Vessel For Navy Every 48 Hours

Figures for British naval production given in London recently show that an average of one warship is being launched in Britain every 48 hours, according to the BBC.

The broadcast added that new corvettes, Britain's fast antisubmarine craft, completed since 1939, amounted to more than 120. This covers war losses many times over. Nineteen new cruisers have come into service since 1939.

75 percent of Germany's war industry is located in the Ruhr.

Have You Heard?

President Roosevelt is reported to have enjoyed the following parrot yarn so much that he shared it with Prime Minister Churchill:

A sailor walked into an auction shop as the auctioneer was asking for bids on a parrot.

"Fifteen dollars," said the sailor.

"Twenty," said another bidder.

"Twenty-five," said the sailor.

"Forty," said the other bidder.

"Forty-five," said the sailor. No further bids were heard, and the auctioneer said, "Sold."

The sailor took the bird and cage, passed over the money, and said: "That's an awful price to pay for a parrot. Can he talk?"

"Can he talk!" exclaimed the auctioneer. "Why, sailor, he was bidding against you."

Said Mr. Hobson: "A baby's troublesome, that's true; but remember the hand that rocks the cradle rules the world."

Replied his wife: "Well, then, suppose you assume world-domination for the evening while I go to the movies."

—o—

A worker due to take on a heavy job, was being examined by the works doctor who found an unusual scar. The man denied ever having had an accident, but casually volunteered the information that he had once been gored by a bull.

"Don't you call that an accident?" asked the doctor.

"No," said the man, bitterly. "He did it on purpose."

—o—

"I say, old man, have you change for a pound note?"

"Yes, certainly."

"Well, just lend me ten shillings of it, will you?"

Three Canadian soldiers sleeping in a tent in an English camp were awakened by a terrific crash not far away.

"What was that—thunder or bombs?" asked one of them.

"Bombs," was the laconic answer.

"Thank heaven for that!" chimed in the third. "I thought we were going to have more rain!"

DOWNHEARTED? NOT VERY

Modern Etiquette

1. Is it necessary for a woman to say "please" and "thank you" to her own servants?

2. When receiving an invitation to a wedding that is to take place at a hotel, is a reply necessary?

3. Should one pick up a dropped napkin when dining in a restaurant?

4. When the guests at a dinner are few in number, and they are all intimate friends, would it be all right for the place cards to bear only their first names, Mary, Elizabeth, Helen, etc.?

5. How should the card of a doctor read?

6. Does a good conversationalist keep repeating: "Is that so? You don't mean it. Really" etc?.

ANSWERS

1.There is nothing obligatory about it, but as it is such a trivial courtesy to extend to the people who are serving one, a well-bred woman will do so.

2. Yes.

3. No; let the waiter pick it up. He will also furnish a clean napkin.

4. Yes, when all the guests are close friends.

5. James Walker, M.D., or Dr. James Walker.

6. No; such a habit is always annoying.

HOW CAN I?

Q. How can I wash unpainted wicker furniture and preserve its white appearance?

A. Wash it quickly with a strong solution of cold water and salt and put in the hot sun to dry. Never wash wicker with soap suds, nor allow it to dry slowly, as it will result in a poor color.

Q. How can I have a neater front lawn?

A. Perhaps the reason it does not have the trim appearance others have is the fact that the edges of the lawn next to the sidewalk have not been cut. A tiny trench cut along the grass edge gives a neat appearance and crispness to the lawn.

Q. How can I rid the kitchen of flies or mosquitoes?

A. By placing a cup of vinegar on the stove where it will simmer enough to make an odor. Or, burn camphor gum on the stove two or three times a day.

Q. How can I use less sugar when making applesauce?

A. Add your sugar to the applesauce before removing it from the stove, and in this way much less sugar will be required to sweeten the sauce.

Q. How can I kill crickets or drive out ants?

A. Put some cucumber peel, cut in thin strips, on the floor at night near their haunts.

End Of War In '43 "If We Are Lucky"

Capt. Randolph Churchill, son of the British Prime Minister, predicted last week that "if we are lucky" the United Nations would win the war by the end of next year, "and if we're unlucky, then we'll win by the end of 1944."

"We, the British, were only one quarter ready for this war," he said at a press conference. "Germany prepared for twenty years for this war. The English have not been as clever in this war as the enemy.

"We have been largely enthusiastic amateurs in this war as compared to professional military men. We still have a lot to learn, but we are learning fast and we are going to win."

Capt. Churchill said that he took a hopeful view of the Egyptian situation.

A Great Canadian Tournament

THAT WILL HELP

A GREAT CANADIAN CAUSE

• This year, the Canadian Open Golf Championship has a significance far beyond its status as a major sport event. It will again present a spectacular struggle for the Open Championship and the Seagram Gold Cup; it will again foster international goodwill by bringing together famous golfers from Canada and the United States; but, in addition, the entire net proceeds of this year's tournament will be donated to the Canadian Red Cross Society.

The House of Seagram is especially glad to be associated with the 1942 Open, which will be held at the Mississauga Golf & Country Club, Toronto, August 6th, 7th and 8th. And, as donor of the Seagram Gold Cup, the House of Seagram welcomes the golfers of both Canada and the United States to the fairways of international friendship.
