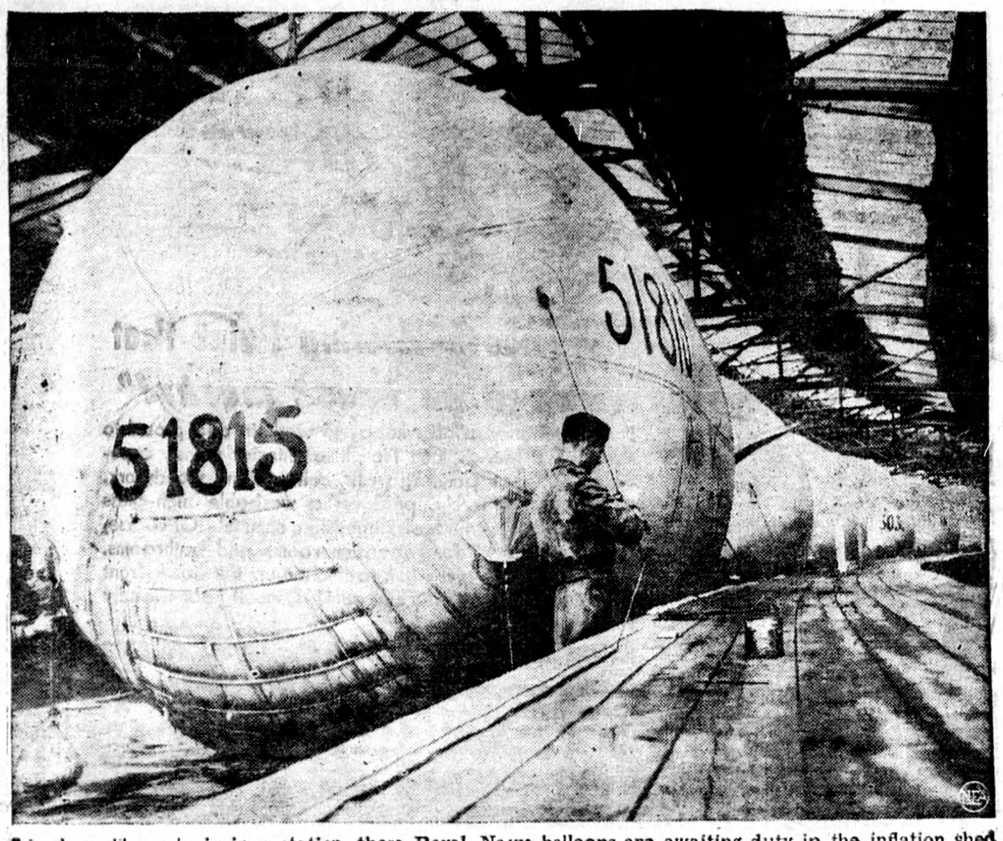
Balloon Train



Lined up like a train in a station, these Royal Navy balloons are awaiting duty in the inflation shed that is their "hangar." They protect small vessels from air attack.

Have You Heard?

Bill had found a new pet name for his wife. He called her "My Cherub" so often that at last the lady became suspicious and asked why he used that particular form of endearment.

Bill looked rather uncomfortable for a moment, and then decided to put a brave face on it.

"It's like this," he said, "you never seem to have any clothes, you're always up in the air, and you keep on harping!"

"I wish I knew who put that joke in the paper about Scots being so tight."

"Why don't you phone the editor and ask?"

"What! And who'd pay for the phone call?"

A small boy returned home from school and told his father that he was second in his class. Top place was held by a girl.

"Surely, John," said the father, "you're not going to be beaten by a mere girl!"

"Well, you see, father," explained John, "girls are not nearly so mere as they used to be."

He: "You understand, dear, that for business reasons our engagement must be kept a secret."

She: "Oh, yes, I tell everybody that."

After exactly a week of married life my wife said to me:

"If I had only known marriage would be like this I might have married several other people some time ago!"

