Miss Legate of Durham visited her niece, Mrs. R. H. Wright, last week.

Miss Gladys Kindree of Blenheim is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H.S. White.

Mr. Herb Thomas of Collingwood visited with friends here for a couple of days during the past week.

Misses Annie Betts and Jenny Roy attended the Baptist Association in Owen Sound last week from Rock Mills.

A number of Fleshertonians, attended the Conservative convention in Durham on Friday.

The Ladies' Aid of Maxwell Presbyterian church will hold a garden party on Mr. E. McCallum's lawn on Tuesday, July 7. Further particulars later.

Dr. Ernest Armstrong, Cobalt; Mrs. Aikenhead, the Misses Ruby and Lydia Aikenhead, and Mr. Alan Keith, Toronto spent the week end in town, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hickling.

The annual district meeting of Centre Grey Women's Institute will be held in Clayton's hall, Flesherton, Thursday, June 18, at 1.30 p. m.

C. W. Ramage of Durham is contesting this riding against Dr. Jamieson, the government candidate. H. H. Miller of Hanover was again nominated to contest the riding in the Dominion election in Reform interests.

Cards are out announcing the coming marriage of Miss Daisy Kernahan, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kernahan, Feversham, to Mr. James Douglass Leggatt of Gibraltar, the ceremony to take place on Tuesday, June 23.

We mentioned a short time ago that Mr. Nat Caswell had discovered a wild duck's nest and secured five eggs which he placed under a hen. All five eggs are hatched, and Nat is now bringing up his young brood in the somewhat circumscribed paths of civilization.

So far as this county is concerned the candidates are now in the field for the coming election. In North Grey it is Cameron, Con., and Rogers, Temperance and Reform; Centre Grey is Hon. I. B. Lucas, Con., and G. Albery, Reform. At a largely attended convention on Friday last in Durham, Dr. Jamieson was again nominated as Conservative standard bearer, and he will be opposed by C. W. Ramage of the Durham Review.

After undergoing some extensive repairs, including a new roof and inside painting and graining, the Baptist chapel was reopened on Sunday with two services. Rev. Mullowney of Owen Sound was to have conducted these opening services, but owing to illness in his family was unable to be present, and the regular pastor had to take charge.

The Hyland Construction Co., who have the contract of building the smaller dam, the pipe way and foundation of the power house for the Hydro Electric Commission at Eugenia, are getting in large numbers of workmen, teams, machinery and supplies, and purpose pushing their end of the work in the most speedy manner possible. Only men and teams that can stay with them to the end will be engaged. A large number of foreigners are now on the work and are camped at Campbell's road, a mile north of Eugenia.

Mr. Wideman, driver of the Feversham stage, left his team standing in front of the postoffice one day last week while he delivered the mail. The animals took a notion to run away, and after going only a few feet attempted to pass one on each side of a telephone poll. Both animals were thrown heavily to the ground and one of them was quite badly injured. A livery animal had to be requisitioned to complete the trip. This runaway was probably the shortest on record that in the same time did so much damage.

Mrs. A. S. Vandusen of Flesherton and her sister, Mrs. George Webb of Uxbridge, formerly of Owen Sound, are visitors of the former's son, Mr. J. F. Vandusen. Mrs. Vandusen's and Mrs. Webb's maiden name was Gimby, and Dr. Edwin Gimby, who practised here for several years, is a nephew of theirs.—Chesley Enterprise

Mr. J. W. Greenwood of Novar, near Burk's Falls, advises us that he will preach in the Methodist church on Sunday evening next. This week he is attending Conference in Toronto, and wishes to run up and see his parents and friends before again going north. He has passed his examinations on the field this year, and intends going on probation before attending college. "The Anguish of a Human Heart" will be his subject on Sunday.—Durham Chronicle

The Methodist Ladies Aid campaign for funds, involving an invitation to old members and adherents of the church who have moved to foreign parts has produced some good things of a responsive nature in the way of letters as well as donations. We have been pleased to get our clutches on two of these and hope for more before the campaign closes. The ladies have also supplied us with the names of those who have responded during the past week as follows:

