

OMEMEE WIFE GREET'S INVALIDED SOLDIER
HUSBAND AT KINGSTON

WOUNDED OMEMEE MAN RETURNS TO CANADA

Wounded on D-Day while on duty as a driver-mechanic for the Royal Canadian Electrical Mechanical Engineers, Chmn C. N. Armstrong of Omemee, is given a warm welcome by his wife on arrival at the Kingston Military Hospital, after returning to Canada aboard the hos-

Pte. C. Armstrong
Injured Overseas

Omemee, July 26 (Staff)—Word has been received by Mrs. Cecil Armstrong, nee Dorothy Ellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Ellis, Omemee, that her husband, Pte. Cecil Armstrong, R.C.O.C. has been injured in a motorcycle accident in England. On Friday Mrs. Armstrong received a letter from her husband advising her of the extent of his injuries. He is suffering from a compound fracture of the right leg and severe side lacerations and his right arm is injured causing temporary paralysis.

Pte. Armstrong enlisted in the Royal Canadian Ordinance Corps in September 1941, and landed in England on June 18th, 1942. His wife and little son Jimmie, reside in Omemee with Mrs. Armstrong's parents Mr. and Mrs. W. Ellis. Jimmie was born after his father left Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis also have two sons serving in His Majesty's forces LAC David Ellis, who is at present with the RAF in France and Tpr. Harry Ellis RECCE who is stationed at Dundurn, Sask.

Armstrong, Cecil