Meldrum-Pedlar

A pretty June wedding took place on Tuesday, 23rd inst., at the home of the bride's parents, when Dora Augusta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pedlar, "Cedar Brook Farm," Flesherton, was united in marriage to Mr. Cecil Dean Meldrum of Toronto, the officiating clergyman being Rev. Kerr, Flesherton, while Mrs. Fred Bunt, aunt of the bride, played the wedding march. The ceremony was performed under an arch of evergreens and flowers on the lawn in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore white satin draped with shadow lace, and trimmed with beading. She wore a veil fastened with bridal wreath while she carried a bouquet of roses, with little Iva Wickens, niece of the bride, acting as flower girl. At six o'clock the happy young couple joined hands and hearts for life. The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond ring. The presents were numerous and useful.

Guests from a distance were, Mr. and Mrs. R. Meldrum and Mrs. Fred Bunt of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Pedlar, Markdale; Mrs. Plewes, Avening; Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith, Rob Roy; and Mr. and Mrs. W. Clinton, Feversham.

The evening was pleasantly spent in instrumental music by Geo. Pedlar, Roy Pedlar and J. McKee.

After visiting among their friends the young couple intend making their home in Toronto. We all extend heartiest congratulations and best wishes.

A few weeks ago Tom Lonsway was sentenced to four months in the county gaol for a breach of the Liquor License Act. But Tom failed to appear, and the sentence was awaiting him. The local guardians of the peace thought Tom just couldn't stay away—and they were right. When one of the local steamers came in last night, Tom was thought to be aboard and would visit his wife. After keeping an eye on the wanted man's house for some time he appeared and found a warm welcome from the local police. The next four months will be spent at Castle Miller.—O. S. Advertiser.

Newell---Betts

An interesting and pretty Wedding took place on Wednesday, June 24, at six o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Betts, Rock Mills, when their second daughter, Reta Clara, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Newell of Durham. The wedding March was played by Miss Jennie Roy, while the bridal party entered the parlor, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. R. C. Kerr. The bride's dress was of cream beaded shaddow lace over pink satin, the veil being held in place by a wreath of Orange Blossoms. She wore the groom's gift, a pearl sunburst, and carried a bouquet of primroses and ferns, making a charming picture against a background of ferns and flowers She was attended by her cousin, Miss Mae Binnington of Maxwell. After heartiest congratulations were extended all repaired to the dining room where supper was served. The bride was the recipitent of many beautiful gifts. A number of guests from a distance attended the wedding.

Leggatt-Kernahan

The marriage was solemnized on Tuesday morning, June 23rd, at the home of the bride, Feversham, of Miss Daisy Kathleen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kernahan, to Mr. James Douglas Leggatt of Gibraltar. Rev. Jas. Phimister of Maxwell performed the ceremony assisted by Rev. Jas. Douglas of Edmonton in the presence of about sixty guests. Mrs. Wolfe of Toronto rendered Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The bride, who was given away by her father, was gowned in cream brocaded charmeusse satin with silk shadow lace trimmings and wore a veil caught with orange blossoms and carried white roses and lilies of the valley. Little Miss Thelma Wolfe made a pretty little flower girl, carrying a large basket of white sweet peas and lilies of the valley. After the usual congratulations the wedding dinner was served in the dining room, which was beautifully decorated in the colors of the daisy, green, white and yellow ribbons and roses. A toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Mr. Phimister and was responded to by Rev. Mr. Douglas and the father of the bride. The young couple left on the afternoon train for Hamilton and other points, the bride travelling in a brown suit and tan tailored hat. The groom's gifts were—to the bride a gold watch and chain, to the flower girl a gold ring, and to the organist a gold brooch. The editor joins their host of friends in wishing them a long, joyous journey through life.

Strange Cattle Disease

George Coutts, a well known farmer in Melancthon, north of Riverview, has lost during the past month seventeen head of cattle and another is ill at the time of writing this notice, says the Shelburne Free Press. Dr. C. L. Morgan of Shelburne was sent for after two deaths had occurred. He had never seen any disease like it and thought it was caused by local conditions. He ordered the cattle removed from the low field where they were pasturing to another part of the farm. He reported the matter to the Dominion Government and Dr. Henderson was sent up. He also was unable to diagnose the disease. A few days later Dr. Oliver came up for the government and he also was baffled with the case. Last week Dr. Stork was sent out and he too, is as much at sea as those who, preceded him. Samples of blood from two animals were sent to Toronto and Ottawa for analysis. The report from each place says: "The blood submitted for examination did not contain anthrax baccili or those of symptomatic anthrax." The symptoms, when taken ill, appear to be exactly the same. The animal at first has a watery discharge from the eyes. In the course of 24 hours the discharge becomes pus-like and a discharge commences from both nostrils. The next stage is in the course of 36 hours, the animal becomes paralyzed and death takes place in from three to five days. Dr. Stork, when here last week, took away the head of an animal that died that day. It was taken to Ottawa for examination. Mr. Coutts has had the best attention from the government, and as it appears to be an infectious disease, the farmers in that vicinity are getting very anxious about the matter.

Newspaper Postage

Newspaper publishers and subscribers are now up against it good and hard. The Postoffice Department has forwarded a circular to publishers, stating that a rate of one quarter of a cent per copy will be imposed on all papers delivered by carrier. On others the old rate will remain the same. Just how the plan will be worked out is not made clear, and it offers many difficulties and much hardship on publishers. Referring to the recent action of the Senate in rejecting the Bill recently passed in the Commons the circular goes on to say:

"As a result of this action on the part of the Senate, there is nothing now to do but to enforce the law as it stands on the Statute book. This means that the ¼c. rate will prevail as heretofore on papers not delivered by letter carrier, but where letter carrier delivery is in operation, a separate charge of not more than 1 cent a copy will be made for the delivery of newspapers by carrier. This is under Section 71 of the Post Office Act, which provides that an amount not exceeding 1 cent shall be paid for the delivery of each newspaper by carrier.

"As regards the ¼c. rate, the law is that this rate shall be for each pound weight or any fraction of a pound weight, that is, ¼c. must be paid for each copy. The law does not establish a bulk rate of postage, and this question of ¼c. for each copy must now be met. The whole question of the conveyance of newspapers by post will now have to receive immediate consideration."
