AUTO TAX AND OUR ROADS

The provincial government has placed an additional tax on automobiles this year. Cars up to 25 horsepower will be taxed $5, and from 25 to 35 horsepower it will be $10. This is expected to yield a large revenue to the government coffers. Originally the auto tax was intended as a fund for the upkeep of highways, but this county has not as yet seen any of the proceeds, and The Advance wishes to point out the necessity of getting after some of it.

There is one piece of road in this vicinity that should have a strong claim on this fund. We refer to the road from this station to Eugenia. During the past summer and fall the government has been using this piece of road to transfer huge loads to their works at Eugenia, and as a result the highway this fall was in a terrible condition and will be again so soon as the snow melts. Perhaps no piece of road in the province was more severely used than the one referred to. It was also a most popular motor route and thousands of motors passed over it during the season. Taking these things into consideration, our authorities could put up a strong claim to a few thousand for road improvement in the township of Artemesia and the government could not in justice say them nay.

Garner-Gilbert

A pretty wedding was celebrated at high noon on Wednesday, December 30th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gilbert, Vandeleur, when their daughter, Eva Annie, who has been living in Toronto for the past year, was married to Mr. Harry Garner of Toronto. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Jas. Dudgeon of Flesherton, only immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom being present. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore Ivory Duchess Satin with lace trimmings. Mrs. A. Smith, of Meaford, sister of the bride, played the wedding march. The register was signed by Mr. Fred Garner, brother of groom, and Miss Sadie Warling, of Vandeleur, cousin of bride. The happy couple after a brief visit with friends in the community, left for their home at 47 Lappin Ave., Toronto, where Mrs. Garner will be at home to friends after January 20th. The bride's travelling dress was navy blue broadcloth with black hat to match, and wore a set of black fox furs, the gift of the groom.

On Monday evening, December 28th, about 70 of the neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. Geo. Warling uncle of the bride, and gave her a miscellaneous shower, many and useful presents being received.

Durham

A quiet wedding took place at the manse here on Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Nellie Myers of Priceville was united in marriage with Mr. Doyle Braithwaite, of the same town. The happy couple left on the four o'clock train on a short honeymoon trip to Toronto and other points.

Christmas was a sad day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Williams. Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Large and two children, of Toronto, were there on a visit, and all were enjoying themselves till Mr. Large's little boy, two and a half years old, took ill suddenly and died in about an hour, from cerebral meningitis. The remains were interred in the Durham cemetery on Saturday afternoon.—Chronicle.

Rufus Hall, an aged farmer from Lisle died in the General and Marine Hospital at Collingwood on Tuesday last. His death was due to the burns and exposure suffered at the time of the destruction by fire of his home a couple of weeks ago. Mr. Hall's death is the second resulting from the disaster, his grandson, Edward Callahan of Toronto, being burned to death at the time.

Mayor Mitchell of Kincardine has put a proposition before the Board of Trade of that town to organize a company with a capital of $15,000 to manufacture hosiery and sweaters and employ 30 hands if the town will guarantee the company a loan of $15,000 repayable in fifteen years.—Chesley Enterprise.

The Herald says that instead of holding the usual Christmas entertainment in the Walkerton Methodist Sunday School, the children congregated on Friday night at the church, each bringing something to send to the Belgian children. The plan was tried as an experiment and proved that the children got just as much joy out of it as if they had a tree loaded with good things for themselves.

The Indian List is growing to such an extent in this riding that soon most of the hard drinkers of the constituency will be banished from booze by this novel form of prohibition. In Walkerton, especially, is King Alcohol losing his most ardent patrons by this means, and many bloated faces that were growing redder than a danger signal at the buying side of the bar are now seen no more at the moisture counters.—Herald.

Rev. D. McLennan, secretary of the Bruce County Children's Aid Society, is having more trouble with neglected children above the Sauble river than in probably all the rest of Bruce put together. The state of morality in the North is simply appalling, and the number of children that are being brought into the world outside of wedlock and handed over to the Society is becoming the saddest white man's burden that this county is up against.—Bruce Herald.

Louis Starkman of Grand Valley laid a charge before T. C. Hamilton, P. M., against W. J. Watt and Joseph Greenwood for alleged assault. A dispute arose over an umbrella Starkman borrowed last summer from Watt and which the latter went to get the other day. A few hot words came followed by Watt and Starkman taking hold of each other. Mrs. Starkman attempted to interfere and Greenwood shoved her back. Starkman first laid a common complaint of assault, but has now changed it to a civil action. The magistrate held a hearing on Saturday when he dismissed the case with costs.
