WE BUY POULTRY

MARKET YOUR POULTRY IN AN ORDERLY MANNER

Spread your marketing over a period of months for the purpose of avoiding overloaded markets.

Higher prices prevail during the summer months and early fall.

Cull your laying flock frequently, there is no advantage in feeding non-layers.

Highest Prices are paid for Grade A milk-fed quality. Birds should be crate or pen fattened two weeks before marketing. They should be fed three times a day, as much as they will clean up in 20 minutes.

Please bring in fowl before 6 o'clock on Saturday nights.

In Memoriam

PEDLER — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, John Pedler, who passed away September 1st, 1939.

Gone is the ace we loved so dear
Silent is the voice we loved to hear,
Too far away for sight or speach,
But not too far for thoughts to reach.

—Ever remembered by Wife and family.

Some economic experts are predicting a serious depression in 1948. Unless we keep humping there will be an even more serious depression in 1943.

NATIONAL SELECTIVE SERVICE

REGULATIONS

★ EFFECTIVE: SEPTEMBER 1, 1942

★ THOSE AFFECTED

ONE GROUP of regulations (A) applies to all workers, male and female, and their employers, except any persons employed:—

As female domestic servants in homes where there is not more than one servant employed; By a provincial government; As ministers, priests or clergymen; As professional engineers or science workers under the Wartime Bureau of Technical Personnel; In part-time subsidiary employment which is not a regular occupation;
In agriculture, hunting, fishing, trapping; As teachers; As nurses and probationers; In casual labour;
As students at work after school or on holidays other than long summer vacation.

The other Group (B) applies to all workers.

★ THE REGULATIONS

GROUP (A)

1. No worker may quit his job without giving his employer seven days' notice in writing.
2. No employer may lay-off or discharge any worker without seven days' notice in writing.
3. No employer may interview or engage any worker unless such worker has a permit to seek employment.
4. Permits to seek employment may be obtained from National Selective Service officers in Selective Service offices, formerly the local offices of the Unemployment Insurance Commission.

GROUP (B)

5. A National Selective Service officer has the power:
   (a) to order any person to report for an interview at the local office;
   (b) to order any person who has been unemployed seven days to take any suitable work; and
   (c) to order any partially employed person to take any suitable full-time work.
6. No person ordered by a National Selective Service officer to take a job may quit such job without permission of the officer.
7. When a worker has to travel to a distant job, the National Selective Service officer may pay the cost of transportation and certain other special allowances.
8. If a worker at the request of the National Selective Service officer changes from less to more essential work, he may claim re-instatement in his former job when the more essential work is finished.
9. Any employer, employee or other person who violates any provision of the regulations or any order made under them is liable to a fine not exceeding $500 or a jail term of not more than 12 months or both.

Note:—Agricultural workers may take seasonal or temporary employment outside agriculture with the consent of Selective Service Officers when such work will not interfere with farm production and by taking such work they will not lose their right to postponement of military service.

★ EMPLOYERS

Read the orders-in-council setting up the regulations and the Explanation of National Selective Service Regulations which can be obtained from Selective Service offices.

★ EMPLOYEES

Read the orders-in-council setting up the regulations and the Workers' Handbook which can be obtained from Selective Service offices or offices of trade unions.
