

James F. Alcorn
entered from list of Lindsay Boys overseas - Oct 1944.

Enlisted in the Canadian Army on July 29 1942. He received his training in Canada and proceeded overseas one year later arriving in England on August 7 1943.
He has served with the forces in France, Holland and Belgium. V-Day saw him in London where he was to have his first leave since D-Day. He has since returned to Germany. A foot injury has interrupted his service and at present - June 1945-he is undergoing treatment with penicilin at a military hospital.
