Sad Drowning of Young Englishman at Omeme Last Evening--Body Still Lost

From Friday's Daily

A young Englishman named Robert Fullis, who lives in Omeme, has been missing since last night, and the probability is that he is drowned in Pigeon Creek. Every circumstance in the case makes this a very serious matter, and the search for his body is being pushed with all possible speed.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. T. Palmer met the missing man, who said that he was going swimming. He had a swimming suit under his arm, and was walking towards the creek. Fullis has not been seen since.

This morning the young Englishman's clothes were found on the bank of the stream, and all hope of seeing him alive has been given up. A young wife and two small children are half-demented with grief at the loss of a husband and a father. Alarmed at his non-return last night, they gave the alarm, and most of the villagers turned out last night and assisted in the search. High and low the searchers hunted, but no trace was discovered of the missing one till this morning, when the clothes on the bank told the sad story.

Pigeon Creek is from 12 to 15 feet deep at the place where Fullis had gone for a swim. He is an expert swimmer, and had stated previously that he would enter the races to be held in Omeme on Monday next. He had been ill and off work for a few days and said he was going to practise yesterday.

The victim of this fourth drowning accident that has occurred in this neighborhood during the last few weeks, is a well-respected young man. He was a tanner by trade and has been out to this country for about a year and a half.

That he took cramps or was suddenly struck with an attack of heart failure while in the water is the theory advanced by many, as to the cause of the drowning. His illness during the few days previous to yesterday makes this not improbable.

Fullis had joined the Canadian Order of Foresters about a month previous to his disappearance, and his life was insured. The search for the body was still in progress at the time of going to press.

TOWN AND VICINITY

1,300 SETTLEMENT

A settlement has been reached with the Grand Trunk in the Stubbins case. The settlement reached was for $1,300, which was offered by the railway. As the costs of court would have eaten up the balance it was deemed advisable by the plaintiffs to accept the offer. Mr. R. J. McLaughlin, K.C., acted for the plaintiffs.

NEW WONDERLAND.

Mr. Wallace J. Lamb, who recently purchased the grocery business of Messrs. Corscadden & Mullen, as decided to open up an up-to-date amusement house, commonly known as Wonderland but which will be called the Lyceum. Mr. Lamb has had considerable experience in this line, having conducted a Wonderland in Peterboro. He intends to put in up-to-date pictures and will be on the New York circuit; thus he will be in close touch with the latest moving picture novelties.

SECURED WORK.

A number of young men who have been looking for work for some time were fortunate enough to secure a day's employment at unloading a car for Rider & Kitchener's this morning.

SCOWLOAD OF EXCELSIOR.

The "Island Queen," the steamer of "Hank" Austin, of the Falls, brought a scowload of excelsior to the Rider & Kitchener mills yesterday from Cameron Lake.

WATER IS GOOD.

Sanitary Inspector Douglas has received the results of an analysis on a bottle of water taken from the market fountain. The Provincial analyst, who analyzed the water, declares it to be pure.

BUYING CATTLE.

Mr. George Graham is at present buying cattle for his new ranch. Mr. Graham bought over one hundred fine beasts last week. The ranch is situated near Kirkfield.

A NEAT UNIFORM.

The clerks in the Bank of Montreal have adopted a nifty semi-uniform for the summer months. It consists of light khaki coats, and the boys look real cute, to use a feminine expression.

THE BEAVER BUSY.

The tow-boat "Beaver" left for Kirkfield with a scow of lumber and shingles. Mr. McKenzie is building a new summer cottage at that place, and the building material will be used for this purpose.

DONE SEEDING.

The farmers around Bobcaygeon are practically done seeding. The same can be said of the farmers around Lindsay. We don't wish to say that Lindsay is a wet town and "Caygen" isn't.

A BAD EYE.

Mr. Alf. Robinson, a well known resident of the town, is at present suffering from inflammation in his right eye. Mr. Robinson has been off work for some time, and being an active man is very impatient to return to it.

A FAST YACHT.

Mr. Wm. Sadler has installed a new engine in his steam launch, "Marguerite." This engine is much more powerful than its predecessor, and on the trial trip simply ran away with the wheel. Mr. Sadler is now under the necessity of getting a new and larger wheel.

BURNT RIVER DEAL.

Mr. B. C. Miller and Son, merchants of Burnt River, have sold out their general store to Mr. W. W. Cooke and Fred Warren, of Fenelon Falls. The latter has conducted a store previously at Dunsford and Wilberforce, and has a thorough knowledge of the business. His many friends wish him success.

There is no virtue in doing right in such a way as to lead others wrong.
