Kinmount.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Rev. Joseph Munt will preach his farewell sermon in the Baptist church on Sunday evening, March 27th.

We are patiently waiting to hear the familiar buzz from Messrs. Craig & Austin's saw-mill.

The prospects for maple syrup making are not so good as they were a year ago, but quite a number in this neighborhood are doing their best to sweeten this world with the help of the maple trees.

The public library of our town is going to have an entertainment and basket social on Wednesday evening, March 30th, for the purpose of raising money to buy books. An auction sale of magazines and papers is advertised for the following night.

J. F. Morzan, High Vice-Chief Ranger of the Independent Order of Foresters, visited the Kinmount Court on Thursday night.

Mr. A. Clark, of Fenelon Falls, took his monthly trip on the Haliburton and Lindsay railway this month, and spent Tuesday in Kinmount.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—McDougall, Brandon & Austin have built a wide verandah on the north and west sides of the stone mill, as a shelter for farmers and their teams and vehicles in wet weather. Hitherto loading or unloading has often had to be done in a heavy rain, and the protection afforded by the verandah will be greatly appreciated.

THE MILLS.—The shingle department of Mr. Burgoyne's mill has been in operation for about a fortnight, and the season's work in the Howry mill will commence on April 4th. The stave factory will be ready to start by the 1st of April, Friday next. Some of Mr. John A. Ellis's men left on Tuesday for Pine Lake, to bring down 5,000 logs he has there, but when they will reach his mill depends, of course, on when the ice breaks up.

WAGON FOR SALE. Heavy three-spring wagon, would make first-class milk wagon, for sale cheap. Apply to JOHN JONES.

APPOINTMENT.—Mr. H. J. Lytle of Fenelon Falls has been appointed manager of the Lindsay branch of the Ontario Bank, and will consequently remove with his family to the county town. He and they, during their residence of about four years in the village, have made many friends, by whom their departure will be much regretted. We congratulate Mr. Lytle upon his appointment to a responsible and lucrative position, which we feel sure he will well and worthily fill.

SAFE SO FAR.—When the snow all goes as early as it did this year, there is great danger of the fall wheat and clover being killed by frost, but we are glad to hear that they are safe so far, and hope they will pull through all right, though the danger of a fatal degree of cold is not yet over. Day by day the weather is becoming more springlike, and several other kinds of birds are here in considerable numbers, and some of the village cows are roaming around going through the motions of grazing, though they won't be able to get a bite of grass in much less than a week.

A Sunderland lady writes Dr. Neelands that he had made her a successful fit after having eight sets of teeth made in Toronto and elsewhere.—431f GOT WET.—Last Friday Messrs. Arthur McClelland and Robert Farrell went across Cameron Lake to put the ice-boat into summer quarters and bring the sail back with them to the Falls; and when near Dhiel's Point, on the return trip, the ice broke under Mr. Farrell's feet and let him into the water, which was too deep for him to "bottom" it. Mr. McClelland went to his companion's assistance, and, while trying to rescue him, fell in twice himself, in consequence of the ice breaking; but the second time he got out where it was strong enough to bear, and then managed to pull Mr. Farrell out also. Fortunately both young men could swim, and escaped with nothing worse than an immersion rather longer than was pleasant with the water at so low a temperature.

Aldous, O. G.

FOOT BALL NOTES.—On Monday evening a meeting of the Fenelon Fall football club was called, when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Hon. President, John A. Ellis, Esq.; President and Manager, W. T. Junkin, Esq.; Vice-President, Joe Robson, Esq.; Captain, C. Moore; Vice-Captain, W. Ellis; Sec.-Treas., R. S. Rowland; Managing Committee, Jos. Boyce, Joe Walsh, Geo. Ingram and Ed. Beteau.

BAD ACCIDENT.—On Sunday morning Albert Wray, aged about 18 years, son of Mr. Wm. Wray, of Verulam, met with a very serious accident while on his way to feed some cattle on a farm nearly a mile from that on which the family reside. As the road for part of the distance runs through a swamp, it was the habit of the young man to take a rifle with him on working days, though he had never before taken it with him on a Sunday, and why he did so on this occasion we have not heard. After carrying it part of the way, he decided to leave it until he returned, and, while he was looking for a good place to put it, the charge, from some reason, exploded, and the ball passed through the palm of his left hand, which was over the muzzle of the rifle at the time. Dr. Wilson, who was sent for as soon as young Wray got home, tells us that the wound was a terribly bad one, there being, literally, a hole nearly two inches in diameter through the hand, which is not likely ever to recover its full usefulness. The doctor dressed and bound up the wound, and next day the patient was doing as well as could be expected so soon after so serious an accident.

The California orchards have been badly nipped by frost.

Amboy, a town on the island of Amboy, one of the Malaccas, was completely destroyed by an earthquake. Sixty persons were killed.

A mad dog bit a small boy at Canfield, and also bit a horse and a dog belonging to Mr. John Humphries of Cayuga. The horse and dog were shot.

The Birmingham, England, Gazette asserts that a Russian spy, in the guise of a footman, has been discovered at Hatfield, the Marquis of Salisbury's residence.

A negro named Chalmers and his white wife were attacked at Wyhark, I. T., on Sunday night and were shot, both eventually dying. One of the white men has also been found dead.

A terrible explosion took place on March 9th in the Santa Isabel Mine at Bermeo, Province of Cordova, Spain. Sixty corpses have already been recovered, and many men are as yet unaccounted for.

A bootmaker at Chemnitz, Saxony, advertised in the papers that on a certain day he would present all comers with a pair of slippers. His rivals were seriously alarmed at this, and they applied for an injunction, restraining him from carrying out his intention, on the ground of "unfair competition." The injunction was granted.

Muskoka bears are becoming disgustingly tame. Recently a lumber foreman and teamster followed the track of one and came upon Bruin standing at the foot of a tree. Instead of attacking the men, he allowed them to put a strap around his neck and lead him to camp.

The New Zealand "Schoolmaster" tells this amusing story. The head teacher in a Sunday school was much worried by the noise of the scholars in the room next to him. At last, unable to bear it any longer, he mounted a chair and looked over the partition dividing the two rooms to see who the offenders were. Seeing one boy a little taller than the others talking a great deal, he leant over, seized the boy by the collar, lifted him over the partition and banged him into a chair in his room, saying: "Now, be quiet." He then resumed his lesson until about a quarter of an hour later, when he saw a small head appear around the door and a meek little voice said: "Please, sir, you've got our teacher."

According to the correspondent of a London paper the Germans are pretty advanced in the suppression of unnecessary noises. Berlin leads the van. Railway engines are not allowed to blow their whistles within the city limits. There is no loud bawling by hucksters, and a man whose wagon gear is loose and rattling is subject to a fine. The courts have a large discretion as to fines for noise making. Strangest of all, piano-playing is regulated in Berlin. Before a certain hour in the day and after a certain hour in the night the piano must be silent in that musical city. Even during playing hours a fine is imposed for mere banging on the piano. If a dog barks unnecessarily his owner is notified to muzzle him or kill him. The only man in Germany allowed to make all the noise he likes is the Kaiser.

TWO WAYS.

Of getting glasses. One to go to a first-class optician, have your eyes properly tested and get what you need—the other to go to a merchant who keeps spectacles, make a "grab in the bag," as it were, get a pair that don't fit you (although it may seem so for the moment), and run the risk of ruining your eyesight entirely.

We are careful and accurate in our examinations, and advise you the safe and most comfortable course to pursue. Examinations free.
