VICINITY CHIPS

Merry, Merry Christmas—as usual.

Mr. John Wright has taken the Massey Harris implement agency here.

Miss Wallace is visiting her sister, who is ill in Toronto.

Rev. R. C. Kerr is spending a fortnight with his parents at Dresden, Ont.

Miss Clara Latimer is spending Christmas week with friends at Walter's Falls.

Mr. Arnold Thurston, Toronto, is spending holidays at the parental home here.

Messrs. Roy Kerr and Fred Bellamy of Toronto are visiting at home for the holidays.

Miss Etta LeGard left last week to visit her sister, Mrs. G. Kellar, in Toronto, who is seriously ill with inflammation.

The Christmas music in the Methodist church Sunday evening wos enjoyed by a large audience, many coming from quite a distance.

Mr. J. H. Campaign of Chicago fire department was a visitor with friends here last week, returning to the Windy City on Monday. J. H. is always a welcome visitor here.

If this winter keeps up the record it has made for the past week or so we will soon be unable to move around. Ev en now the roads north and south are badly drifted.

The very successful and highly appreciated concert given by the Methodist church choir and their musical friends will be repeated Wednesday, Jan. 6, by special request of a number of the citizens who love good music. Some new numbers will be given.

At the annual meeting of the Presbyterian Sabbath School last week the following officers were elected: Supt., Frank Chard; Asst, Chas. Stewart; Sec., Geo. Stewart; Asst., Jas. Harrison; Librarian, Robt. Chard; Asst., Lawson Whitehead; Treas., Chas Stewaat; Organist, Miss Vera Loucks, Asst., Miss Edna Stewart. The former staff of teachers were continued. Mr. T. R. McKenzie continues Superintendent of the Home Study Department.

The Advance has again this year to thank the good ladies of the Women's Institute here for another Christmas goose, this time a veritable whopper of the goose family, weighing 14½ pounds! This will average just about a pound apiece for those which will surround our festal board—bones and all, of course—and we know it will be appreciated. Mrs. C. W. Bellamy was deputized to make this very much appreciated donation and the bird came from her own flock. Thanks, very much, ladies.

The municipal nominations will be held on Monday of next week. So far there has been little talk of possible candidates, but we presume the old council will all be in the field for re-election. The only new who has announced his candidature to The Advance is Mr. Jonathan Latimer of Eugenia, who will try it a "birl" again. Other names are whispered around, but there is nothing sufficiently definite to base a statement upon.

The Session of Chalmers' Church held their final meeting for the year on Friday afternoon last at which the work of the current year was reviewed and that for the coming year considered. Successful work has been done during the year manifested in growing attendance at the services and marked increase in membership, which on the revised roll is now 151. The reports of the Home Study Department showed gratifying interest in this work throughout the congregations and the Missionary contributions through the duplex envelopes showed a deepening interest in this branch by an increase over last year. The Session also visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown and administered the Sacrament to the long shut in aged couple.

Don't forget the Christmas tree and entertainment in the Presbyterian church on Christmas night. This promises to be the best entertainment in the history of the church. Tea served in the basement from 5.30 to 7.30, concert after. Admission to all, adults 25, children 15c.

Feversham skating rink will be open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights from 8 to 10 p. m. Admission 10c. Spectators free. Skates sharpened. F. Brackenbury, manager. Skating Christmas day from 2 to 4 and from 8 to 10 p. m.

Last week we copied an item from The Flesherton Advance which stated "that Guy Orr brought to that office seven turnips that weighed 65 pounds." W. A. Reburn of Whitfield when he read the item went to his turnip house and picked out seven that weighed 96 lbs.—Shelburne Free Press.

Mrs. H. S. White is spending Christmas with her parents at Blenheim. Mr. White with his at Port Hope. Misses Holmes and Oldham of the high school are also visiting their parents, as well as Miss Switzer of the public school staff with her parents at St. Mary's. Mr. and Mrs. Holland will remain at their home here this Christmas.

Mr. George Turner died at his residence, Heathcote, on Friday, Dec. 4. The deceased gentleman was born near Lincoln, Lincolnshire, England, and married and came to Canada at the age of 24 years. For some time he worked in York township, then came to Artemesia, settling on the Sloan farm near Eugenia. Afterwards he moved to Kimberley, and about eight years ago purchased the farm at Heathcote. He was a member and official in the English church at Heathcote. He was a brother of Mrs. M. Duncan of Flesherton.

The following new books have been added to the public library and are now ready for circulation: The Eyes of the World, Harold Bell Wright; England and the English, Price Collier; Secrets of the German War Office, Karl Graves; Germany and the Next War, Bernahrdi; Wall of Partition, Barclay; The Upas Tree, Barclay: The Broken Halo, Barclay; Kilmeny of the Orchard, L. M. Montgomery; At the Foot of the Rainbow, Jane Stratton Porter; Eyes of the World, Harold Bell Wright; Anecdotes of the Hour, various authors; The Prizes of Life, Grenfell; Patrol of the Sundance Trail, Ralph Connor.

Lieut. MacLean visited his mother and sister at the Manse, on Wednesday of last week, and left Toronto for Quebec on Thursday night. Referring to his departure the Globe said: Lieut. D. G. Maclean of the Army Service Corps, who will leave shortly for Quebec and thence to the front with Canada's second contingent, was presented with a pair of field glasses yesterday afternoon by the members of the Globe staff. Lieut. Maclean, who has been assistant commercial editor of the Globe during the past year, leaves this week for his home in Flesherton prior to taking his departure with the second contingent. Dr. J. A. Macdanald and Mr. Stewart Lyon made the presentation in behalf of The Globe editors and reporters, and Lieut. Maclean left his newspaper associations followed by the best wishes of a host of friends.
