H. C. Annable, D.F.M., of Lindsay, Has Had Practical Experience — Hotel
Being Re-decorated.

Citizens of Lindsay, but more especially the travelling public, will be interested in learning that Mr. H. C. Annable, of Lindsay, has succeeded Mr. V. Egan as manager of the Hotel Benson and has already assumed his duties.

Mr. Annable comes to the Hotel Benson highly recommended. Although he is not a native son of Lindsay, he married a young Lindsay girl and has been a resident of town for several years. Previous to the war Mr. Annable was associated with the Hotel Benson, first as a bell boy, then as desk clerk, and for six years he has been actively identified with Lindsay's largest hostelry.

He served with the R.C.A.F. for three years, completed his tour of operations and was honoured with the decoration of D.F.M. He has many friends, all of whom will join in wishing him every success in his new venture.

Mr. Egan, it is understood, has retired from business owing to ill health.