I'm still trying to work that one out!

Tribunal Chairman (to C.O.): "And what would you do if a German attacked your mother?"

Conscientious Objector: "I'd lay three to one on mum."

Three tramps had boiled a chicken and were arguing how to divide it. One suggested they should toss a coin. "Head," called Sam. "Tail," called Tom. "I'll take what's left," sadi Pat.

Sergeant: "What's tha. you said?"

Rookie (trembling): "I—I don't know, Sergeant—I wasn't listening."

Groundhog Has Expensive Taste

Walter Brown, of Hepworth, Ont., lost a wallet containing $80 on May 14, the purse dropping from his pocket as he picked up a load of lumber ordered from a Keppell Township farm.

Next day Brown returned to look for his wallet and found a small leather stamp container which had been inside. Further search revealed a $10 bill under some rocks and $51 and the walnet nearby, leaving a debic of $19.

Police liquidated the debit balance by locating a groundhog. He was shot and poilce pieced together $19 which the animal had chewed up and swallowed.

Brown took his shredded money to a Hepworth bank and was assured the remnants can be replaced.

WHAT SCIENCE IS DOING

IMMERSION FOOT

Successful methods of preventing and treating a serious war ailment of shipwreck victims, immersion foot, have been developed by three Royal Canadian naval medical officers, the War Information Board of Canada announces.

Of 150 survivors of torpedoed vessels they treated at an Eastern Canadian port, only seven required amputation of the affected foot. By contrast, nearly all survivors picked up by trawlers from one internationally known ship which was sunk in European waters had to have their feet amputated.

Caused by Exposure

Immersion foot is caused usually by exposure in life rafts or boats for long periods and if not properly treated is likely to result in gangrene, requiring amputation to save the victim's life.

The rules for prevention of the condition are: 1. Cover legs and feet with a thick coating of grease as long-distance swimmers do; 2. Remove any constricting clothing such as tight boots hich are in use for warmth if the feet are in water anyway; 3. Exercise the feet as much as possible, to keep the blood circulating, as long as they are healthy.

The great tragedy of many immersion foot victims is that rescuers in giving treatment to survivors of ship sinkings usually give the wrong treatment which causes the patient intense suffering and even loss of one or both feet. Rubbing the feet and applying hot water bottles and blankets is exactly the wrong treatment.

First Aid Rules

First aid rules for this condition are: 1. Keep the patient dry and warm except for his feet; 2. Lightly dust sulfanilamide powder on any wounds, cuts or sores; 3. Wrap the legs in some soft clean material and elevate on pillows; 4. Leave further treatment for a doctor who should be seen as soon as possible. No washing, soaking, antiseptics, lotions or ointments, except the sulfanilamide powder, should be used. The patient must not stand or walk, and his feet and legs must be handled gently.

Survivors treated in the port had their feet wrapped in sterile towls to keep them dry, and packed in ice, or kept under a blast of cool air from a fan, because the success of the treatment of immersion foot depends on bringing the affected parts back to normal temperature very slowly, over a period of weeks.

Fabrics From Milk

A fibre is now being made from milk casein. It is warm, soft, resilient and will drape well. It can be added to rayon and cotton to improve their adaptability. Most of the important uses of the new fibre made from milk are being emplyoed in women's dress fabrics, shirtings, sweaters and men's hosiery.

How Can I ? ?

By Anne Ashley

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I clean steel knives?

A. To clean the steel blades rub them vigorously with ashes dampened with water.

Q. How can I improve the flavor of lemon pie?

A. Place the rind into the filling mixture for a few minutes, and then remove with a spoon. The flavor will be improved but it will not have that bitter taste that grated lemon rind often produces.

Q. How can I keep the floor mop clean?

A. Instead of trying to shake the dirt out of a new floor mop after starting to use it, brush it with a whisk broom. The mop will always be fluffy and clean.

