VICINITY CHIPS

Mr. John Boyd of Mt. Forest is visiting his son, Wm., this week.

Miss Lillian Armstrong is spending a couple weeks with Toronto friends.

Mr. Harry Stewart of St. Paul, Ont., spent a few days of the past week with elatives here.

Mr. William Sinclair and his brother, Alexander of Hepworth, visited their uncle, Isaac Sinclair of this town a few days last week.

Mrs. Wm. McKechnie of Barrhead Mills visited her brother, Mr. W. Burnett, who has been unwell. While here Mrs. McKechnie made a pleasent call on The Advance.

Mrs. F. H. W. Hickling is spending the week end in Toronto. Miss Frances and Master Berry Armstrong accompanied her.

Be sure to attend the free lesson on sewing to be given by Miss Collins of Toronto for the W. I. on Friday, April 3rd, at 2.30 p. m. in the high school. Everyone is invited to attend this lesson whether members of the W. I. or not.

The railway surveyors ran a second line from the Junction to town last week. This survey comes in just west of Blakeley's pond and joins the first survey a little north-west of the village. The surveyors are now working in the vicinity of Bognor.

Mr. J. McClocklin of Ceylon has sold his butcher business to Mr. Geo. Stuart and will leave with his family for the West in a few days. Moosejaw is the objective point, where he has secured a similar business.

The Advance has received a chatty and interesting letter from an old-time friend, Mr. Geo. LeGard of Chicago. Most of it is too good for posterity to lose, and we will pass it on next week through these columns, if in the meantime we do not get a hot wire peremptory order not to do so.

License Inspector Halbert seized seven cases of whiskey on the premises of Geo. Wright, postmaster at Craigleith. The consignment was confiscated and Wright paid a fine of $100 and costs. Wright's premises were evidently a halfway refreshment booth between Collingwood and Thornbury, two local option towns.

Mr. Emerson Richardson of the ninth line, Euphrasia, met with a serious accident on Thursday last by which he lost all the fingers on his right hand. He was working at a cutting box in his barn when some one entered the building. He turned to speak to them when his hand was caught in the machine with the above result. The injury is a serious one to Mr. Richardson.

Before His Honour Judge Widdifield on Wednesday the 25th inst. Roy Lever, son of W. J. Lever of the East Back Line, stood his trial on a charge of indecent assault and having intercourse with a person of unsound mind. As is well known to our readers the charge was aired before the local magistrates recently, when the case was sent on for trial at the County capital. From what we learn the case fell through for want of evidence, the boy not even being required to go into the witness box on his own behalf. At the opening of the case, Mr. H. G. Tucker, Counsel for the boy, moved that the most serious charge be dismissed on the ground that the person against whom the offence was alleged to have been committed by her testimony before the magistrates, showed that she knew the difference between right and wrong, and the Judge granted this request. After the evidence was all in and the counsel for the Crown Mr. Spereman, and Mr. H. G. Tucker, for the defence, Judge Widdifield acquitted the boy and stated that he had no hesitation in saying that the Crown had totally failed to prove its charge.

Born—Tuesday, March 24, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Blackburn, a daughter—Lola Agnes.

Millinery Galore

Three millinery establishments are catering to the wants of femininity in Flesherton this year and the styles are very distinct, being something altogether apart from those of other years.

In a word the hats are radically different this spring than heretofore,—shape, trimming and style considered. Some of the shapes are rather impudent looking—quite a rakish leer to them—and yet the effect is becoming. The hat fits snugly to the head. The shapes are small—mostly dark, which color serves as a striking foundation upon which to show wonderful contrasts of color tones. The colors themselves are bizarre in the extreme, combinations are shown and with good effect, and which are distinctly different to any vogue of the past seasons. In trimmings flowers seem easily to take preference—wreaths, garlands, sprays, and bunches, mostly of the smaller flowers—are seen in profusion of colors. The hats as a display are fearful and wonderful to behold, but seen on the wearer have quite a marked distinction and style which is a credit alike to the ingenuity of mind that conceived it, and the deft fingers that put them together.

Markdale

Mrs. George Mundel, of Kimberley, has received the sad news of the death of her brother, Mr. Burney Galbraith, of Tawas, Mich., where he had been a resident for 30 years. Deceased was a former resident of this part, and brother of the late William Galbraith. He was 63 years old.

Mr James Wiley, of Wodehouse, delivered a load of elm logs at Armstrong's veneer factory a week ago that weighed 140 lbs over five and a half tons, and Mr. Wm. Woods one just 90 lbs less. This would indicate that there are some stout horses and substantial sleighs not far away.—Standard.

Men You Should Know

Have you ever seen the Minister of Railways and Canals; the Minister of Finance; the Minister of Customs or the Postmaster General. How many of the Ministers of the Ottawa Cabinet do you know? Don't you think it would be interesting to at least know the faces of the men who are governing Canada?

The Advance offers you an opportunity, under an arrangement recently closed with The Toronto News, in which by subscribing to both papers for 12 months at a cost to you of $2.50, you will be sent, tubed and postage prepaid, a splendid photogravure of the Borden Cabinet, 17¾" x22¾".

