A Political Dog

Chief of Police Marshall of Orangeville is a great admirer of Airedale terriers and especially so of "Larry," a good specimen of the breed owned by Judge McCarthy, but he usually makes his home with the Chief, who can tell some interesting stories of the dog's sagacity. Marshall states that one morning last week the dog came to his door about 7.30 o'clock and Marshall said to him: "Larry, what are you doing here when there are so many drunks down street?" The dog started off at once and half an hous later was seen pulling an intoxicated man by the cuff of his coat sleeve towards the lock-up The Chief also tells about a mix-up he got into with five tramps late one evening at the C. P. R. depot. He tried to arrest the tramps and put them in the lock-up, but they pitched into him and had him down when the dog went at them and tore their clothes into ribbons. In less than five minutes the Chief and Larry were driving the five tramps like a flock of sheep to the lock-up. The chief says the dog takes quite an interest in politics. If given a newspaper and told that it is the Globe or Banner he will tear it into pieces. If told that it is the Mail and Empire, News World or Telegram he will take the greatest care of it and take it home without any delay.—Shelburne Free Press.

Singhampton

Revs. Morris and Brock of the Methodist Church attended the district meeting held in Toronto on Tuesday of last week.

The call extended to Rev. Maybee of Toronto by the Presbyterian congregation of the Maple Valley and Singhampton churches has been declined.

Mr. and Mrs. Hector McGibbon have returned from their wedding trip and are now comfortably settled in their new home near Maple Valley.

At the regular meeting of the union Young People's Association which was held on Tuesday evening in the Methodist Church, an interesting debate was on "Whether the Germans are justified in bringing on the present war." Mr. Wilkinson and Rev. Brock did their best to uphold the Germans, while Revs Morris and Slemin did their best to knock out any props from under any arguments in favor of the Germans bringing on this war.

Mr. John Macdonald has moved from our village to Mr. Morton's farm on the green bush sideroad.

Miss Clark of Oro has taken charge of the north townline school.

On Friday last while driving to Collingwood Mr. and Mrs. A. McGibbon met with a serious accident on the 10th line. When near Jardine's sideroad the horses became frightened by a passing traction engine and bolted. Mr. McGibbon did his best to stop them, but unfortunately some of the harness gave way, releasing them from the democrat, and permitting them to pull him over the dashboard. About the same time the tongue was broken, causing the wagon to upset and Mrs. McGibbon to be thrown out. Both were seriously injured, but were fortunate in escaping with their lives.

Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy Bell spent Sunday with friends here.

The farmers are active on the advice tendered them and are increasing their acreage of fall wheat to such an extent that it is expected that the record will be reached this year. Some have practically trebled and quadrupled their average of the past ten or fifteen years.

Germany's capital will see "the greatest show on earth" when the British lion, the Russian bear, the French eagle, the Royal Bengal tiger, the Canadian beaver, and the Australian kangaroo meet to discipline the Prussian bird that has disgraced the menagerie by attacking inoffensive passersby.

Ontario Mourns Her Premier

Sir James Whitney, Premier of Ontario, died at his home in Toronto on Friday last.

Lieutenant-Colonel Honorable Sir James Pliny Whitney, Kt., K.C.M.G., L.L.D., D.C.L., K.C., Prime Minister of the Province of Ontario, Canada, since 1905, and leader of the Conservative party in the Provincial House since 1895, was born in Williamsburg, Dundas County, Ontario, in 1843, being a son of Richard Leet Whitney and Clarissa Jane Fairman, his wife, and a descendant of United Empire Loyalist stock.

James Whitney spent the early boyhood of his life on a farm in the Township of Osnabrook, in the County of Stormont on the St. Lawrence front, where his parents moved a few years after his birth. He was educated in the local Public school and at the historic Cornwall Grammar school. He began the study of law in the office of the late John Sandfield Macdonald, Premier of the old Province of Canada before Confederation, and the first Provincial Premier of Ontario after Confederation.

Mr. Whitney was called to the Bar in 1876, and began the practice of his profession at Morrisburg. In 1886 he contested Dundas for the seat in the Ontario House, but was defeated by the small majority of 25. The successful candidate was unseated at the end of the session and in the bye-election which ensued on January 31st, 1888, Whitney was elected to the Legislature for the first time by a majority of 28, three more than his opponent had been accredited with previously. From that time onward he has represented his home constituency in the Legislature, a period of some twenty-six years. In April, 1896, Mr. Whitney, on the retirement of Mr. Marten, was chosen leader of the party, then in opposition.

Sheardown—Wauchope

The home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Wauchope, Lloydtown, Ont., was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, Sept. 9th, at 2.30 o'clock, when the marriage was solemnized between their daughter, Grace Mabel, and Mr. Lewis Sheardown of Proton Station, Ont.

Rev. T. R. White, of Kleinburg, assisted by Rev. Mr. Brydon of Laskey, and Mr. Wilson of Linton, performed the ceremony. The living room was prettily decorated with ferns and asters, and the wedding party stood during the ceremony under a white marriage bell suspended from an evergreen arch.

To the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Mr. E. Wesley Rhodes, the bride entered, leaning on the arm of her father. She wore a dress of white silk embroidered crepe, and a veil of silk embroidered net, caught up with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of roses and lily of the valley. Miss Lydia Sheardown, sister of the bridegroom, acted as bridesmaid. She wore a beautiful gown of palest pink silk with an overdress of shadow lace and trimmings of pink satin rosebuds, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Mr. D. Arthur Wauchope acted as best man, and little Frieda Porritt cousin of the bride, was flower girl and was prettily dressed in white.

The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a necklace set with pearls, to the bridesmaid a pearl sunburst, to the best man a pair of gold cuff links, to Mr. Rhodes a pearl tie pin, and to the flower girl a gold bracelet.

After the ceremony about seventy-five guests partook of a dainty wedding breakfast, and later the happy couple left for a short trip to Toronto and Niagara Falls the bride travelling in a tailored suit of navy blue serge and small black velvet hat with white mount.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheardown will reside at Proton.
