

DENTAL.—Dr. Neelands, dentist, of Lindsay, will be at the McArthur House on Monday, April 20th, on the arrival of the train, and remain Tuesday. He will have a complete gas outfit for extracting teeth. Call early and secure an appointment.

WATCH for the bargains in Mrs. McDougall's windows on Saturday.

MAPLE SUGAR AT HOME.—A warm maple sugar "At Home" will be held in Twomey's hall this evening (Friday), under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church. Doors open at 7 o'clock. Maple sugar and other refreshments will be served from 7:30 to 8 o'clock. Amusements will be provided, and a programme of music, readings, recitations and short speeches by the resident ministers will be presented. A first-class time is expected, and everybody is cordially invited. Admission, 15 cents.

A special line of Hats to be sold cheap on Saturday, at Mrs. R. McDougall's.

PERSONALS.—Miss Speers, who has lived for a long time at Mr. Aldous's, left on Monday for Toronto. Mr. James Tugman, who has been at the Falls for about two months, left yesterday (Thursday) for Detroit, Michigan. Miss Mahar of Lindsay was on a visit to her friend Miss Sullivan at the Falls from Saturday last until Tuesday. The Messrs. Pearce, lumber merchants, &c., of Marmora, were at the Falls on Wednesday attending the funeral of their late book-keeper, Mr. Henry Junkin.

WHY WEAR YOUR OLD HAT when you can get a new one so cheap and pretty at Mrs. R. McDougall's?

ACCIDENT.—To make room for the new track being laid in Howry & Sons' lumber yard a good deal of brush has to be cut and hauled away, and on Tuesday afternoon Mr. Thos. Johnston (of Fenelon) while binding or unbinding a load of it, accidentally dropped the pole, which fell on top of Mr. Chas. Harling's head, inflicting a gash which bled profusely for a considerable time. After it stopped Mr. Harling was persuaded to go home, though he wanted to resume work; but he only lost about two hours, as he was back again next morning.

A FALL.—Mr. Thomas Roberts is building a woodshed at the rear of his house on Colborne street, and on Tuesday last while he and his brother-in-law, Mr. John Swanton, were passing each other on a light scaffold which had been erected, the structure gave way, and they both fell to the ground, a distance of about twelve feet. Mr. Swanton escaped with slightly bruised ribs, but Mr. Roberts's left leg was so badly hurt below the knee that he has been confined to the house ever since, and today (Thursday) we are sorry to hear that his foot is so badly swollen that he is hardly able to put it to the ground.

DAINTY SPRING HATS in the latest styles and patterns, at Mrs. R. McDougall's.

CUT HIS FOOT.—Mr. Andrew Torrance's second son, Harry, hired a short time ago at Mr. John Flett's in Somerville, and on Wednesday of last week a rather sharp axe with which he was splitting wood passed entirely through a pine stick, cut his left foot near the instep and inflicted a wound about an inch and a half long and an inch deep in his foot. As he did not return home to the Falls until the afternoon of Thursday, the edges of the wound were so much swollen that stitches could not be put in, but Dr. Wilson dressed and bandaged it, and Harry was only laid up for three or four days.

My stock is well chosen and the best to be had in Fenelon Falls. Mrs. R. McDougall.

BLOOD POISONING.—On Tuesday of last week Mr. Wm. McIntosh, who was working at Four Mile Lake, felt something prick the ball of the second finger of his left hand; but upon looking to see what had hurt him, he noticed nothing but what looked like minute fibres of wood. He then picked at the spot with a needle, which may possibly have been the cause of the swelling that followed, and became so bad next day that he came home to the Falls and put himself under the care of Dr. Graham. In spite of all that could be done the swelling and discoloration gradually crept up his arm until within a short distance of his shoulder, when the remedies began to take effect, and since Wednesday he has been able to be out, though he still carries his arm in a sling. During the first two or three days he suffered a great deal of pain, and there is no doubt that for a time his life was in considerable danger.

