James Radley and wife of Ceylon were up before Magistrates McMullen and McGill on Friday evening, charged with having liquor for sale. H. G. Tucker, the solicitor for the defence, persuaded their honours to adjourn the case until the 26th inst., in order that the Department in Toronto might decide certain points. It appears that a case of liquor came addressed to Mr. Radley, and the inspector on making an investigation found the case empty with the exception of two bottles. The case comes up again on Friday of this week.

Mr. Will Flynn had a narrow escape from instant death on Monday. He was handling a load of baled hay at the livery stable, when he fell out of the open door and brought up with head down and heels in the air just behind the horses' heels. His head came within an ace of striking a sharp bolt holding the doubletree in place. Had he struck this he would never have known what happened. As it was there were no bones broken, although it was a severe wrench to both muscles and bones. The fall was about eight feet.

Mr. Bert Jamieson of Flesherton, who has been up in the Porcupine district, met with a serious accident last week. He has this spring been running a gasoline launch on the Matagami river. Something went wrong with the engine and Bert shut off the gasoline when an explosion occurred. Bert was thrown into the river but managed to swim ashore where he was found unconscious by a couple of men, and carried to camp and the services of a doctor secured. He was badly burned about the head and arms. He does not remember swimming ashore or anything that happened immediately after the explosion. We hope to hear of his speedy recovery.

W. I. District Meeting

The annual district meeting of Centre Grey Women's Institute was held in Clayton's hall, Flesherton, last Thursday. A large delegation was present from Vandeleur, Eugenia, Kimberley, Dundalk, Priceville, Hopeville, Heathcote, Ravenna and Clarksburg.

The meeting was opened by singing a hymn composed by Mrs. W. Buchanan of Ravenna, President of the district, after which she gave her address. She said that owing to her long illness she was not able to visit the Branches, but in company with Mrs. R. Best, Mrs. Teeter, Flesherton, and Mrs. Genoe, Vandeleur, had interviewed the County Council with reference to securing a larger grant, and was only partially successful as they were granted $25 instead of $100, for which they asked. The Vice President had made a few visits. She mentioned Mill Creek Branch as being enthusiastic, though small numerically.

The Secretary gave an itemized report from each Branch, showing number of members, attendance, amounts raised, expenses and amounts on hand, proving that the Women's Institutes in Centre Grey are in a healthy condition.

Mrs. Haskett Markdale, gave an excellent paper on "Women's work in the twentieth century." By request of the District Mrs. Haskett will give this paper at the County Convention which will be held in Chatsworth on Thursday Aug. 20. Mrs. R. H. Moore, the newly appointed Secretary, stated that Mr. Putnam had secured the service of Dr. Edna Smillie for that date.

Mrs. Findlay of Hopeville gave a well prepared paper on "Boys in the Home"; in too many homes the boys are neglected until too late. We hope that all mothers who heard that paper read will profit by the suggestions given.

An invitation was sent to the W. I asking them to go to the Township Hall to listen to an address by the Department delegate, all who had not a vote accepted the invitation, while the delegates remained and re-elected the officers namely. Pres., Mrs. W. Buchanan, Ravenna; Vice President, Mrs. B. Carruthers, Kimberley; Sec-Treas., Mrs. J. B. Egan, Dundalk.

Miss Marsh of Clarksburg brought a most courteous and cordial invitation from her Branch to meet in their picturesque village next year. Some thought that Clarksburg was too far away, until they were reminded that Clarksburg is no farther from Flesherton than Flesherton was from Clarksburg and four ladies were present from the latter place. The invitation was accepted.

The F. I. and W. I met at the Methodist Church where a sumptuous supper was spread and fully two hundred satisfied the inner man.
