LETTERS FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS

VALENTIA.

The annual fowl dinner in connection with the Methodist church here will be held on Thursday, October 19th. Thanks giving day. Dinner served from 4 to 7 p.m. Roast turkeys, geese, ducks, etc., with the delicious pies, cakes and other good things that the ladies of Valentia know so well how to cook, in abundance. Good program, short addresses and a happy time. Come and bring your best girl. Tickets 25 and 15 cents.

OAKWOOD

T. B. Staples and wife of Peterboro are visiting Oakwood friends. Dr. John Anderson of Cleveland, Ohio, paid a flying visit here last week. We are pleased to hear that he has a successful business there. This is another proof of the fact that the Oakwood boys usually succeed in the world.

The annual show is now among the things of the past. The weather was quite unfavorable, yet the receipts almost equalled those of previous years. Had the day set for it been one or two days later the receipts would probably have exceeded any previous year.

CAMBRAV

Threshing is the order of the day among the farmers. Mr. Harvey Rogers and his daughter ter Susie are visiting friends in Coburg.

Miss Lily Irwin is visiting Miss Hannah Rogers.

Miss Lula McKee is the guest of Miss Eva Wilson.

The Rev. J. A. McKenzie will preach his farewell sermon in Cambray at 11 a.m. on Sunday, Oct. 15th, and Oakwood at 3 p.m.

Miss Eyres has been re-engaged as junior teacher in our public school. This is Miss Eyre's third year and she is doing good work.

Mr. W. F. Routley of Lindsay spent Sunday here the guest of his friend Percy Rowan and family. Fred is always a welcome visitor in Cambray.

The entire community will be sorry indeed to lose Rev. Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie from our midst, as they were much beloved and popular with all classes.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Henderson of Toronto, editor of the "Canadian Teacher," and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Soules of Yonge-st., have been the guest of Mr. Alex. Cowieson during the past week.

Cinnamon & Everson, the new hardware men, Lindsay, are doing a rushing business in stoves. They are making sales every day, and no wonder. Why, you can buy a stove there and save enough to almost buy your winter's fuel. Just try them.

The fall fairs are over and our village has certainly held its place in them especially in the horse line. Mr. W. Fanning has certainly a winner in his speedy mare Eventide. She has won first money in every race she has started and has never been driven to her limit. Her winnings are at Lindsay, Woodville and Sunderland. Her name, no doubt, will appear among the very fast ones next year. Douglas Gordon has a lovely span of greys that have swept everything before them in the carriage line, capturing 1st prize at Woodville and Sunderland and his best mare Vetta carrying off first money in the "free for all" at Fenelon Falls. We have besides these several smaller sters will make a showing next year. Oh our village is at the front.

Lieut.-Col Hughes, M.P., is expected to pay us a flying visit about the beginning of November. His many friends here will give him a hearty greeting and a good conservative shake. The boys need the sight of his welcome face again.

On Tuesday Mr. J. R. Graham received word that his son William was dangerously ill at Pittsburgh of typhoid fever. Mrs. Graham left on Wednesday morning, and deep sympathy is felt for the family in their time of suspense.

A meeting of our village council was held on Monday night to try and make an agreement with the Electric Light, Heat and Power Co. of Lindsay. No agreement was arrived at with Mr. Stewart, the representative of the company, and a committee consisting of Messrs. McArthur, Martin and R. J. McLaughlin was appointed to confer with the company in Lindsay on Friday.

The many friends of Miss E. Hand will be pleased to hear that at the recent examinations in the General hospital, Toronto, she passed with honors. During her three years training Miss Hand has proved herself to be naturally adapted for a first-class nurse.

Last Saturday the young son of Mrs. Metsy had one of his fingers removed and two others badly injured by an ax flying from his brother's hand. The injured hand was dressed by Drs. Graham and Gould and the little fellow stood the strain well and is doing as well as could possibly be expected.

AVELINE-McARTHUR.

On Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 4th, a very pleasant event took place at the residence of Mrs. McArthur, Kirkfield, when her oldest daughter, Mary, was united in marriage to Mr. Haley Leon Aveline of Toronto, by Rev. B. M. Smith of Kirkfield, amidst a few of her intimate friends. The bride, who looked charming in a gown of cream serge trimmed with cream satin, lace and ribbon, was given away by her uncle, Duncan McArthur. The bridesmaid was Miss Katie McArthur, cousin of the bride, while Mr. Neil McMillan supported the groom. After the reception the bridal party drove to Lorneville, where the happy couple took the evening train for their home in Toronto, where they will reside in future. The presents were costly and numerous, showing the high esteem in which Mrs. Aveline was held by her many friends. Congratulations.

CAMPBELL-BARKER.

The Cleveland Leader of recent date contained the following wedding notice. Since the bride formerly lived in this town and the groom is an old Eldon boy the particulars of their marriage will be of interest to many of our readers. The Leader's notice is as follows: "One of the prettiest autumn weddings took place on Sept. 27th at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Barker, 18 Linwood-st. Cleveland, Ohio, when their niece Miss Welhelmina Barker was united in marriage to Mr. W. C. Campbell of Cleveland. The marriage ceremony was performed in the drawing room, which was profusely decorated with palms, ferns and cut flowers. Dr. Louis Albert Banks of the First Methodist Episcopal church officiated, assisted by Dr. T. H. McMichael of the First Presbyterian church. The bride entered the drawing room at 6 o'clock sharp, on the arm of her uncle, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, and looked charming in a gown of white tulle and silk. She was there found by the groom and his best man, the Rev. F. W. Davis of Collingwood, Ohio. The bride was attended by her half-sister, Miss Louise Bain of Lindsay, Ont. The marriage was strictly private and was witnessed by the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Barker, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. McMichael, Rev. L. A. Banks, Mrs. Fred Taylor, Mr. John E. Ashman, Mr. Harry Nicholson, Miss Jennie Barker. A wedding supper was served immediately after the ceremony for the bridal party, and was followed by a reception from 8 to 11, about 50 guests responding. The young couple left the same evening for their home at 684 Hough Ave., which was all in readiness, and will be at home to friends after Nov. 1st."

SINCLAIR-ANDERSON.

The Toronto Globe of the 7th inst. has the following: "The home of Mrs. F. Anderson, 80 Bellevue avenue, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Thursday, the 5th inst., when her youngest daughter, Miss Clara L. Anderson, was married to Rev. Archibald Gordon Sinclair, M.A., Presbyterian minister of Port Hope. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. G. Sinclair of Upper Canada, Nova Scotia, the father of the bridegroom, assisted by Rev. Mr. Gilray of the College street Presbyterian church, Rev. Mr. McGillivray of Bonar Presbyterian church, Rev. Mr. MacWilliams, librarian Knox College, and Rev. P. W. Anderson of Mt. Pleasant, brother of the bride. The groomsmen were Rev. D. Bruce Macdonald, M.A., son of Mr. J. K. Macdonald, manager of the Confederation Life Assurance Company, and the bridesmaid was Miss Hetta Crookenden of Toronto. Miss Ada Mowray of Gravenhurst played the wedding march as the bride entered the room, escorted by her brother Mr. D. R. Anderson, barrister-at-law, of Lindsay. She wore a handsome gown of cream satin, with a long bridal veil and a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Crookenden, wore a gown of organdie over yellow satin of effective design, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The house was beautifully decorated with foliage plants and cut flowers. After the ceremony a dejeuner was served, at which over fifty guests were present, and at the conclusion of which some very felicitous and congratulatory speeches were made and replied to in most appropriate terms by the bridegroom, and songs were sung delightfully by Mrs. Agnes Forbes Heyland and the Rev. and Mrs. P. W. Anderson. On their return from their wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair will reside in Port Hope."

As stated above Mrs. Sinclair is a sister of Mr. D. R. Anderson of this town, and will be remembered by a number of young people of this county who attended the Oakwood high school with her a few years ago. The Watchman-Warder offers hearty congratulations.