Send in your subscription to this office and we will see that the picture is sent you at once.

Geo. Fisher's sawmill, one mile north of Crawford, went up in smoke last Wednesday morning, through some unknown cause, though it is considered possibly incendiary. A new 25-horsepower engine recently installed will require $300 of repairs before it is again in order. There was no insurance, so Mr. Fisher's loss will be rather heavy—Review.

Mr. John Collinson of Durham had a fall last Thursday morning and cut his head. In the afternoon he went out and fell, losing consciousness by a stroke, apparently, for he was found later, helpless and stiffened with cold. He was at once attended to and taken to the home of Mrs. Dan McAuliffe for treatment, and is there under the care of Dr. B. Jamieson at present. The case is a serious one.—Review.

Joseph Holis, aged 28 years, of West Luther, died suddenly in an Arthur hotel. The young man came to Arthur and at noon went in to eat his dinner. He was unable to eat anything and the proprietor had him removed to a sitting room, where he was left. About 7 p.m. he was approached, but made no answer to several questions. A doctor was summoned, who found that life had been extinct for some time. Deceased was unmarried. An inquest was held whan a verdict of death from acute heart trouble was given.

Kimberley Budget

Everybody's busy making maple syrup.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Plewes of Flesherton visited at Mr. John Plewes one day last week.

Mrs. James Johnston and son, Earl, of Dundalk, visited at Mr. James Stuart's a few days the past week.

Mr. Albert Oborne occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church on Sunday a.m. last and preached an excellent sermon.

Rev. Dinwoodie of Eugenia was a caller in our burg one day last week.

Messrs. Eldridge and Albert Hutchinson of Heathcote visited friends in this vicinity recently.

Mr. Wm. Magee of Salem visited at Wm. McClung's one day last week.

Howard Smith of Rob Roy visited at Thomas Lewis' on Monday.

Rev. J. R. Wilkinson of Holland Centre took charge of the revival services in the Methodist church on Thursday and Friday evening last.

Miss McMullen of Eugenia visited at Jasper Stuart's a few days the past week.

Mr. John Reid of Stayner visited at Mrs. T. Reid's a few days last week.

Mr. Ashley McCallum of Duncan visited with his aunt, Mrs. James R. Fawcett, a few days the past week.

Mr. John Taylor of Rocklyn visited friends in this vicinity recently.

Mr. Fred Birch of Wodehouse was a caller in our burg one day recently. Mr. Birch is a checker expert and vanquished some of our local cracks at the game.

Mr. Arthur Anderson of Union has moved into our burg lately. Arthur is a very industrious young man and will be a valuable acquisition to our burg.

Vandeleur Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Broughton and little daughter, of Corbetton, were visitors at W. G. Shannon's recently.

Mr. Wm. Buchanan had the misfortune to lose a valuable colt a short time ago.

Joseph McCullough of Markdale is a busy man these days buzzing wood for the farmers in this vicinity.

We are sorry to report Mrs. Wm. Alcox ill with an attack of pleurisy.

Sugar making is the order of business these days. Mr. J. I. Graham is in the lead with 800 trees tapped.

Miss Eva Gilbert is visiting her sister, Mrs. Smith, at Meaford.

Mr. Robert Holley and daughter, Ella, of Meaford are visiting friends here about.

Mr. Jas McKenzie who has been visiting his uncle, Mr. Geo. Pritchard for the past three months, has returned to his home at Winnipeg.

Priceville Jottings

Signs of Spring. The snow is retiring by the influence of the sun's rays; the robins, bluebirds, plover and some other spring birds are with us, but old winter seems loath to leave.

The roads are in a bad state, some stretches all mud and other places high ridges of snow.

The Saugeen river has not run amuck this year, destroying bridges, milldams and other property, and is not likely to unless excessive rains set in right away.

The rural mail carriers have had great difficulty lately getting over bad roads.

Mrs. Robertson, who spent the greater part of the winter with her daughter at Lions Head, is back again in her cottage on the east side of the village.

Gangs of men are busy loading cars with the remaining sawlogs for the Durham and Hanover furniture factories.

Mrs. D. McLachlan, who has been seriously ill for some weeks, is now convalescent.

Neil McLeod and Colin McMillan took the train a week ago for the West.

Robert Conkey went north some days ago to open a store in the vicinity of Sudbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Aldcorn visited for a few days in this vicinity, prior to their leaving for Winnipeg.

Miss M. Aldcorn, teacher at Camilla, was home over the week end, week before last.

Herman McLean is moving from town to the McTaggert farm, over on the 5th line, Glenelg.

Rev. J. A. Matheson has held service at nine funerals since January last.

Last week one of the Confederate's staff was getting a little quarantine experience during our two busiest days. But that is nothing to what editor Dawson of the Parkhill Gazette had to pass through in one short week. His foreman took a paralytic stroke, one apprentice was severely burned by gasoline getting on his clothes and becoming ignited, and the other boy got his hand in the press and broke one finger. This is cutting down the staff with a vengeance. —Mt. Forest Confederate.
