Mr. W. Buskin and family motored to Guelph Sunday to visit his brother there, returning on Monday.

The "goose step" is a popular one in the German army, but they have now learned a new one—the side step.

All the important war news of the past week will be found on our inside pages. The Advance gives a service in this regard second to no country weekly.

Dr. Ern. Armstrong, wife and child, who have been visiting here for the past fortnight, returned Tuesday to their home at Cobalt.

Comparatively few people attended the Toronto exhibition this year from this part. No doubt the late harvest and war conditions had something to do with this, but the raising of rates by the railway was, we believe, the greatest factor in keeping the people at home.

The following officers of the high school literary society have been appointed : President, Harvey Shunk ; Vice President, Reuben Cargo ; Sec.-Treas., Glenn Davis ; Reporter, Frank Thurston ; Editor, Elmer Wright ; Committee, M. Legate, Lottie Muir, Florence Bunt, Glenn Davis.

At the Methodist services on Sunday Prof. Wright presided at the organ and Mrs. Wright assisted the choir for the first time. She favored the audience with a solo at both morning and evening services and created a most favorable impression. She has a fine soprano voice and was listened to with much pleasure by large audiences. Mr. and Mrs. Wright certainly add much to the musical portion of the service and are an acquisition of which much larger field might well be proud. We trust they will find their residence among us quite satisfactory from both a financial and a social point of view.

A meeting is being held here to-night (Wednesday) at which Mr. James of the Hydro Electric will be present to discuss the necessary steps to be taken in order to secure power, methods to be adopted, probable cost of installation, etc. It is hoped that every ratepayer will be present.

Mr. Geo. Watson removed his family to Priceville last week. where he will run the sawmill which he purchased last winter from Mr. McLeod. We are sorry to lose the family as citizens here, but trust the change will work for their financial prosperity. Prof. Wright has taken Mr. Watson's residence, his family having arrived last week.
