EVERYBODY LOVES THE SHIP'S MASCOT

Every fighting ship of Canada's ever-expanding Navy, seems to have a mascot of some kind. Many have dogs whose pedigree has long been forgotten like the pooch above. Subjected to all sorts of kindhearted rough and tumble treatment from the crew, they very often will never leave the ship when in port.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON 37

Joseph Sold Into Slavery

Genesis 37, 39-41

Printed Text, Genesis 37: 23-36

GOLDEN TEXT.—Love enviieth not. I Corinthians 13:4.

THE LESSON IN ITS SETTING

Time.—According to the commonly received chronology, Joseph became a slave in Potiphar's house in 1735 B.C., and suffered imprisonment 1725 B.C.

Place.—Joseph's home was in Hebron, in southern Palestine. He was sold into slavery at Dothan, thirteen miles north of Shechem, which itself was sixty miles from Hebron. The capital of Egypt at this time, where most of Joseph's years were spent, was Zoan, in the eastern part of the Nile delta.

Joseph Cast Into The Pit

23. "And it came to pass, when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they stripped Joseph of his coat, the coat of many colors that was on him; 24. and they took him, and cast him into the pit: and the pit was empty, there was no water in it." The tank into which Joseph's brethren cast him was apparently one of those huge reservoirs excavated by shepherds in the East, that they may have a supply of water for their flocks in the end of the dry season, when the running waters fail them. Being so narrow at the mouth that they can be covered by a single stone, they gradually widen and form a large subterranean room; and the facility they thus afford for the confinement of prisoners was from the first too obvious not to be commonly taken advantage of. In such a place was Joseph left to die.

The Plot Against Joseph

25. "And they sat down to eat bread: and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a caravan of Ishmaelites was coming from Gilead, with their camels bearing spicery and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt. 26. And Judah said unto his brethren, What profit is it if we slay our brother and conceal his blood? 27. Come, and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and let not our hand be upon him; for he is our brother, our flesh. And his brethren hearkened unto him." As these calloused, heartless men were sitting not far away from the pit, devouring the food brought by the faithful hands of Joseph from the father's home, they saw a band of Ishmaelites coming down upon them, and immediately they agreed to profit by their treatment of Joseph, and sell him as a slave to these Egypt-bound men.

Jacob Mourns For Joseph

28. "And there passed by Midianites, merchantmen; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. And they brought Joseph into Egypt. 29. And Reuben returned unto the pit; and, behold, Joseph was not in the pit; and he rent his clothes. 30. And he returned unto his brethren, and said, The child is not; and I, whither shall I go? 31. And they took Joseph's coat, and killed a he-goat, and dipped the coat in the blood; 32. and they sent the coat of many colors, and they brought it to their father, and said, This have we found: know now whether it is thy son's coat or not. 33. And he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat; an evil beast hath devoured him; Joseph is without doubt torn in pieces. 34. And Jacob rent his garments, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days. 35. And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted; and he said, For I will go down to Sheol to my son mourning. And his father wept for him."

Before these brethren left for home, they dipped Joseph's coat, which they took from him, into the blood of a newly slain kid, and in showing it to the father told him that this was what they had found, with the hope that the father would be persuaded, as he was, that Joseph had been slain by a wild beast. Wherever we find unkindness we are almost certain to find untruth. 'Kindness and truth' are wedded in Genesis (24:49; 47:29); they naturally draw to each other everywhere; there is a pre-established harmony between them. The same is true of their opposites. Jacob's sons, having sold their young brother, made it next to impossible for themselves to speak the truth. They had to concoct a story to account for his disappearance, and it was as audacious and cruel a falsehood as was ever uttered by human lips.

Joseph Sold Into Egypt

36. "And the Midianites sold him into Egypt unto Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh's, the captain of the guard." Potiphar was literally 'captain of the slaughterers' that is, 'the chief officer of the executioners.' The migration of Israel into Egypt had become necessary for three reasons: (1) That they might not excite the hostility of the Canaanites before they were strong enough to resist it. (2) That they might not adulterate their race and lose their distinctiveness by intermarriage with the Canaanites. (3) That they might by contact with a highly civilized people receive an education in arts and a discipline by law and government such as there was little prospect of their receiving in Canaan.

The Lord With Joseph

Joseph was the unconscious pioneer of this great movement. The young slave filled his position to the very utmost of his powers and abilities and we are not surprised to learn that 'the Lord was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man.' How could he be prosperous as a slave? The explanation is that prosperity is not due to circumstances but to character, and character in turn depends upon faithfulness to God.

His life soon became evident, for in some way or other his master observed that Joseph's powers must come from a Divine source. It is one of the finest results of true piety when those around us who may not be of our way of thinking, are enabled to see the reality of our life in our daily work and conduct.

U. S. To Call Men With Dependents

Brig.-Gen. Lewis B. Hershey of the United States army said recently that draft boards would begin calling men with dependents before Christmas.

The National Selective Service Director reiterated the order in which men with dependents would be called.

