm. Kaitting, auctioneer.

Mr. James Patton, lot 8; con. 19, Proton, will hold an extensive credit sale of thoroughbred stock, including his stallions and fine bunch of Clydesdale mares, cattle, sheep and farm implements. The advertisement of stock appears elsewhere in this issue. For implements, etc., see bills. The sale will take place on Friday, March 6. Mr. Patton has sold his farm and gives up possession on April 1. D. McPhail, auctioneer.

While ice was being put into Wingefelder and Krueger's ice-house at Walkerton on Thursday morning, an ice-pick, which Mr. Robt. H. Long was using, slipped off a block of ice and caught Mr. Geo. Obrecht in the arm, one of the tongs being deeply imbedded in the flesh and inflicting a wound that required five stitches to close.—Herald.

W. A. Gerolamy, the well-known foundryman and fanning mill manufacturer of Tara, died recently at the advanced age of 82 years. He was a native of Prince Edward County and for 57 years had lived in Tara where he became widely known as a manufacturer of agricultural implements. His fanning mills are of world-wide reputation. Deceased was a member of Tara's first council. In religion he was a Methodist and was generous in his support of that church. In politics he was a Liberal, but on several occasions had cast his vote for the Conservative party.
