VICINITY CHIPS

Mr. and Mrs. Goldhawk are in Toronto this week.

Miss Oldham of the high school staff visited the Queen City on Saturday.

Don't forget the high class concert in the Methodist church on Wednesday evening, Dec. 16.

Division Court on Friday last was of very short duration, only two cases being on the docket, and both were adjourned.

All members of W. I. who wish to susbcribe for the Home Journal kindly hand money in by Dec. 23rd 1914

All ye Christmas shoppers, read W. H. Bunt's advertisement in this issue. He has something especially interesting to offer this year.

The Ambursen Co. will complete their contract on the big dam at Eugenia this week and commence to remove their machinery next week.

Mr. Joseph Duncan has purchased the residence and three lots on Collingwood street owned by Mr. Geo. Watson, who recently removed to Priceville.

The very popular Bridal Chorus from Cantata, Cowens' "Rose Maiden" will be the closing number at the Methodist choir concert.

Another batch of turkeys and ducks were disposed of by the shooting match route in town on Friday. The fowl were supplied by Mr. Charley Best.

The whole christian world is now preparing for the scrap with turkey. Hostilities will commence a few days before Christmas.

Portlaw Red Cross Society will hold a patriotic concert in the public school on Friday evening, December 11, for which a good program has been prepared.

Mr. Hartley Lawrence of Kimberley had about an inch taken off one forefinger by a buzz saw on Friday last. He came out to town and had it dressed.

Communion service was held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday, when four new members united with the church and one was received by certificate.

The Presbyterian church of Maxwell will give a fowl supper and entertainment on Tuesday, December 22nd. Tea served from 5 to 7. Good program after. Admission adults 25c, children 15c.

Mr. Malcolm McDonald will have charge of the skating rink this winter, and will start the ice-making process as soon as weather will permit. He hopes to have things in operation before Christmas.

Do not fail to hear the beautiful Gipsy Chorus taken from the Opera, Balfes' "Bohemian Girl," the opening vocal number at the choir concert. Reserved seat tickets for sale at Richardsons' drug store.

The "Legend of the Chimes" from de Kowens' Opera, Robinhood "and Oh! Hear Me" from Dandts' operetta "Pauline the Belle of Saratoga." These two numbers are worth the price of admission at the choir concert on the 16th.

The Maxwell Womens Institute will hold their regular monthly meeting on Dec. 10, at 2.30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. W. H. Guy. All members are requested to be present. Visitors Welcome.

On Friday evening of last week a very pleasant time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Thompson, Rock Mills, where the Rockvale choir met to say farewell to the latter's sister, Miss Jennie Roy, who, in company with her mother, left on Tuesday for an extended visit to friends in New Jersey.

A couple of weeks ago five cases of liquor, addressed to Charles Maxwell at this station were seized by the officials. Magistrate McMullen held a session on Monday but neither the consignee or his represantive put in an appearance and the liquor was confiscated.

Miss Maud Richardson has left some water-colour sketches of Flesherton and vicinity at the office of Dr. E. K. Richardson, 705 Spadina ave. to be sold for the benefit of the Red Cross Society. Old Fleshertonians residing in Toronto are invited to call and see them.

An extensive credit auction sale of farm stock and implements will be held on lot 38, con. 5, Artemesia, on Thursday, December 17, the property of Mr. W. H. Hemphill. Sale at the usual hour and on the usual terms. D. McPhail, auctioneer.

Cards, programs, etc., have been issued for the grand musical evening to be held in the Methodist church on the evening of Wednesday, Dec. 16. The program will consist of choruses, quartettes, trios, duets and solos. See cards and programs for full particulars.

About forty young people drove out to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Parker on the west back line Wednesday evening ol last week, taking along with them a lot of things suitable for a newly married couple to begin housekeeping with. The evening was much enjoyed by those present. The host and hostess are popular with all and have a host of friends who wish them all joys possible.

A scrub hunt took place here on Thursday last with Messrs. J. Bowler and Allie Best as captains. The latter won by long odds. The game secured was composed almost entirely of rabbits, which appear to be unusually plentiful this fall. Mr. Ed. Best succeeded in capturing a very large coon. At night the losing side paid for a dandy fowl supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Best.

Considerable merriment is being enjoyed around town at the expense of one of the popular young ladies. After washing her clothing on Monday and placing them on the clothes line to dry, she was surprised on looking out the window to see several men chasing a cow around the street with certain parts of her clothing over its head. The cow had got them fastened on her horns and the gentlemen in an effort to save the clothing created much amusement for the onlookers.

Why do statesmen read the Weekly Sun of Toronto? Because it is a paper with a reputation that is unquestioned. It is the farmers' business paper, and is watching farmers' interests all the time. Aside, even, from its market reports, which are acknowledged to be the best in the Dominion, it is a paper of weight. You should have it come to your home every week. All through the long winter evenings it will furnish a wealth of interestiug reading material of a thoroughly reliable character. This paper has special clubbing arrangements with the Sun. Let us have your renewal and add the Sun to your list of papers for 1915.

At the annual meeting of Chalmers Church Ladies Aid last week the following officers were re-elected for the ensuing year: Hon. President, Mrs. A. S. VanDusen; President, Mrs. D. McTavish; Vice Pres., Mrs. Price Teeter; Sec Treas. Mrs Jos. Blackburn; Visiting Com., Mrs. J. L. McMullen, Mrs. A. Harrison, Mrs. J. Radley. The treas's report showed 37 members on the roll and the finances in a prosperous condition, there being on hand in special furd $318 and in general fund $133. The ladies resolved to improve the church with pulpit furniture. At the quarterly communion service of the church on Friday evening five new members were received, one by certificate and four young men of the congregation on profession of faith. There was a large attendance of communicants at the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper on Sunday.

The citizens of Tara and Arran Township will tender Hon. W. H. Hearst, Ontario's new Premier, a complimentary banquet at the Queen's Hotel, Tara, on Friday evening, December 18th. The Hon. Mr. Hearst is an old Arran boy, having been born in the township on February 15, 1864, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hearst, who were early pioneers of Bruce County. His parents retired from farming, and moved to Tara, and the present Premier received his primary education in the Public School there. The selection of Hon. Mr. Hearst as successor to the late Sir James Whitney is an honor in which the Township of Arran, the Village of Tara, and the County of Bruce feel proud.