Q. How can I easily remove ink spots from the fingers?

A. Rub the inside of a banana peeling over the fingers.

Q. How can I keep the rain from injuring porch pillows?

A. Outdoor pillows should have an inner covering of oilcloth, and an outer covering of some attractive washable material. Then there will be no worry about them on a wet day, as the rain will not injure them.

Carrier Pigeons Given Parachutes

Birds would not normally be expected to have parachutes, but the army is providing some for its carrier pigeons.

The pigeons are used with paratroopers who might land behind enemy lines and be unable to use radio to get necessary information back to their bases.

The birds are dropped either in special containers strapped to the soldiers' chests, or in cages attached to parachutes.

HOW TO RELIEVE PILE TORTURE QUICKLY AND EASILY

If you are troubled with itching piles or rectal soreness, do not delay treatment and run the risk of letting this condition become chronic. Any itching or soreness or painful passage of stool is nature's warning and proper treatment should be secured at once.

For this purpose get a package of Hem-Roid from any druggist and use as directed. This formula which is used internally is a small, easy to take tablet, will quickly relieve the itching and soreness and aid in healing the sore tender spots. Hem-Roid is pleasant to use, is highly recommended and it seems the height of folly for any one to risk a painful and chronic pile condition when such a fine remedy may be had at such a small cost.

If you try Hem-Roid and are not entirely pleased with the results, your druggist will gladly return your money.

A Strength From Beyond Our Limits

(An Editorial In The Christian Science Monitor)

For hundreds of years the great military and naval leaders of the English-speaking race have been devout men, with a sublime faith in God and a firm belief in the ultimate triumph of right as the fulfilment of His will. It came as no great surprise, then, when Gen. K. A. N. Anderson ordered a special service of thanksgiving to be held Sunday, May 23, for his victorious British First Army in Tunisia, explaining:

"When success comes our way, we are inclined to place too much emphasis on our own skill and power and not enough on the strength which comes from beyond human limits."

Those are words which might have been uttered by that fighting man of God, Gen. Sir Bernard Law Montgomery of the British Eighth Army, or by that other Covenanter, Gen. Thomas Jonathan Jackson, C.S.A., who lived according to the New Testament and fought according to the Old.

Nelson knelt on the deck of the Victory on the eve of Trafalgar, and Farragut committed his course to God as he sailed into Mobile Bay. Washington and Lee humbly asked for divine guidance on every occasion. "Stonewall" Jackson ordered thanksgiving services after victory and never failed to give God the credit for his successes. On one of his last days he recommended the Bible as a model for generals' official reports, and cited the narrative of Joshua's battle with the Amalekites: "It has clearness, brevity, fairness, modesty; and it traces the victory to its right source, the blessing of God."

That this remarkable quality of true humility is common to many great military men is emphasized by General Anderson's action.

By Roberta Lee

1. How should the napkins for a luncheon party be folded?

2. What music should the bride select for her wedding?

3. Is it correct English to use the phrase "As far as I know?"

4. When a guest drops a knife or fork while eating, and there is no servant, what should the guest do?

5. Should one apologize when one is calling at a home where one has not been for a long time?

6. What are some of the most essential requisites in order to be a successful hostess?

Answers

1. They are folded like a handkerchief in four folds, or in any simple way with the monogram in the center. 2. She may select any music she wishes, but the wedding march from the opera Lohengrin is the most popular. 3. "So far as" is the correct phrase to express limitation. 4. Say it quietly to the hostess, "May I have another fork, please? I am sorry that I dropped mine." 5. No; make no reference to it. 6. A hospitable welcome to her guests, strict attention to their comfort, and entertainment.

Huns Admit Fewer Allied Ships Sunk

The Transocean News Service said in a Berlin broadcast that German submarines had sunk fewer Allied ships this month than during the same period of May, 1942. Axis propagandists could find no way to explain the decline other than to claim that Allied convoy traffic had diminished.