Single men with "secondary" dependents, such as aged or crippled relatives, would be called first, he said.

Next would come married men whose wives work, then men with dependent wives, and finally men with wives and children.

RADIO REPORTER

DIALING WITH DAVE:

CLAIRE WALLACE

If you hear a radio commentator telling all Canada why your next-door neighbor hasn't been home on wash days recently, or some equally intimate and local news behind the news, you'll be listening to "They Tell Me", with Canada's famous Claire Wallace. And if she does tell you about someone in your town, (maybe yourself) you can be sure that it is because there is a twist to the story that will interest every woman in Canada. Claire Wallace has risen to top rank in Canadian radio through more than seven years of continuous broadcasting. Now she broadcasts coast to coast in Canada for the first time. You can hear her on the CBC (CBL CKOC-CBO) daily at 1.45 p.m., Monday through Friday, right after the Happy Gang. Assisting is her indispensable announcer, the jovial Todd Russell, sometimes with news, sometimes with fun.

Those within range of the voice of CKOC in Hamilton, have been hearing a great deal about September on CKOC, and as the month progresses, the programs continue to appear. Already, the Happy Gang, Penny's Diary, Share the Wealth, Charlie McCarthy, Claire Wallace, and many others have joined the parade. Fred Allen is on his way, first Sunday in October — Blended Rhythm — Memoirs of Dr. Lambert are soon to appear. CKOC is particularly proud of a couple of it's daily broadcast periods — the first one is from 11.30 a.m. to 12.00 noon: at 11.30, the War-time Prices and Trade Board's "Soldier's Wife" show is broadcast, and is followed at 11.45 by "Telequiz", the phenomenal phone and letter locally produced quiz show that's the talk of the town. From one to two, the station offers a truly great hour, every Monday through Friday, featuring at one o'clock radio's greatest serial, NBC'S "Betty and Bob"; at 1.15 the "Happy Gang", and at 1.45 Claire Wallace in "They Tell Me!"

Prior to his first broadcast of the new season — last Sunday night at 8.00 o'clock, Edgar Bergen with his diamond studded dummies Charlie and Mortimer, took a flying trip to Alaska and entertained the boys of Canada and U.S. Originally scheduled for just a couple of shows, the boys had to hold over their dates for a much longer run. Bergen's wardrobe wasn't equal to the occasion, especially on one particularly cold night. A friendly Eskimo gave Edgar a smart 'parka' and all the trimmings. Publicity reports state "It saved Bergen's night!"

A few news notes of interest to Peninsula listeners: Dr. E. T. Salmon, whose widely listened to analyses on the world at war have become almost a 7.15 p.m. institution from CKOC, is now being heard at 7.00 p.m. — a quarter hour earlier. The schedule is the same — Monday through Friday.

The Lone Ranger, whose exploits of bravery — whose action-packed episodes have been 5.30 p.m. radio fare from CKOC for some time, take the evening 7.30 time, Monday through Friday.

Hit Parade favorites continue to parade over the air-lanes Sunday at 1.30 from CKOC. New favorites include two Irving Berlin hits —Left My Heart at the Stage Door Canteen, and Be Careful My Heart!

Bonds

To the bond of liberty that unites them, the fighting forces which attacked Dieppe have added the bond of danger shared, the bond of courage equally expressed, the bond of helpfulness mutually displayed, the bond of partnership in an historic occasion, the bond of great service to a great cause. It now remains for the home front to add to these bonds of war by buying more war bonds.

Riding A Bicycle Fifty Years Ago

A reader of this newspaper suggests that instructions on How to Ride a Bicycle would be useful to many persons at this time. Well, here is a bit of advice unearthed from a wheelman's magazine of 1891:

"The pedal should be pressed downward not with the heel or the instep, but with the toes and the ball of the foot, thus giving the ankle free play and producing the full development of the calf muscles of which the good rider is justly proud. In mounting the bicycle the gentleman has the left pedal up and slightly in advance of centre. Placing the left foot upon it, and clasping the handlebars, he throws his weight upon the left foot, swings the right leg easily over the rear wheel and settles into the saddle.

"In dismounting he checks the motion by letting the pedal on the upstroke lift his weight; at the same time his right leg describes a graceful arc above the rear wheel and comes to rest on the ground at the left.

"A lady must, of course, mount in different fashion. Stepping through the drop frame and making sure that her skirts are nicely draped about her ankles on either side, she lifts herself into the saddle by pushing down on the left pedal, in the same effort starting the bicycle in motion."

Says Mrs. William Brady, Pardee, Ontario: "We have no more use for harsh cathartics! When we found out about ALL-BRAN we knew we'd never go back to pills or powders any more. KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN is certainly the 'Better Way'!"

Why don't you buy KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN? Try ALL-BRAN'S "Better Way" to correct the cause of constipation due to lack of the right kind of "bulk" in your diet. But remember, ALL-BRAN doesn't work like cathartics. It takes time. Get ALL-BRAN at your grocer's, in two convenient size packages, or ask for the individual serving package at restaurants. Made by Kellogg's in London, Canada.
