

LINDSAY FAMILY SPEAKS WITH SOLDIER-SON ACROSS THE SEA

Jan 11/46
Mr. and Mrs. A. Archer, 122 Adelaide St. S., Lindsay, and immediate members of the family, had the pleasure Thursday of speaking via long distance telephone with their soldier-son in England.

The call, which was placed through the Lindsay exchange December 14, 1945, finally caught up with their son, Gnr. C. A. Archer at Transit Camp, Canuck Barracks, Dover, Kent, England, yesterday. Mrs. Archer told the Post that he recognized their voices immediately he heard them and that by the same token his voice sounded quite natural.

Mrs. Archer said the telephone company were very decent about the whole thing and that, while the rate for the three-minute call was $12.75 inclusive of tax, they actually talked for almost five minutes for the same price because connections were not quite clear at first. She added that the company kept working until connections became perfectly clear.