A QUIET WEDDING.—The Toronto Telegram of March 26 says:—At the residence of the bride's brother last evening, Miss Katharine H. Wood, of Toronto, was married to Mr. J. Albert Martin. The wedding was a quiet one, only the relatives and intimate friends of the parties being present. Rev. W. M. Rochester announced the culmination of the marriage vows. Miss Jennie Smith was bridesmaid and Mr. B. E.

Wood supported the groom. A number of handsome presents testified to the esteem in which the young couple are held. To-day the happy twain left for Winnipeg, the home of Mr. Martin, where he is one of the rising young builders of that city. Both the groom and bride were at one time residents of Fenelon Falls, the former being a son of Mr. Geo. E. Martin, and the latter a daughter of Mr. B. W. Wood, for some years principal of the public school here.

Five years after a fall through a skylight, Daniel McCarthy of New York was operated upon, and a three-inch piece of glass taken out of his arm.

J. C. Kissing, a successful farmer and banker of Butler county, Pennsylvania, is the father of thirty-four children—nineteen by his first wife and fifteen by a second.

Mr. John Robertson, a brother of Prof. Robertson, Dominion Agricultural Commissioner, has just arrived from Scotland, for the purpose of arranging, on behalf of large firms or provision dealers in the old country, for regular shipments of Canadian butter and cheese to Great Britain.

CORRESPONDENCE.

"Where Are They At?"

To the Editor of the Fenelon Falls Gazette.

Sir,—

The Patrons have issued what they call a handbook introducing "facts and figures in support of the Patron platform and principles." In this pamphlet the greater part of the abuses complained of by Reformers are strongly condemned by the Patrons, but in some things they seem to go to extreme lengths, the most absurd being the abolition of Government House at Ottawa and of the mounted police of the Northwest Territories, except in unorganized districts. The Military College at Kingston is also to be abolished, and the expenditure on the militia force in the Dominion in time of peace shall be limited to $30,000; but the following "General Remarks on Expenditure" on page 13, if carried out to their legitimate issue, would not only cut off all possible means of spending public money wrongfully, but would necessitate the doing of all, or nearly all, public business by officials willing to work for no reward except the smiles of an approving conscience and the applause of the Patrons:—

"It is impossible within the limits of a pamphlet to point out all the items of expenditure in which a saving might be effected or an abuse exists. The Patron stump speaker can readily discover many for himself; those just given will supply him, however, with cogent texts. The case can be made all the stronger by dwelling on the rapid growth of the expenditure in recent years, as shown by comparing one year with another and contrasting it with the slow growth of population. Let it be said again, no reform is so urgently needed in Canada as a reduction in the cost of government in all three spheres, federal, provincial and municipal. There is a swarm of departmental officials at Ottawa and a still greater swarm of outside federal officials, judges, customs and revenue officers, postmasters, fishery officers, Indian agents, canal employees, railroad employees and so on; there is another host of well paid clerks in the eight local machines, and still another of county attorneys, jail and asylum officials, division court clerks and bailiffs, sheriffs, registrars, license inspectors, school teachers, coroners, etc., and below or behind these the tremendous host of municipal officials; our 700 legislators are increased to several thousand by the county, city, town, village and township councils of which Ontario alone contains 800; while high over all, amid their archaic state and trappings, sit the Governor-General and Lieutenant-Governors with their considerable retinue, the whole constituting a hierarchy of tax-handlers such as no other five million people on earth have to support out of moderate resources. It is not 'revolutionary' for Patrons to declare that this immense edifice of officialdom ought to be reduced to a footing somewhat in keeping with our means and requirements."

Heaven preserve Canada from falling under the power of such "root and branch" men as these. We may well enquire where they got such almost divine inspiration. May we not safely conclude that we are drawing very near communism? What next will have to be abolished?

Yours, etc.,

COMMON SENSE.