Mrs. Sproule and Miss Lulu Bradley Ottawa; Mrs. Stephens, Collingwood; Miss E. Wardrobe, Alf. Wardrobe, Mrs. A. Carter, H. Hooper, Mrs Spence, Mrs. Nichol, Mrs. McIntyre, and Mrs. Petch, Toronto; Mrs. J. Walker, Markdale; Mrs. A. Reid, Guelph; Mrs. H. V. Gaudin, Heathcote; W. Irwin, Durham; Mrs. Scott, Hanover; Mr. J. S. Pedlar, Loop City; R. N. Henderson, Winnipeg; Mrs. G. Cairns, Ceylon; J. W. Greenwood, Novar; Rev. Green, Clinton; J. G. Russell, Parkhill; E. D. LeGard, Glenside, Sask.; Mrs. A. Beecroft, Victoria, B. C.; Miss Shore, Caledon; Mrs. A. Parker, Buffalo; Mrs. H. Van-Tassel, Bloomfield; Mrs. Geo. Keefer, Bloomfield, Mrs. A. E. Cox, Toronto.

A plan of a permanent laying house for poultry, with brief description and an estimate of material required for the house as planned, is contained in pamphlet No. 5 of the Poultry Division of the Live Stock Branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture. This plan has been specially prepared for use in the province of Prince Edward Island by W. A. Drown and T. A. Benson. However, it includes a number of features which, in the opinion of the writers, could be advantageously adopted throughout the greater part of the Dominion of Canada. Copies of this pamphlet may be obtained free upon application to the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Convention Call

A temperance convention for South Grey is to be called in Durham on Friday, June 19, at 1.30 p. m. Rev. John Muir of Toronto and others, will speak. The business of the meeting is to:—

1.—Reorganize the election of officers.
2.—Survey of the field.
3.—Consideration of political action.

First Draft of Stations

The first draft of the Stationing Committed, presented to Toronto conference of the Methodist church, is as follows for Owen Sound and Collingwood districts:

Collingwood—Collingwood First, H Harper, M A, Ph.D; Second, J A Peacock; Thornbury, E W McBrien; Meaford, J S Cook, Ph.D; St Vincent, G Lawrence. Woodford, W M Gaudin; Heathcote, H E W Kemp; Ravenna, E R Brown; Maxwell, James Phimister; Singhampton, J F G Morris: Stayner, P McKee.

The Toronto Methodist Conference went on record as opposing Sunday golf, motoring and teas.

Mr. Ramage's Meeting

Mr. Ramage of Durham, the Liberal candidate for South Grey in the coming election, opened his campaign in the town hall here Monday evening, when a very fair number was present. Mr. Ramage was accompanied by Rev. Prudham, Methodist minister of Durham, and while these two were the main speakers of the evening and received a good hearing, they were followed by P. McCullough of Markdale, J. Boland and Rev. McVicar.

The candidate's address created a good impression here. The speaker had been a temperance man all his life and was in hearty accord with the Rowell policy of abolishing the bar. He went over the history of temperance movement in Ontario and showed how, when Mr. Whitney refused advanced legislation, the churches and temperance bodies had gone to Mr. Rowell, and that gentleman had accepted their program.

Rev. Prudham had always been and had always voted Conservative, but in this case his conscience would not allow him to support a party which was being supported by the liquor interests. He made a strong appeal to church members and temperance men to support the Reform candidate in this instance.

Mr. McCullough made a capital short address, handling the question from an economic standpoint.

Mr. Boland touched on some of what he called Mr. Whitney's shortcomings, such as his refusal to give tax reform, his failure to abolish treating, etc.

Mr. McVicar spoke as a citizen, not as a minister, and made it quite clear where he stood in a moral question of this kind.

During the course of the evening the million dollar government house in Toronto came in for some hard knocks.

The chair was very acceptably filled by Mr. John McMillian. There was a sprinkling of ladies present and all seemed much interested in what the speakers had to say.

The other side will be heard in the town hall here on Friday evening of this week.
