VICINITY CHIPS

Mrs. A. Carter, Toronto, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. Moore.

Mr. Bert Best arrived home from the West last week.

Mrs. Andrew Shields of Detroit is visiting with relatives here for a time.

Mr. Charlie Jamieson of Toronto is visiting at his parental home here.

Mrs. McKinnon, who has spent the past couple of months in Toronto, returned to her home here the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Schram of Port Elgin visited the latter's aunt, Mrs. William Burnett, last week.

Artemesia Township Council met on Monday last. The minutes will appear next week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Bentham motored to Singhampton one evening last week to visit an aged aunt, Mrs. Weir, who was seriously ill.

The Methodist choir sang at an anniversary entertainment at Inistioge on Monday, when, they say, an extraordinary good time was enjoyed by a large gathering.

The Annual Convention of Woman's Missionary Society of Owen Sound District of the Methodist Church will be held in the Methodist Church, Flesherton, on Friday, October 23, 1914. Sessions morning, afternoon and evening.

Gipsy Simon Smith will deliver his famous lecture, "From gipsy camp to pulpit," in the Methodist church, Priceville, Thursday afternoon, October 8, at 3 o'clock. The lecture will also be given at Salem the following evening at 7 o'clock.

Two sons of Mr. W. R. Hanley of the P. O. Department, and well known here—Fred and Clarence—aged 23 and 21 years respectively, left with the Canadian contingent for the scene of war. The former is a member of the 2nd Battery C. F. A., and the latter belongs to the British Columbia Horse.

The village council met on Saturday evening last, when letters from the hydro commission were read regarding the submission of by-laws to the ratepayers. It was decided to go ahead with this at once, and the necessary by-laws appear in this issue. Voting will take place on October 29.

Priceville fair was held on Friday of last week. The day was an ideal summer day, almost uncomfortably warm, but the attendance was poor. The inside exhibit was fully up to former years, but horses, cattle and poultry were extremely light. In these classes we believe every exhibitor got a prize. The concert was well attended.

Rev. Mr. Waugh of Dundalk occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church here Sunday evening and delivered an inspiring and eloquent sermon from Isaiah 45-5: "I gird thee, though thou hast not known me." Did space permit we would like to give a synopsis of this sermon. It was considered quite a masterpiece.

The Presbyterian Young People's Institutes are welcomed and will, it is felt by the Committee, be enthusiastically attended and supported by the young people of the Presbytery of Orangeville. Local talent is liberally offered and, at least, one of the officials of the higher courts of the church will be present at each gathering. The programme will be good. Sessions at 2 and 7.30 p. m. The following places and dates are now fixed:—McIntyre Oct. 19, Dundalk Oct. 21, Eugenia Oct. 22. Each group will decide as to the method of entertainment. Eugenia owing to its many boarders, will adopt the picnic system of entertainment. Young people of all denominations welcome. Come! A collection to defray expenses will be taken at each session.

Mr. H. Holman, 4th line, Artemesia, will hold an extensive auction sale on Thursday, Oct. 15. For complete list see advertisement in this issue and large bills. W. Kaitting, auctioneer.

East Grey Teachers' Convention will be held here Thursday and Friday of this week. Do not forget the concert to be held in the high school Thursday evening. This is expected to be a pretty fine affair.

Mr. Wm. Buchanan of Vandeleur had three fingers of his left hand amputated in an ensilage cutter on Friday last—the first, second and fourth fingers. This accident came just as Mr. Buchanan had recovered from a nasty accident, when he fell on a wagon rack, cracking some of his ribs. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Buchanan in his misfortune.

Markdale High School Baseball team defeated the Flesherton youngsters in a good game, by a score of 20-16 on Friday last. Markdale used one or two boys who did not attend High School, but as this is customary with Markdale we will let it pass. K. Haskett of Markdale umpired the game to the entire satisfaction of his own bunch. A few of the Flesherton girls distinguished themselves by rooting for the Markdale boys.

By a simple fall Wilburt White, son of James White of Saugeen Junction fell and received serious injuries on Monday. The boy, who is 16 years old, was working at W. J. Moore's, Toronto Line, and was standing on a load of wood when he stepped on a round stick and fell to the ground. His arm was fractured at the elbow and the joint was dislocated. The young man was removed to his home, but Dr. Lane of Priceville sent him to the Owen Sound hospital, where the complicated injury might receive proper attention.

Vandeleur Happenings

Mr. William Buchanan had three of his fingers of his left hand so badly lacerated in the carrier of an ensilage cutter, which was being operated on the farm of his brother, Joseph, on Friday afternoon, that they had to be amputated close to the hand. Mr. Buchanan has been extremely unfortunate this summer, having had three ribs broken a short time ago, and had only partly recovered when the accident occurred which will handicap him for life.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davis, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. S. Gilbert, visited friends in Meaford over the week end.

Messrs. Geo. Warling and S. Gilbert took a trip over to Orangeville last week.

Maxwell

Intended for Last Week

THIS

has created demand for newspapers unprecedented in history.

The fact that Canada is in a state of war along with the mother country and their Allies against the combined forces of Germany and Austria and the further fact that Canadian troops are now on the firing line, will have the effect of increasing our interest in the struggle.

The ADVANCE clubbed with The Toronto Morning World will be mailed to subscribers from now to the 1st of January, 1916, for $3.50. Think of it! A morning daily paper and a weekly paper 15 months for only $3.50.

Take advantage of this special offer at once as we are obliged to reserve the right to withdraw it without notice as the ramifications of the war may cause a very rapid increase in the cost of white paper, which will mean a much higher price for your newspaper.
