Lindsay Boys Returning Home From Overseas

20-6-45

Each day sees a number of Lindsay boys returning from long service in the armed forces, much of which has been spent overseas and not a little actively engaged in enemy territory.

Pilot Officer R. M. (Mack) Algar a former student at the LCI was met by his family in Toronto Monday evening after an absence of twenty months overseas. Mack has completed thirty-eight operational tours over enemy targets and is home on thirty days leave.
